M'GINN QUOTES OTHELLO

"Not Poppy" Nor Mandragora Nor All the Drowsy Syrups of the World

(Portland Journal.) Attorney Henry E. McGinn was taken from the court room of the state circuit court by Deputy Sheriff Kelly at the order of Presiding Judge Sears Monday morning, after McGinn had refused to leave the court room when requested to do so by the judge. Attorney McGinn at first refused to leave the court room with the sheriff, declaring that he had a constitutional right to remain. Later he rose to go, saying: "All right, I will go with the sheriff, but I want to tell you that I will be heard from. There is one man at this bar who knows you, who has been associated with you, and knows you thoroughly. And I am that man. McGinn turned and started to accompany Deputy Sheriff Kelly from the court room, but when about half way to the door he turned and said to Judge Sears: "Not poppy, nor mandragora, nor all the drowsy syrups of the world shall pass judgment upon me." Then he left the court room. Last Saturday McGinn was fined $150 by Judge Sears for contempt of court, growing out of a bitter attack made by McGinn upon District Attorney Manning, when court convened in the morning. At the same time District Attorney Manning was severely censured for contempt of court for remarks concerning what McGinn had said. In the afternoon both attorneys were adjudged in contempt of court, and were cited to appear to receive punishment. Manning Dodged Penalty. District Attorney Manning apologized for the words he had used in the morning, and no penalty was imposed upon him. Attorney McGinn was declared to have been the aggressor and was fined $25. He immediately requested that $25 be added to his fine, as he desired to repeat with emphasis what he had said. Judge Sears added $75, making the fine $100. McGinn then declared that the court had been taking a hand in the affair. At this Judge Sears increased the fine to $150. This morning when court convened, a case in which Attorney R. A. Leiter and McGinn were counsel was called to have the time of trial fixed. Attorney Leiter asked that the case be set for trial in the January term of court. Attorney McGinn rose and addressed the court, stating that he had no objection to the request of Attorney Leiter. After considering a moment Judge Sears said: "I will state, Mr. McGinn, that as long as you remain in a condition of recalcitrancy I cannot recognize your appearance in court." Verbal Battle Begins. "Well, then, if your honor does not recognize my appearance, I shall remain recalcitrant. That is understood; that I am contumacious and recalcitrant. Your honor was in no condition—" "I do not care for any argument," interrupted Judge Sears. "I don't care anything about it," replied McGinn, "I meant just what I said." "Send for the sheriff," ordered Judge Sears. "Yes, sir, I meant just what I said," repeated McGinn. "There is one man at this bar who knows you very well." "I will have to ask you to retire from the court room," said Judge Sears to McGinn. "I expect to remain in the court room," replied McGinn. "I have a constitutional right to remain. Your honor does not become, because you sit on the wool sack—" Sent From Court Room. Deputy Sheriff Kelly entered the court room while McGinn was speaking, and Judge Sears addressed him. McGinn sat down. "Mr. Sheriff, I have asked Mr. McGinn to withdraw from the court room on account of his language. You will see that this order is carried out," said the judge to Kelly. Deputy Sheriff Kelly placed his hand on McGinn's shoulder and asked him to accompany him from the court room. McGinn rose and addressed Judge Sears. "What shall I retire for," he asked. "What right have you to send me out of this court room? Haven't I as much right to remain in this court room as you? What constitutional right have you to order me out of this court room, because you sit on the bench? Have you any right to do so? If I am in contempt, I have been fined for it. You have no right to bring this matter—" "Just a moment," said Judge Sears. "You have paid no attention to the fine." "I will pay attention to it," said Mr. McGinn. "Will you allow me to speak?" queried Judge Sears. "Yes," replied the attorney. Battle Rages Again. "You have paid no attention to the fine," repeated the judge. "You have announced charges against the court, which you say you intend to probe to the bottom. You are in a condition of recalcitrancy, and the court cannot permit you to appear in that condition." "Then I will remain recalcitrant," said McGinn again. "That will be determined later in a legal manner," said Judge Sears. "I—" began McGinn. "Wait a minute," said the judge. "I have a right to talk here," said McGinn. "The recalcitrancy will continue." "The court has asked that you remove yourself from the court room, and I will ask the sheriff to see that you obey," said Judge Sears. McGinn rose to accompany Sheriff Kelly. "I will go with the sheriff, but I want to tell you that I will be heard from," he said to Judge Sears. "There is one man who knows you, and who has associated with you and knows you thoroughly. And I am that man." Half way to the door McGinn turned and hurled his parting invective at the judge: "Not poppy, nor mandragora, nor all the drowsy syrups of the world shall pass judgment upon me," he said, and retired with Sheriff Kelly. He passed into the hall outside of the court room for a few minutes, and declared that he would never apologize to the judge. Later he left the building. Judge Sears refused to discuss the matter.

It Costs Nothing

To find out for a certainty whether or not your heart is affected. One person in four has a weak heart; it may be you. If so, you should know it now, and save serious consequences. If you have short breath, fluttering, palpitation, hungry spells, hot flushes; if you cannot lie on left side; if you have fainting or smothering spells, pain around heart, in side and arms, your heart is weak, and perhaps diseased. Dr. Miles' Heart Cure will relieve you. Try a bottle, and see how quickly your condition will improve. "About a year ago I wrote to the Miles Medical Co., asking advice, as I was suffering with heart trouble, and had been for two years. I had pain in my heart, back and left side, and had not been able to draw a deep breath for two years. Any little exertion would cause palpitation, and I could not lie on my left side without suffering. They advised me to try Dr. Miles' Heart Cure and Nerve, which I did with the result that I am in better health than I ever was before, having gained 14 pounds since I commenced taking it. I took about thirteen bottles of the two medicines, and haven't been bothered with my heart since." MRS. LILLIE THOMAS, Upper Sandusky, Ohio. Dr. Miles' Heart Cure is sold by your druggist, who will guarantee that the first bottle will benefit. If it fails he will refund your money. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind.

Quick, sure cure for nervous complaints, general debility, female weakness, impoverished blood and malaria. Guaranteed by J. C. Perry's drug store. Price 50c.

Potatoes Plenty, Cars Scarce. Aurora, Ore., Nov. 27.—The car shortage on the Southern Pacific has had a demoralizing effect on shippers in this section. W. S. Hurst & Co., the produce and commission men who have warehouses at Aurora, Hubbard and Canby, cannot get cars to move the produce they have orders for. They have 16 car loads of potatoes sold for November shipment, and so far have been able to get only three car loads of the order shipped. Hops are piled up in the warehouses here waiting for cars, and owners are having to pay storage and insurance charges.
