Laundry Temporarily Closed—As a result of ungrateful help, the Capital City laundry has been temporarily closed down. A good business has been worked up, and the customers will be cared for again in the near future. I am bound to build up this business to be one of the best in the state, as I have invested by money in good faith, believing the Salem people will appreciate a little competition, both as to quality of work and price. Keep your eyes and ears open for the Capital City laundry, and you will hear something drop. Wishing all a merry Christmas. Yours for business J. N. SHANTZ.

Sterling Silver—Table ware, at the prices before the raise, at Hinges' jewelry store. 3t

Silverware being almost given away at the Yokohama Tea Store's great bargain sale.

Banquets His Help—Saturday evening, after a hard day's work with Christmas shoppers, the clerks at the J. L. Stockton store were given a banquet by the genial proprietors. After having a good time and dispensing short speeches of good will and large bunches of Christmas presents, the meeting adjourned. Mr. Stockton likes to do the right thing by his help, and they are loyal friends of the business.

Just Received—A beautiful line of deposit ware, in various pieces. Perfume bottles, tea and coffee sets, mugs, etc. C. H. Hinges' jewelry store. 3t

Christmas at Postoffice—The postoffice will be open tomorrow from 8 o'clock to noon, in all departments, except the money order. The rural carriers will go out as usual, and the city carriers will deliver mail in the residence districts.
