SECOND CHAPTER OF EPISODE

W. W. Slaughter Sues C. L. Remington, His Assailant For $11,000 Damages

The second chapter in the Remington-Slaughter shooting episode, of Woodburn, in which the former stands bound over to the grand jury in $1,500 on the charge of assault with a dangerous weapon, alleged to have been committed September 21, was begun late yesterday afternoon when W. W. Slaughter, by his attorney, Thomas Brown, of Woodburn, instituted a suit in the circuit court asking for judgment for $11,000 for injuries suffered, and another suit in equity to restrain the defendant Remington and others from disposing of his real and personal property, the value of which is estimated at $2,500.

These suits are the outcome of the long-standing grudge or feud existing between C. L. Remington and W. W. Slaughter, arising from domestic troubles, which came very near resulting in a fatal tragedy at the Slaughter farm, near Woodburn, when Remington is alleged to have fired three shots at Slaughter from ambush, while the latter was plowing in his field, one of the balls from a .39-39 Savage rifle penetrating the left shoulder and nearly causing death and the left eye of Slaughter was struck by some flying fragment and the sight destroyed.

Attorney Brown states that Slaughter is still in a precarious condition of health and his recovery is by no means positively assured. The co-defendants in the equity action with Remington are T. M. Hicks, Lawrence L. Remington and J. K. Gow. The property seized consists of several lots and buildings in Woodburn of the estimated gross value of $5,000, but covered by a $1,500 mortgage.

The kidney secretions were infrequent and contained a sediment. The relief I obtained from Dr. Doan's Kidney Pills was very great. I felt better after taking the first box, and I now feel in better health than for a long time. Every kidney sufferer should use Dr. Doan's Kidney Pills."

America is a nation of dyspeptics

The use of lard in cooking is the main cause. For your own protection you should divorce yourself from all food cooked with lard. Instead, use Cottolene, the purest and most palatable shortening possible to produce.

Cottolene is made from refined vegetable oil and choice beef suet, is full of richness, yet free from dyspepsia.

It will give you better food, and food which will agree with you.

Cottolene is never sold in bulk. It comes in sealed white pails, with red label and band. In the center of the label is our trade mark—a steer's head in cotton plant wreath. Cottolene is not exposed to all the odors which surround it; lard is, because it usually comes in bulk.

The quality of Cottolene is guaranteed. We stand behind it. You take no chances in its use.

Forstall dyspepsia by the use of Cottolene. Any good grocer will supply you.

A thorough trial of Cottolene will make you wonder why you stuck to hog lard so long.

COTTOLENE was granted a GRAND PRIZE (highest possible award) over all other cooking fats at the recent Louisiana Purchase Exposition, and food cooked with COTTOLENE another GRAND PRIZE.

"Home Helps" a book of 300 choice recipes, edited by Mrs. Rorer, is yours for a 2 cent stamp, if you address The N. K. Fairbank Company, Chicago.

A NEW FEATURE—The patent air-tight top on this pail is for the purpose of keeping COTTOLENE clean, fresh and wholesome; it also prevents it from absorbing all disagreeable odors of the grocery, such as fish, oil, etc.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

By local application, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free. F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O.
Sold by druggists, 75c.
