

OUR CANDIES

Have you tried them lately?
CHOCOLATES
 Much better than other makes.
 Ask for our Ice Cream Chocolates.
 They reach perfection.
WAGON BUNS NOUGAT
WAFERS KISSES,
TAFFIES, ETC.
 Always a little superior. Box
 Candy. When you buy a box of candy be sure it has the stamp of the old "Cupid."—the sign of quality.

Fuller & Douglas

Confectioners and Bakers.
 400 State St. Phone 187
 Oysters, Lunches, Salads. Our lunch room open from 12 to 12.

Grand Opera House

JOHN F. COBDRAY, Mgr.
 ONE NIGHT ONLY.
THURSDAY, NOV. 22nd
 Wilson Barrett's famous play

THE SIGN OF THE CROSS

Under direction of R. G. Craerin.
 The Most impressive religious play
 ever presented.

Magnificently Produced
 Handsome Costumes
 Complete in Every Detail
 A Dramatic Event of the Season
 Prices—$1.00, 75c, 50c and 35c.
 Box office open Thursday at 9 a. m.

The Leading

Jewelry and Optical Store.
 Easy to find; only one on Commercial Street; Goods marked in plain figures.

Chas. H. Hinges

Jeweler and Graduate Optician. Next Door to Capital National Bank.

In a Dime Museum.
 The Visitor—Is there much money
 in your business.
 The Freak (who eats nails, tacks and glassware)—Not much nowadays. The Hardware Trust has put up the price of tacks and nails so that there's hardly a living in eating them. —Chicago Daily News.

MEANS MUCH FOR OREGON

Sending a Strong Delegation After Money

Rivers and Harbors Appropriations to Be Put on a New Basis

The sending of a strong delegation to the National Rivers and Harbors Congress means a great deal to the development of Oregon, as all appropriations for rivers and harbors are to be put on a more permanent basis, in the same manner as the appropriations for any established department of the government are.

Governor Chamberlain will head the delegation, and he will be backed up and supported by about 20 public-spirited gentlemen from all over the state. It will cost these delegates about $200 each for the pleasure of going to the national capital on a purely public matter in the interest of the whole state. The main argument of the interest of the Oregon waterways will be made by the governor and Jos. Teal, of the Portland Chamber of Commerce, as men who take broad views and who stand for opening the harbors on the west coast, just as much as they do for the Columbia river.

The average appropriations for rivers and harbors the past thirty years has been about $19,000,000 per year, and these sums have been appropriated in a haphazard manner, sometimes several sessions of congress going without any expenditure. As a result the government has allowed unfinished works to be destroyed by the elements, and a large part of the money to improve rivers and harbors has been wasted.

Instead of this unsatisfactory plan a more permanent system is to be inaugurated by this congress, of having fifty or sixty millions appropriated annually, and to have all improvements undertaken made continuous and permanent, and on this plan Oregon will receive regular sums for maintaining her rivers and harbors on a much larger scale than ever before. This congress means millions to Oregon in the way of public improvements, and the work of this congress will be watched with great interest.

JENNINGS WILL GET NEW TRIAL

Supreme Court Reverses Case of the Josephine Patricide

Jasper Jennings, the alleged Josephine county patricide, will get another trial for his life. The supreme court today reversed the decision of the lower court in the case, and the young man will again be tried for the murder of his father, Newton M. Jennings, which occurred in a mining camp in that county, September 7, 1905. The murder, and the subsequent trial of Jasper Jennings and of Dora Jennings, his young sister, excited national notice. Jasper was convicted, and, later, Dora Jennings was tried and acquitted.

The ground set up by the supreme court for reversing the decision of the lower court was the admission of the evidence of a man named Wickersham, who, it is alleged, gave his opinion to the jury in addition to alleged facts. The opinion was made of Judge Halley.

Salem Boundary.
 The boundary line of Salem will remain as it is. In the suit of J. E. Murphy against Chas. Lembcke, J. W. Roland, J. W. Culver, the City of Salem and others, the supreme court affirmed the decision of Judge Galloway, of the district court of Marion county. The suit was to enjoin the city from assessing the plaintiff's property for municipal taxation. Judge Galloway decided the case in favor of the city, and an appeal was taken by Murphy.

Other Opinions.
 The motion to remand in the suit of the State against the Warner Valley Stock Company, appealed from Lake county, was denied. The opinion was by Judge Halley.

The decision of the lower court was affirmed in the matter of the State against John Branton, appealed from Lane county. Branton was sent to the penitentiary for 10 years for manslaughter. The opinion was by Judge Moore.

The opinion of the district court of Marion county was affirmed in the suit of J. Wofford against A. W. Fisher; opinion by Judge Halley.

A motion to re-tax the costs in the suit of Heyward Bros. & Wakefield Co. against the Doernbacher Manufacturing Company, appealed from Multnomah county, was denied.

