CHICAGO STORE PEOPLES BARGAIN HOUSE

We Are Now the Biggest Shippers of Dry Goods Into Salem

The reason why we are, we do the biggest business; we don't buy goods to let them stay on the shelves; we buy them to sell them out quick. If we only make 5 cents a yard on a piece of Dress Goods—out goes—fifty cents or a dollar on a cloak. This rule applies to every thing in the store. Buy quick and sell quick. Keep the money turning over. That is the reason the CHICAGO STORE HAS JUMPED to the foremost rank, so quick our greatest trouble now is to be able to get the goods fast enough to supply our wonderful growing business.

STEW IN THEIR OWN GREASE

Secretary Shaw Refuses to Dish out Government Money

New York, Nov. 13.—Shaw today reiterated his determination to let the speculators stew in their own grease. They are stewing, too. Call money went as high as 12 per cent this morning, and bankers and brokers said that unless something was done, the million dollar stock pool would have to be unloaded. Drastic liquidation would mean a big fall in prices before normal conditions were restored.

The officers expect to find evidence which will cause many arrests in America.

Preferred to Step Down Rather Than Go Against a
Friend

Nolan, register of the Dalles and office, states he resigned because he was required by the interior department to make a report on alleged irregularities in the office, regarding giving out advance information, which implicated former Congressman Malcolm Moody, to whom he owed his appointment. TANNER FILES ANSWER

In his answer to the disbarment proceedings against him before the supreme court this morning, which was received this afternoon by mail, Judge A. H. Tanner, by his counsel, W. W. Cotton and C. E. S. Wood, admits the principal allegation in the complaint, but denies that the plea of guilty amounts to a conviction of a felony involving moral turpitude, and that no judgment was ever entered against him on the charge of perjury.

That he was granted an unconditional pardon by the President of the United States June 26, 1906, which exonerated him of crime, and exempted him from disbarment proceedings. That the perjury occurred before the grand jury, as a citizen, and not in his professional capacity. He then recites the history of the case, and the part he took in the celebrated Mitchell conspiracy case.

OWOSSO MICHIGAN MYSTERY

Were There Three Cases of
Suicide or Was It Four Murders?

Owosso, Mich., Nov. 13.—Bert Seely, suspected of killing Edwin Edgar, a farmer, who was ambushed, was found dead in bed Monday morning beside his dead wife, both having taken poison, evidently a suicide compact.

Owosso, Mich., Nov. 13.—Officials of the county say they don't regard the supposed suicide of Bert Seely and wife as conclusive evidence that Seely killed Edwin Edgar. Possibly the couple was murdered. They left a note saying they took poison, and directing that no suspicion be attached to Dewey Seely, Bert's brother. The sheriff says they may have been murdered by Edgar's murderer to keep silent their knowledge of the crime. The supposed suicide of Helvin Houghton, the same day Edgar was murdered, is also being investigated.

DISBARMENT PROCEEDINGS. No Opinions Handed Down by the Supreme Court.

In the supreme court this morning the case of the State against George B. Small, for contempt, was called, and on motion of Colonel Cogswell, of Portland, who appeared for Small, was continued for ten days.

The case cited against H. H. Turner, of Salem, cited to appear for disbarment came upon a demurrer to the original complaint. Frank Grant, the prosecutor for the State Bar Association, was not present, but Carey F. Martin, for Turner, argued the demurrer. In case the demurrer is overruled, the case will be argued on its merits.

Judge A. H. Tanner, of Portland, was cited to appear today for disbarment trial. He telephoned Judge Murphy that the answer to the complaint would be sent by mail, but at the time the court met the answer had not been received.
