EARTH QUAKE HORRORS

Davis says the city is quiet. Evans heard of the disaster Tuesday night by intercepted wireless, and at once sent the battleships, because he knew there were no English troops on the island, and feared looting by the negroes.

Glasgow, Jan. 18.—There were two slight earthquakes at Oban, Scotland, yesterday. No damage.

Boston, Jan. 18.—A message to the Hambur-American line from Captain Forwood, their Kingston representative, says all the American tourists escaped. Forwood is seriously injured. The company's piers were turned into hospitals.

Galveston, Jan. 18.—A Panama cable reports conditions at Kingston as very bad, with a death list of nearly 700, and possibly 1000. Burying the dead and rescue work is progressing slowly. The poor are fighting for food, fruit being the only nourishment within their reach. The wealthy people have monopolized other food supplies. Twenty negroes were shot for looting, and many more were killed by citizens who caught them stealing. The sick and wounded are suffering for medicine, and a liberal supply brought in by boats was stolen by negroes, who were caught disposing of the same to those who had money.

Udine, Italy, Jan. 18.—A severe earthquake was felt at 4 o'clock this morning. No lives lost.

Washington, Jan. 18.—Rear-Admiral Davis wires that Admiral Evans is ashore conferring with the governor of Jamaica. The American ships are the only men-of-war present. The Cuban consul was killed.

Conditions in Kingston.

Kingston, Jan. 17.—Foreign residents of the old city have been attacked by dysentery on account of a lack of food and impure water. The dead, natives and tourists alike, are being buried in unmarked trenches, or burned on huge pyres of debris.
Ships in the harbor are used as temporary hospitals. Outsiders are warned to keep away on account of pestilence and repeated quakes.
There is likelihood of other seismic disturbances.

Deaths of Earthquake.

Kingston, Jan. 17.—Besides Sir James Ferguson, the most conspicuous white men killed were Captains Constantine and Young, of the Royal mail steamship service. Other whites killed include Major Hardeman, Dr. Gibbs Varley, Dr. Mencler, Dr. Robertson and wife, Miss Lockett, B. Varley, J. W. M. Bradley and four members of a family named Livingston. Others are reported missing and are believed to be dead.

A great exodus to the hills is reported, as the people feared a recurrence of the tremors.

Medical supplies are the chief need at present, and there is a dearth of doctors. Volunteer nurses are plentiful.

It is stated that there is no immediate danger of a serious food famine. Fruit is plentiful and the surrounding towns have already begun to send in food.

Burying the Dead.

The work of burying the dead was begun immediately, a necessary precaution in a tropical climate. Many bodies have been buried without identification. Scores of bodies are still in the ruins, and, from a sanitary point of view, this causes alarm.
Efforts to recover the bodies are going on all the time.

While there is necessarily great confusion, the panic itself is over.
The city is practically under martial law.

A late dispatch received here today states that 310 bodies have already been buried.

Hundreds of Insane Escape.

It also reports the destruction of the insane asylum, and says hundreds of lunatics escaped and are roaming at large.

Thousands of homeless people, this dispatch says, are sleeping in the streets and parks. If rain should fall the suffering is sure to be great.

The damage outside of Kingston is reported as not being great. Trains are running to Titchfield. Port Antonio is reported little damaged, and Spanish Town the same.

Estimate Dead at 1000.

St. Thomas, D. W. I., Jan. 17.— Reports received here from Jamaica say it is estimated that 1000 persons have been killed by the earthquake and fire and that 90,000 persons are homeless. The damage to Kingston alone is placed at fully $10,000,000.

Advices received from Jamaica declare that all people have been warned to keep away from Kingston. The stench is described as awful. Money is useless. The banks have been burned, but the vaults are supposed to be safe.

The misery on all sides is indescribable. Rich and poor alike are homeless. Provisions of all kinds are urgently needed. It is impossible to say where anybody can be found.

Sir James Ferguson, vice-chairman of the Royal Mail Steamship company, is among the killed. The dead are being buried under smoldering ruins.

Supplies for Kingston.

Washington, Jan. 17.—The secretary of the navy this afternoon ordered the supply ship Celtic, loaded

Wreck on Great Northern.

Bellingham, Wash., Jan. 17.—The south-bound Owl train on the Great Northern from Vancouver to Seattle crashed into an open switch early this morning and collided head on with a passenger train just in from Seattle. Frank Watts, watchman, oiling the dead engine was instantly killed. Engineer Scott of the Owl train may die. Two engines and one car wrecked.

To Help Coal Famine.

Washington, D. C., Jan. 17.—It was announced this afternoon that President will send a special message to congress, advocating an increase of the powers of the interstate commerce commission. The announcement followed a conference concerning the coal famine in the Northwest.

National Wool Growers.

