

SOCIETY

Happenings of Interest on the Gay Side of Life in the Capital City.

No functions of a very formal or elaborate character have marked the social annals of Salem during the past week and the coming week will also be enlivened by only small parties and entertainments. These, during the week just gone as well as the ones that are looked forward to next week, have all been enjoyable little affairs and have kept a good deal of life in the old town.

This seeming lethargy in the Smart Set in the Capital City is doubtless due to the approaching Yule tide when many big parties, entertainments and receptions are expected to be given. It is rumored that one of these affairs which is looked forward to with the liveliest anticipation will be a big party or probably a dance that a number of high school students will tender to the Salem students at the colleges throughout the state who will be at home for the Christmas holidays.

There will be usual holiday entertainments, the churches contributing their usual number consisting of Christmas trees and suppers.

But until a few days before Christmas the large affairs will be few.

The Christmas Joy of the Lonely Heart.

While the earth abides there will always be lonely hearts whose loneliness is increased by the general goodfellowship of the season. Sorrow has a way of lifting the latch and coming, and unbidden guest, at some time or other, into every life. One day all is brightness, the next the world is dark. Among those who are keeping Christmas this year there are some who have to rise above the personal grief in their determination not to cloud the sunshine of others. How may they best succeed? By the old-fashioned way that leads heroic feet over rough and shows at every turn a shrine where one may stop and worship. The shrine is not visible to all travelers; from some it is hidden, but those who stop there to pray behold within it a cross, and they breathe the cross with flowers. They are lonely themselves, to drop the metaphor, but they do not inflict their sadness on their friends. They invite children to visit them, they carry comfort and cheer to the aged and the infirm. Although their own lives seem shorn of blessing they take pains to be blessed in the ministry—Margaret E. Sangster in Woman's Home Companion for December.

St. Paul's Bazaar.

The St. Paul's Episcopal church held a Christmas bazaar Thursday which was attended by a large number of people who secured many handsome Christmas presents. The affair was held in the Guild room and there were a number of handsomely appointed booths presided over by the ladies of the church. Those at the flower booth were Mrs. C. A. White, Mrs. Barr G. Lee and Miss Orytha Gatch; the candy booth, Mrs. Edward Weller and Miss Meyer; fancy goods booth, Mrs. Homer Smith and Mrs. Henry Pape; bags and apron booth, Mrs. Huelat, Mrs. Chadwick and Mrs. W. C. Tillson; pillow tops, Miss Bier, Miss Chadwick and Mrs. H. B. Thielson; Armenian work booth, Miss May Scoble; refreshments, Mrs. William Gilson, Mrs. W. F. Skiff, Miss Hayden, Mrs. C. M. Martin, Mrs. Fletcher.

Surprised Miss Warner.

A number of young ladies gave a delightful surprise party to Miss Clara Warner at her home on South Liberty street Monday evening, and spent the time in a most enjoyable manner. A dainty luncheon was served during the time.

Those present besides Miss Warner and her mother, were, the Misses Starr, Carey, Hattie Hargrove, Nellie Hargrove, Knowland, Daisy Deam-ercises and will have a Christmas tree.

Chicken Pie Supper.

Tuesday evening the members of the Central Congregational church gave an old fashioned chicken pie supper at their church parlors on Nineteenth and Ferry.

Over a hundred people took supper during the evening, and about thirty dollars was realized which will go to help pay off the church debt.

The supper was served by the Misses Lulu Mothorn, Hazel McIntire, Hildur Stenstrom, Lalla Yantis, Ruth Van Patton and Bernice Reed.

Entertained for Miss Calbreath.

Mrs. S. C. Dyer and Miss Marguerite Looney entertained about 60 Friday afternoon, complimentary to Miss Helen Calbreath, who leaves soon for Germany to finish her musical education. The Dyer home was decorated with a profusion of mistletoe, holly and small fir trees, all tending toward the Christmas idea. Festoons of ever greens were also effectively used.

Five hundred was played, Mrs. Tom Wilson receiving first prize, while Miss D'Arcy and Mrs. J. R. Whitney received prizes. Miss Effie Needham presided at the punch bowl. Miss Ruby Cornell, Mrs. Frank Douglas, Mrs. R. B. Fleming and Miss Orytha Gatch assisted in the serving.

One of the features of the afternoon was a small Christmas tree, beautifully trimmed, and laden with small gifts, which were distributed among the guests.

Attended the Glee Club.

The University of Oregon Glee and Mandolin Club's concert last night was the occasion of a large number of parties. Besides the boxes, there were many happy groups throughout the large audience. The alumni of the U. of O., who reside in this city, occupied six of the boxes. They are as follows, with their class year appended: Dr. W. Carleton Smith, '96; Mrs. Lotta C. Smith, '97; Carey F. Martin, '93; Miss Susie Bannard, '01, of Eugene; Judge R. S. Bean, '76; W. T. Slater, '83; A. O. Condit, '84; J. R. Whitney, '84; Fay Howe, '96; George W. Jones, '94; Walter C. The other boxes were occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Thielson, Mr. Chauncey Blash, Miss Ruth Gabrielson, Miss Lela Herren, Mr. Edward Thielson and Mr. and Mrs. William H. Thielson.

The Priscilla Embroidery Club attended in a body. The senior class of the Salem High school occupied a section.

About 25 of Salem's prominent society people gave a "Neighborhood" party, and occupied a section, among them being Dr. and Mrs. W. S. Mott, Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Moores, Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Raymond, Mr.

and Mrs. J. L. Stockton, Mrs. Ida Babcock, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Brown and Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Lawrence.

The opera house presented a gay appearance with the crowd of handsomely gowned ladies, and everywhere the Salem High School colors, red and black, were in evidence, while the lemon of the U. of O. was also prominent. Each of the alumni carried or wore yellow chrysanthemums, in loyalty to their school.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

By local application, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free. F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O.
