A HOUSE BUILT ON SAND

Building In Course of Construction Falls With Its Builders

Long Beach, Cal., Nov. 9.—At 9:45 the center section of the new five-story Bixbie Hotel collapsed, burying 25 to 30 people in the ruins. An hour later the west wing of the building also caved in. The east section is still standing. At 10:36 four bodies had been removed from the ruins of the center section, and also several injured persons. The work of rescue is still progressing, and it is believed many dead bodies remain in the wreckage. Of the dead recovered only one is identified, William Hartle, of Long Beach. Two of the dead are Mexicans. The property damage will reach $350,000.

The body of Dick Perkins, a workman, has been identified. Among the seriously injured are Ira Zee, James Parker, —, Mason and an unknown workman. J. W. Ellis, a carpenter; F. W. Shelds, C. H. Childen, Ira Colwell, J. Boine, T. H. Imlay, G. Rainbarger, F. W. Sulde, Ed. Watson and Foreman Ross are unaccounted for. Shifting sands beneath the foundation are believed to have caused the disaster. The building was in the course of construction, and nearly 100 men were at work on the four floors. With a terrific crash the walls crumbled, and the men were precipitated beneath huge piles of concrete and timbers. Within a few moments hundreds of people began work to rescue the victims.

The material was reinforced concrete, and when the crash came this disintegrated to bits.

HE MAY GO BACK FOR LIFE

His Indiscretion May Cause Hinshaw to Return to the Penitentiary

Indianapolis, Nov. 9.—Rev. Wm. Hinshaw was given a hearing before the governor today, charged with wrongful conduct with Mrs. George Freeman. He maintained his innocence, but Sheriff-elect Freeman, of Wabash county, says he can prove his wife and Hinshaw were together at a hotel at Shirley. Hinshaw admits that he took Mrs. Freeman driving, and that she spent the night in his mother's house. If the governor decides Hinshaw is guilty he will be returned to the penitentiary for life to serve out an uxoricide sentence.

Hinshaw had served several years in the pen for murdering his wife, who was found lying on the front steps of her house with a pistol bullet in her brain. Hinshaw was found at the same time lying in the yard with several knife slashes on his breast. He claimed robbers committed the deed, but was convicted. He was paroled during good behavior. He is the brother of the congressman from Montana.

Indianapolis, Nov. 9.—When Hinshaw took the stand he admitted his guilty intimacy with Mrs. Freeman, and all the charges preferred by Freeman. The governor immediately revoked the parole, and ordered his return to prison to resume his life sentence.

May Close University.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 9.—The acuteness of the present university crisis continues and threatens eventually to result in the suspension of studies. The government again has addressed the faculty of the University of St. Petersburg with an explicit statement in which it sets forth its intention of shutting down the university at once if outsiders persist in their demands and are permitted to trespass upon the campus, to take part in mass meetings and to bring about revolutionary conclaves within the precincts of the university.

A big mass meeting was held yesterday and continued until a late hour to protest against the expulsion from St. Petersburg of Hebrews who do not belong to the university and who desire to attend the lectures. A resolution was adopted making light of the threats to close the university and recommending that the faculty admit to its sittings upon student affairs delegates empowered to represent the student body. Judge Sewell will hand down a decision in conjunction with the proceedings instituted by Langdon to restrain Rief from taking possession of the office of district attorney early next week.
