Game Disappearing in Oklahoma.

Muskagee, Nov. 30.—So fast are prairie chicken, quail, wild geese, duck and turkey disappearing in Oklahoma that in a few seasons unless some protection is offered, the state will be denied of all kinds of game. In and out of season all kinds of game is ruthlessly killed and no attempt is ever made to enforce the game laws. The ruthless displacement of the streams, field and forests has moved a number of sportsmen in the state to demand a rigid enforcement of the game laws and plans are now being formulated for the protection of the rapidly disappearing wild game which the first state legislature will speedily enact into law.

The average young woman of today is busy. Beauty is only another name for health, and it comes to 99 out of every 100 who take Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea. Tea or Tablets, 35 cents. Dr. Stone's Store.

DICH STILL LIVES.

Wounded Man at Hospital Has Developed No Unfavorable Symptoms. The condition of Franz Dich, who is at the Salem Hospital, remains unchanged. This is the sixth day since he was shot at the Salem passenger depot by Policeman Busick and no unfavorable complications have yet arisen. Should he recover it will be beyond the expectation of his physicians and nurses, still his splendid physique and general good health are in his favor.

Nursing Mothers and Over-burdened Women

In all stations of life, whose vigor and vitality may have been undermined and broken-down by over-work, exciting social duties, the too frequent bearing of children, or other causes, will find in Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription the most potent, invigorating restorative strength-giver ever devised for their special benefit. Nursing mothers will find it especially valuable in sustaining their strength and promoting an abundant nourishment for the child. Excessive nursing too will find it a most reliable and safe system for baby's coming and rendering the ordeal comparatively painless. It can be had in any state, or condition of the female system.

Delicate, nervous, weak women, who suffer from frequent headaches, back-ache, dragging-down distress, low-down in the abdomen, or from painful or irregular, monthly periods, gnawing or distressed sensation in stomach, dizzy or faint spells, and imaginary specks or spots floating before eyes, have diarrhoea, pelvic catarrh, neuralgia, prostrated nervous system, or from any other disturbance of parts will, whether they experience many or only a few of the above symptoms, find relief and permanent cure by using faithfully and persistently Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription for woman's weakness. This remarkable medicine is a pure glyceric extract of the most potent medicinal roots without a drop of alcohol in its makeup. All its ingredients printed in plain English on its bottle-wrapper and attached under each. Dr. Pierce has the most intelligent investigation of the world to find the best agents known to the most advanced medical science of all the different schools of practice for the cure of woman's peculiar weaknesses and ailments. If you want to know more about the composition and professional endorsement of the "Favorite Prescription," send postal card request to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., for his free booklet treating of same. You can't afford to accept as a substitute for this remedy of inferior composition a secret mixture of unknown composition.

WANTED HIS WIFE FINED

The Telegram Wednesday says There's an old sarcastic saw about fellow who would cut off his own nose to spite his face, but to Deputy District Attorney Haney belongs distinction of having discovered man who wanted his wife fined and was anxious to stand the cost, to have it done. It happened yesterday. Mr. Haney was perspiring over the preparation an indictment. A large and choleric German rushed into the office and demanded a warrant for the arrest of his wife. He told the deputy prosecutor that his wife, with one of their 11 children, had gone over shopping, and that on their way home had lost one of their babies. This carelessness so riled the big German that he administered patriarchal tongue lashing. The frau retorted in kind, and coming more to the point grabbed a sack of stovewood and commanded the head of the house to shut up or she would shut him up. "I want her arrested, and fined," demanded the exercised lord and master. "I want her fined $100, and she got the money to pay it," and he held five shining 20's out of his pocket to show that he meant busi-