The decision of the district court of Multnomah county in the matter of Frank Wilmot against the O. R. & N. Co. was reversed and a new trial ordered. Wilmot sued the railroad, and the lower court ordered a non-suit.

The suit of W. C. Puffer and Frank E. Dooley against the American Central Insurance Company, appealed from Multnomah county, was reversed.

City Editor—How did that story pan out about the big halibut that a man found on his step this morning.

Reporter—Nothing in it. I investigated it, and found the toeman had left it there.—Exchange.

OSTORIA.
 The Kind You Have Always Bought
 Bears the Signature of

Thanksgiving Clothes

You'll be thankful when you eat your thanksgiving dinner—if you are dressed in a "Salem Woolen Mill Store" suit.

PRICES: $10.00 to $25.00

MEN'S FANCY SHIRTS

Is one of our strong lines. $1, $1.50 and $2.

SALEM WOOLEN MILL STORE

136 Commercial St. Salem, Oregon

A DAISY LAST NIGHT

Thomas Gallagher, when asked how he came to be behind the city bars, and who brought him there, with his hand upon his aching head, yawningly answered: "Well-er, I don't know, but-er I think it must have been-er Hal Patton and somebody that-er put me here."

The fact is that Mr. Gallagher was so highly spirited last night that he could not tell who his escorts were, for Mr. Patton went to see "Kitty Get Married" at the opera house, and only has a passing acquaintance with the man in jail.

The gentlemen who were mistaken for Mr. Patton and his friend were Officers Longcor and Busick, who took the man who was seeing things to the city hall.

Gallagher recently completed serving out a sentence at the "Hotel Curtis," in East Salem, and has since been enjoying his money in a "let her go, Gallagher" style.

He is a Spanish war veteran, having served in the Philippines and receives a pension which enables him to use only the best brands, and make himself a jolly good fellow.

Recently one of the business men of the city was interested in a story that Gallagher told him about his intention of establishing in the city a wholesale house with a capital of $50,000. This Gallagher merely told to establish his financial reputation, and did not try to borrow money or sell stock.

Exception to the Rule.
 "The horse," remarked the moralizer, "is man's best friend."
 "Oh, I don't know," rejoined the demoralizer. "Did you ever bet on a horse that 'also rau'?"—Chicago Daily News.

You Cannot Afford

To pass by without stopping in to gaze upon the extensive stock of fancy groceries and other household necessities always carried in our store. Once you have tasted Baker's

BARRINGTON HALL COFFEE

You will have no other in the house. It is steel-cut Mocha and Java blend, and has no equal in the market. We want your patronage.

H. M. Branson GROCER
 426 State st.

Too Shrewd for Him.
 Wedderly—I'd hate to have any business dealings with Slaker. He's too smart.
 Singleton—Do you mean to say that you consider him smarter than yourself?
 Wedderly—I certainly do. Why, he had a chance to marry my wife—but he didn't.—Chicago Daily News

The Difference.
 Hewitt—That girl in the print dress is a poem.
 Jewett—She differs from most Hewitt—How is that?
 Jewett—Most poems don't get into print.—Town and Country.

Many a man would be happily married if it wasn't for his wife.

Thanksgiving Foot Dressing

If there is ever a time when Men, Women and Children should wear good looking Shoes it's on Thanksgiving Day. The feet are always prominent and it is impossible to hide them. We've Shoes that make feet thankful the moment they go inside of them. Name any price you wish to pay for a Shoe, and we'll show you the best Shoes your price can buy anywhere. Look well to your feet on Thanksgiving Day.

SALEM'S BIG SHOE CO.
OREGON SHOE CO.
 THE SHOERS

Slabwood

DELIVERED ON SHORT NOTICE

The Chas. K. Spaulding Milling Co.

GET ONE?

We have sampled the city with Wild Rose Flour. If you did not get a sample, call at the office and GET ONE. When you buy flour be sure it is like the sample.

WILD ROSE FLOUR
 $1.00 a sack at all grocers. Made from old wheat, too.

Big Values

AND Money Saving Prices

These true lines tell the gospel of this store in a nutshell and what more is there to say in the shoe business. If you get shoes which will wear like iron, wear until you are tired of them, you are satisfied. If you purchased that same shoe a little cheaper than other stores would charge you are

DOUBLY SATISFIED

That is the experience of shoe buyers at our store, and this is why it is the leading store of quality in Salem.

LADIES' GENTLEMEN'S CHILDREN'S

Footwear, it is the same. We lead in big values and little prices. MAKERS OF THE CELEBRATED

Irvin's Hand Made Shoes

Come in and see a pair of the most durable shoe on earth.

E. L. IRVIN & CO.

STATE ST., SALEM
 Specialty of Expert Shoe Repairing