BROWN'S WILL A CONFESSION

"Like Crystal Showed the Things it Most Would Hide"

A dispatch from Salt Lake City under date of December 21 will go far towards making the public believe that Mrs. Bradley did the correct thing when she shot ex-Senator Brown. No comment on the article is necessary or possible. It is beneath it:

Had the late ex-Senator Arthur Brown foreseen his death at the hands of Mrs. Anna Bradley, he could have devised no more ingenious retaliation than the post mortem revenge contained in his will. The document, which was written August 24, 1906, four months before Mr. Brown was shot down at the Raleigh hotel in Washington, was filed today for probate.

"I do not devise, or give or bequeath anything to any of the children of Mrs. Anna M. Bradley," is the language of the will. "I do not think either or any child born to Mrs. Anna M. Bradley is or are mine, but whether such child or children is or not, I expressly provide that neither or any of them shall receive anything of my estate.

"I have never married Anna M. Bradley and never intend to. If she should pretend that any such relation ever existed between us to justify such inference I direct my executors to contest any claims of any kind she may present and I direct that she receive nothing from my estate."

The testator bequeaths all his property, valued at about $75,000, to his two children, Alice Brown and Max Brown.

The children so specifically disinherited are Arthur, aged 7, and Mark, aged 3 years. The attorneys engaged by Mrs. Bradley's relatives in Salt Lake decline to discuss the will at this time, but there is scarcely a question that a contest will be instituted at much for the purpose of establishing their paternity as to secure a monetary consideration. This is more likely, as Mrs. Bradley is, or was a few months ago, in possession of letters signed with Brown's name in which the relationship with one or both of the children is acknowledged. In one of these letters, written after the birth of the first child, occurs the quotation: "Your blood with mine commingled yet shall mount the throne of kings."

The contents of the will has caused a sensation in Salt Lake and given rise to severe criticism of the dead lawyer. The document was filed by Max Brown, who is named as executor.

The Best Magazines at Bargain Prices

Any magazine, newspaper or periodical, no matter where published can be subscribed for through THE BOBBS-MERRILL COMPANY, Indianapolis, at wholesale rates.

We offer this service to get more readers for THE READER MAGAZINE and THE HOME MAGAZINE, and to pay you for your interest and patronage, we offer you an actual cash saving on all magazines.

WHAT MAGAZINE CLUBBING MEANS.

A magazine club formerly meant getting together a number of people to subscribe for the same magazine. Under our plan it means getting together a number of magazines to be furnished in one order at a greatly reduced price. For instance: The Reader the Cosmopolitan, The Home Magazine and Harper's Bazar, if bought each month at the news-stands, would cost $7.20 per year. If subscribed to separately they cost $6.00 a year. We have arranged a club of these magazines whereby we can furnish all four for $3.00 or just one-half of the subscription price.

Free—Our beautiful 36-page magazine catalog will be sent in response to a postal card request. This tells how you may secure absolutely free a year's subscription to The Home Magazine, and a year's subscription to The Reader Magazine.
