THAW MURDER TRIAL BRYAN'S FOUR SPEECHES EXTENDS DEATH PENALTY

COMMONER BRYAN IS APPLAUDED

Makes Four Speeches at Salem, and Addresses the Legislature.

EPIGRAMS FROM BRYAN'S SPEECH.
No party in history has been vindicated on so many questions in ten years times as the Democratic party has been.
The President settled the coal strike by borrowing a Democratic plank to do it with.
The President has done a great deal and I thank him but he has not done enough.
I believe the Democratic party will yet be placed in power to carry into execution the principles of the party laid down in the last three conventions.

The speech made last night in the grand opera house by William Jennings Bryan no doubt embraces the platform of his party on which he will run for President in 1908. It is a political speech and a great one. Mr. Bryan possesses still that wonderful power of eloquence that

THREE PUBLIC ADDRESSES

Were Delivered by the Democratic Leader

Before the High School, the University and the Legislature Assembly

In addition to the great political speech that William Jennings Bryan made in the opera house last night, he appeared before Salem audiences three times this morning, and made short addresses. The first was a ten-minute talk to the students of the high school; the next a speech of twenty minutes before the student body of Willamette University, and the last was an address of advice and admonition to the joint assembly of the Oregon legislature. This speech occupied a half hour. This speech was concluded at 11 o'clock, and a few minutes later Mr. and Mrs. Bryan took the Southern Pacific train for the south. Stops will be made at Albany and Eugene.

THAW TRIAL RESUMED

Slow Work of Securing a Jury in the Case

New York, Jan. 24.—The Thaw trial was resumed at 10:30 this morning. The prisoner and members of his family appeared rather nervous. His mother was not in the court at the opening.
Josiah, the eldest son of the Thaw family, joined the family in court today for the first time. First examination of talesmen proceeded tediously.
Only Two Yesterday.
The two jurors selected Wednesday were turned over to a bailiff, who will have them in charge until the end of the trial. They are Deming B. Smith, a retired manufacturer of umbrellas, and Charles H. Fecke, an employing teamster.

There will be two daily sessions of the trial, concluding each afternoon at 5 o'clock.
Only two jurors were secured as a result of the first day's work. Out of the 200 talesmen 19 were examined. Three successfully passed the rapid-fire questions of the opposing counsel, but one was afterward excused by the court after making some private representations concerning his business. The court is taking a hand in the work of choosing a jury which shall pass on the justice of Thaw's claim that he had a right to shoot the man who had "ruined his wife."

Chicago, Jan. 24.—V. Pillarella, aged 40, an Italian said to have been manager of Italian banks in a number of cities, including Denver, was arrested this morning at the instigation of the police of Youngstown, Ohio, on the charge of fleeing with a deposit of $700. Pillarella was taken with appendicitis, the illness at a hospital causing his detection.

HE FLED WITH MONEY

But Was Overtaken By Appendicitis and a Warrant

Chicago, Jan. 24.—(Special).—A. Welch, of Portland; I. W. Anderson of Spokane; J. M. Rhodes and S. D. Sinkler, of Philadelphia, arrived in Eugene last evening from an inspection tour of the Willamette Valley Company's plants at Roseburg and Cottage Grove, and will spend today looking over their plants in this city.
Manager Welch was seen last evening and asked about construction of the street car line, said that yesterday 5000 additional ties were contracted for, making enough to complete the local system. The company will await action of the council on paying before they begin tearing up Willamette street to lay their ties.
They have ordered 25 miles of 65-pound steel rails, the first car of which is expected to arrive here in March.
The line up the McKenzie is an assured fact says Mr. Welch, a statement that will be pleasing to our McKenzie Valley friends.

CANAL IN GOOD SHAPE

Kansas City, Jan. 24.—Mr. Shonts, who has resigned as superintendent of the Panama canal, this morning said there were no disagreements. He had just completed the work of putting the canal in such a position that it can be constructed without further chaos, and says he can be of more service to the New Yorkers than to the country at large.

STORE KEEPER SHOT DEAD

London, Jan. 24.—William Whitley, the head of one of the greatest stores in London, was shot dead by an assistant in the firm today. The murderer then committed suicide.

