SOCIAL EVENTS

Young society is looking forward with expectation on the quiver to the amateur theatricals promised them by Mrs. Albert Salb nee Miss Esther Robinson, an October bride. Her arrangements have been made for some time in in December, and at that time there will be an amusing vaudeville performance by a number of the younger set. Definite arrangements as to where the program will be held have not been made yet. The arc to go to some worthy charity. Whatever Mrs. Salb undertakes is always a success, as past experiences testify, and it is safe to say that when the time draws near the entertainment will usurp all interest. Some of the most prominent girls of the younger set have promised their services in conducting booths.

Married at Seattle.

A Year of Blood.

The year 1903 will long be remembered in the home of F. N. Tacket, of Alliance, Ky., as a year of blood; which flowed so copiously from Mr. Tacket's lungs that death seemed very near. He writes: "Severe bleeding from the lungs and a frightful cough had brought me at death's door, when I began taking Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, with the astonishing result that after taking four bottles I was completely restored and as time has proven permanently cured." Guaranteed for sore lungs, coughs and colds, at J. C. Perry's drug store. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.