Salt Lake, Jan. 17.—Owing to delayed trains the National Wool Growers' Association convention held its open session this afternoon. Addresses of welcome were delivered by Governor Cutler and Fisher Harris, representative of Mayor Thompson.
S. H. Love, of the Commercial Club, responded, also F. J. Hagenbarth, of Spencer, Idaho. Annual address by J. M. Wilson and Douglas, of Wyoming. Tonight the visitors will be entertained by the big Mormon choir at the tabernacle, and local musicians. There are about 1000 delegates, principally from the intermountain states.

Three Weeks' Shower.

Louisville, Ky., Jan. 17.—The Ohio river flood is likely to equal the flood of 1884, which was the greatest in history. Rain has fallen in the Ohio valley for nearly three weeks. Bridges are out this morning near Parkersburg. Loss $75,000.
One is out near Leon, Ky., on the B.
& O. this morning. Trains in every direction are hours late.

Son of Vice President.

Steubenville, O., Jan. 17.—Frederick C. Fairbanks pleaded not guilty here today to a charge of perjury, pending citation of authorities. It is alleged that he purjured himself to secure a license to marry a month ago telling the clerk he was a working man. He has given a bond of $500.

Tobacco Trust Fined.

New York, N. Y., Jan. 17.—The McAndrews & Forbes company was fined $10,000; the J. S. Young company $8000, in the federal court today for combining to control the trade in licorice paste. A stay of 60 days was granted but motion for a new trial denied.

The Coal Shortage.

Sacramento, Cal., Jan. 17.—A resolution for the investigation of the coal shortage was introduced in the assembly today, and referred to a committee, which at once reported favorably.

Unfair to Labor.

Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 17.—The miners' convention adopted a resolution seeking separation of the department of labor and commerce in the cabinet, declaring that the department, as constituted, is unfair to labor.

His Sister a Countess.

New York, Jan. 17.—The Countess of Yarmouth a sister of Harry Thaw, is a passenger on a steamer due here today. She is coming to aid her brother to defend himself against the charge of murder.

Will Help Jamaica.

Washington, D. C., Jan. 17.—The house has passed resolutions authorizing the President to use and distribute such provisions of the navy department as may be necessary for the relief of the citizens of Jamaica.

Bryan at Olympia.

Olympia, Wash., Jan. 17.—W. J.
Bryan has wired an acceptance of invitations to witness a joint session of the senate and house Friday morning.

Due from Rockefeller.

government demands $19,000 duty on Standard Oil alleged to have been brought in 1901 on which duty is unpaid.

Odessa, Jan. 17.—Three terrorist were hanged in a row in the public gardens here today.

Secretary of War.

Washington, Jan. 17.—Secretary Root left today for Ottawa Canada, accompanied by wife and daughter.

Adams vs. Wentworth.

In the case of A. B. Adams against James Wentworth, which is being tried in the circuit court, a jury of eleven men was decided upon, and made up of the following gentlemen: Jesse Macey, H. Benson, William Berringer, E. W. Ross, Elmer G. White, Ellis Stevens, James Renner, J. A.
Beardsley, Oscar Dick, W. H. Moon,
J. T. Jones.

Sentence Postponed.

Judge Burnett has postponed pronouncing judgment on Henry Foster, who was convicted recently on the charge of assault until Saturday, January 19, at 1 o'clock p. m.

Skating on Slough.

Many lovers of the sport are skating today on the South Salem slough and report good ice.

From Chicken-Pox to Cholera

Cure-Alls No Longer Tolerated.

In early days every barber shop was an operating room and the town physician resorted to bleeding as the sure cure for all ailments from chicken-pox to cholera. As a result many, including our first President, died prematurely.

The present low rate of mortality is due in large measure to the advances made in medical science and the knowledge of the specific treatment needed for each disease known.

There is no disease more common among American and English people than dyspepsia. So prevalent has it become that thousands suffer with it half unconsciously, consider the symptoms as natural to their physical constitution and resign themselves to live on in that condition.

There is a remedy for dyspepsia and only one, recommended and approved generally by physicians.
Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets have stood the test of years of use by millions of sufferers, have been subjected to government analyses in Europe and America and alone have been found to contain the elements which nature has put into the stomach for digestion—pepsin, dila-tor and other ferments.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets relieve the stomach and bowels in a perfectly natural way by helping them do their work. If the stomach is weak in gastric juice, Stuart's Tablets invigorate them. Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets digest every form of food entering the stomach, one grain of the active principle of these Tablets being capable of digesting 2,000 grains of meat, eggs and other food.
They are not cathartic pills;—the action is simply that of a digestive.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets cure nothing but dyspepsia, waterbrash, sour stomach and kindred ailments resulting from the imperfect digestion of food, but these diseases are positively cured.

We will gladly send you a trial package to prove the truth of our claims. Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets can be gotten of all druggists at 25 cents. F. A. Stuart Co., 69 State Bldg., Marshall, Mich.