DEATH PENALTY FOR HOLDUP

Terms of Bill to Make This Rapidly Increasing of Crime Unpopular

Senator George Wright, of Yamhill county, today introduced in the senate a bill to fix the death penalty for the holdup man.
The bill is one to define assault and robbery with a dangerous weapon, and to fix the death penalty therefor, in discretion of the court.
It re-enacts the present law against assault with intent to rob and kill, and has the following death penalty section:
Section 1. That section 1768 of the code be amended to read as follows:
Section 1768. If any person being armed with a dangerous weapon shall assault another WITH INTENT, IF RESISTED, TO KILL OR WOUND THE PERSON ASSAULTED and shall rob, steal or take from the person assaulted any money or other property which may be the subject of larceny, such person, upon conviction thereof, shall be punished by imprisonment in the penitentiary not less than five nor more than twenty years, OR BY THE DEATH PENALTY.

Section 2. This act being deemed of special importance, and an emergency is hereby declared to exist, on account of the growing frequency of the CRIMES OF ROBBERY AND HOLD-UP CRIMES OF ALL KINDS against men, women, domestic servants and even children, in all parts of the state, and inasmuch as it is desirable as a matter of public policy, it shall be in effect from and after its passage and approval by the governor.

BALILEY LASHES HEARST

Is Elected Senator But More Charges Await Him

Austin, Tex., Jan. 24.—The joint session of the legislature confirmed the re-election of Senator Bailey and the senator was sent for by the committee with an invitation to make an invitation to make an address.
"I will not play the hypocrite and say I have forgiven my enemies, but I assure my friends you can always command me to the last drop of blood," said Mr. Bailey. "The past four months witnessed one of the most strenuous efforts ever made in this republic to defeat the will of the people. The unusual part of this contest is that it was inspired and inaugurated by a man who was never a citizen of Texas and with no aim except to further his own interest."
Hearst's Aim to Destroy Him.
William R. Hearst inaugurated a campaign against me last June in his magazine. He has sought to sow the state with infamous scandal by sending thousands of papers to be spread abroad by newsmen as samples to poison the minds of the people.
"No man's character or woman's name is safe in his mad rush for conquest. All his millions and newspapers could not attract me to support such a man, who with all the machinery ever set to work in American politics has sought to destroy me, as he has destroyed others and will destroy others to come."
Moral Loper, Degenerate Coward.
"He is a man without character or intellect, whose candidacy would debauch any race or whose leadership would destroy any party—a moral leper, a political degenerate and a physical coward. He says things about me that he would not say to me."
"I would declare to the world that, while differing with President Roosevelt upon political questions, yet I unqualifiedly indorse his action in the matter of the Brownsville incident. We must treat the negro justly, so long as he behaves himself, but for the negro criminals we can have no tolerance."
New Charges Preferred.
The election took place in the presence of a large assembly, many of whom came from remote parts of Texas. Mr. Bailey received 108 votes of 147 cast. When the announcement was made the occupants of the galleries engaged in prolonged applause.

The investigating committee of the legislature today considered new charges against Mr. Bailey, preferred by Representative Cook. These declare that Mr. Bailey, while holding his office as senator, secured the settlement of claims for persons interested in the livestock market and has secured government concessions for private interests of land in the Indian Territory. The new charges will be filed with the others.

Evidence Proved Genuine.
Acting under authority of the Texas anti-trust law, County Attorney Brady late this afternoon had H. Naudin, one of the auditors of the Waters-Pierce Oil Company at St. Louis, brought before Judge J. J. Moore to secure testimony as to the authenticity of documentary evidence held by the state in connection with the Waters-Pierce Oil Company, which will be used in the forthcoming anti-trust suits against the company. This testimony now has a prominent part in the investigation of Senator Joseph W. Bailey by the legislative committee.

Mr. Naudin, through his attorneys, J. D. Johnson, of St. Louis, and R. L. Penn, of this city, exerted every effort to refrain from passing upon the authenticity of the papers, but he was finally ordered to do so by the court, the ruling being that the Texas anti-trust law granted the prosecution the right to get any statement from any one concerning cases at any time that they could secure witnesses. It was possible, added the court, that Naudin would be tried without the jurisdiction of the state courts when the case is called for trial in March.

Among the facts obtained from Mr. Naudin were that the notations on a voucher drawn in favor of Henry & Stribbling, of Texas, for $1500, part of the documentary evidence was placed there by Naudin himself on the date stated and that the various signatures on other checks and vouchers were genuine.
His evidence is alleged to have established that various vouchers and other documents in the possession of the attorney-general of Texas are correct records of the transactions between the Waters-Pierce Oil Company, Senator Bailey and others.

Legislature Adjourns.
Both houses of the legislature have adjourned to Monday at p. m.
