

HOUSEHOLD COMFORTS.

The Daily Work Which Help a Great Deal.

It is the small comforts which make a household work endurable. It is the small comforts which make a housekeeper as a whole a great deal better off. For instance, she went on, "how much more convenient it is to have a scrubbing board with legs attached to a chair than the old fashioned way you had to rest on the table you used for your dishes or some equally inconvenient spot. Then take this kitchen chair. Really it makes an excellent step-ladder."

FLOWERED LAUNDRY BAGS.

...with which the highest shelves can be reached. Instead of a wood floor to scrub, how much better is one covered with linoleum, which may easily be wiped off with a damp rag.

In the bedrooms are flowered laundry bags made of cretonne and matching in color the different papers. Very convenient, this is, and a by no means artistic idea, as the bags prove. The child never has to strain to reach the wash tubs. We have a taper for that purpose in every room.

"Did you notice that row of white enamel canisters, all labeled, on the kitchen shelves? You can lay your hand on anything you want at a moment's notice. And don't forget the holder for salt and for pepper, nailed right over the stove, convenient to the pots and pans. Our motto is, 'A place for everything and everything in its place,' with this place a handy one."

JEANETTE WARD.

The Story of a Medicine.

Its name—"Golden Medical Discovery" was suggested by one of its most important and valuable ingredients—Golden Seal root.

Nearly forty years ago, Dr. Pierce discovered that he could, by the use of pure, triple-refined glycerine, aided by a certain degree of constantly maintained heat and with the aid of apparatus and appliances designed for that purpose, extract from our most valuable native medicinal roots their curative properties much better than by the use of alcohol, so generally employed. So the now world-famed "Golden Medical Discovery" for the cure of weak stomach, indigestion, dyspepsia, torpid liver, or biliousness and kindred derangements was first made, as it ever since has been, without a particle of alcohol in its make-up.

A glance at the full list of its ingredients, printed on every bottle-wrapper, will show that it is made from the most valuable medicinal roots found growing in our American forests. All these ingredients have received the strongest endorsement from the leading medical experts of the world. It is the only medicine which has been recommended by the highest medical authorities for the cure of all the diseases for which "Golden Medical Discovery" is advised.

A little book of these endorsements has been compiled by Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., and will be mailed free to any one asking same by postal card, or letter addressed to the Doctor as above. From these endorsements, copied from standard medical books of all the different schools of practice, it will be found that the ingredients composing the "Golden Medical Discovery" are advised not only for the cure of the above mentioned diseases, but also for the cure of all catarrhal, bronchial and throat affections, accompanied with enterrhal discharges, hoarseness, sore throat, lingering, or hanging-coughs, and all those wasting affections which, if not promptly and properly treated are liable to terminate in consumption. Take Dr. Pierce's Discovery in time and persevere in its use until you give it a fair trial and it is not likely to disappoint. Too much must not be expected of it. It will not perform miracles. It will not cure consumption in its advanced stages. No medicine will. It will cure the affections that lead up to consumption, if taken in time.

Smiles

Simon Guggenheimer is one on Colorado.

Lots of men this state could have spared better than F. C. Baker.

National pure food law is all right, but what most families need is a girl to prepare the food.

When a man imagines he's got to save himself by heading off enterprises, and stopping improvements, he's just about ready for the next world.

The mixers of "cure-all" nostrums are unhappy these days; they must tell of what their nostrums are composed, and they realize the effect of that information on buyers.

Was there any good poetry written the past year? Well, there might have been, but there was none printed outside of The Capital Journal that amounted to much.

The pessimist sees wrongs and tries to destroy them; the optimist tries to not see wrongs, but if he does it's by accident, and he leaves them untouched, in the belief that "they'll come out all right, anyhow."

"Dishonesty between man and man concerns only the individuals involved. Indifference or indolence regarding a citizen's duty to his state constitutes a crime against all one's fellow men, it becomes a sort of treason to the state."

The Capital Journal will be open to the plain, common people without charge to discuss whatsoever they please, but "Taxpayer," "Citizen" and "Publicans" will have to pay at regular advertising rates when they want to get into print and roast anyone anonymously.

Women Farmers in Texas.
Galveston, Jan. 3.—A woman's experiment in farming is being attempted in this state under the leadership of Miss Mary Hayden, a novelist of Chicago. She has purchased 5000 acres of land for the purpose of founding a woman's colony. Miss Hayden and her associates, all of whom are unmarried ladies, are going in for light farming and invite women with small capital or "useful" women without capital to join them. Women may have their husbands accompany them if it is absolutely unavoidable; but no man will have any voice in the management of the colony.

Wise Counsel from the South.
"I want to give some valuable advice to those who suffer with lame back and kidney trouble," says J. E. Blankenship, of Beck, Tenn. "I have proved to an absolute certainty that Electric Bitters will positively cure this distressing condition. The first bottle gave me great relief and after taking a few more bottles, I was completely cured; so completely that it becomes a pleasure to recommend this great remedy." Sold under guarantee at J. C. Perry's drug store. Price 50c.

Growth in the Northwest.

Lincoln, Neb., Jan. 3.—So rapid is the northwest opening up that additional railroad facilities are daily demanded. Figures issued last evening show that the St. Paul road issued $24,000,000 of common and today announces that it is going to issue $75,000,000 preferred. Northwest disposed of $16,000,000 common last summer and has now received authority from its stockholders to increase the total amount of common stock by $100,000,000 for use before long. The Great Northern has announced an increase of $60,000,000 and an issue of $93,000,000 Northern Pacific is imminent. All over the northwest business is growing to a surprising extent and new roads are being projected in all directions.
