MULTNOMAH GETS SIX SENATORS

Bitter Fight Over the Reapportionment of Senatorial Districts

The reapportionment bill as far as relates to state senators passed the state senate yesterday afternoon after a bitter and acrimonious fight which was in progress for nearly two hours. The committee made a majority and a minority report, the latter being presented by Senator Hodson. This gave to Multnomah county eight senators. The majority gave the same county only six and a joint report, just as she enjoys at present. There was very little opposition shown to the adoption of the majority report except by the Multnomah delegation Malarkey, Hodson, Beach and Bailey made strong speeches in favor of the minority report and made every effort to delay consideration of the matter. Bingham, Hart, Smith and others defended the majority report and advocated the passage of the bill.

Motion after motion made by the Multnomah delegation to gain time was voted down and the bill was passed on its final passage. The apportionment as contained in the bill is as follows:

- 1—Marion, 2.
- 2—Lincoln, 1.
- 3—Lane, 1.
- 4—Linn and Lane, 1.

- 5—Douglas, 1.
- 6—Jackson, 1.
- 7—Josephine, 1.
- 8—Coos and Curry, 1.
- 9—Benton and Polk, 1.
- 10—Yamhill, 1.
- 11—Washington, 1.
- 12—Clackamas, 1.
- 13—Multnomah, 6.
- 14—Multnomah, Columbia and Clackamas, 1.
- 15—Clatsop, 1.
- 16—Wasco, 1.
- 17—Crook, Klamath and Lake, 1.
- 18—Gilliam, Sherman and Wheeler, 1.
- 19—Morrow, Union and Umatilla, 1.
- 20—Umatilla, 1.
- 21—Union and Wallowa, 1.
- 22—Grant, Harney and Malheur, 1.
- 23—Baker, 1.
- 24—Washington, Yamhill, Tillamook and Lincoln, 1.

Those who voted no on the final passage of the bill were: Bailey, Beach, Hodson, Johnson, Kay, Malarkey, Laughory, Nottingham, Sichel, Smith of Marion, Whealdon. All the rest voted aye.

Even from the Mountains. Ballard's Snow Liniment is praised for the good it does. A sure cure for rheumatism and all pains. Wright W. Loving, Grand Junction, Colo., writes: "I used Ballard's Snow Liniment, last winter, for rheumatism and can recommend it as the best Liniment on the market. I thought, at the time I was taken down with this trouble that it would be a week before I could get about, but on applying your Liniment several times during the night, I was about in 28 hours and well in three days." WATER CODE KILLED

Recalls the Saying of the Old Jew Shylock

That There Be Land Pirates and Water Pirates, One as Bad as the Other.

Despite the heroic efforts of Mr. Perkins, Mr. Dobbin and several other sincere supporters of the proposed irrigation code the private and corporate interests were far too strongly organized, and this, taken together with their never ceasing obstructive tactics, which were quite obvious and carried on to the point where the patience of Mr. Campbell and several other members was entirely exhausted the substitute bill for house bill 46, introduced by Mr. Perkins, went down to a disgraceful defeat at the hands of the house yesterday afternoon after the bill had been considered section by section and after a greater portion of the day had been devoted to its consideration, owing to the dilatory tactics of its mortal enemies, and adopted with only one insignificant amendment.

The real cause of the defeat of this measure, under all of these favorable indications, is a deep mystery to the minority members of the house. Some of those who voted against the bill say they did so because the western portion of the state was not exempted from the provisions, while others say they opposed the action of the house in severing the emergency clause from the bill, and this leaves the matter in a position where it is merely a matter of conjecture and speculation.

Some contend that the defeat of the measure was due to the voting down of the proposed amendment to exempt the western portion of the state, that is the territory lying west of the summit of the Cascades, from the provision of the bill until 1921, was the direct cause of the death of the measure while others say that this amendment was proposed in the interest of certain corporations which desired to have an opportunity to gobble up all of the valuable water rights that remain unclaimed during the fourteen-year interim. This amendment was offered as a compromise and, so it is claimed, with a view to ameliorating the objections of a certain element on the floor which was opposed to attaching the regulations to western Oregon where they are not applicable, but it is significant to note that the majority of the delegates from the Willamette valley not only voted for the measure without this amendment but voiced their disapproval of its adoption.

Then, again, it is claimed that the defeat of the bill was due to the severing of the emergency clause, which expelled the people from a vote upon it in case there was a desire to invoke the referendum but the principle advocates of the proposition of abrogating this section were those who had been resorting to the merest subterfuge and slightest pretext, including Representative Coffey, the leader of the opposition, and Wilson and Kubil, who are said to be peculiarly interested in the defeat of the whole measure. The principle argument introduced by Mr. Coffey, the spokesman for the other two gentlemen, was that it would be a violation of the legislators oath of office and of the explicit provisions of the state constitution to ignore the people's rights under the provisions of the initiative and referendum. Their arguments seemed to carry great weight with the majority, for, when the question of the measure was put to final vote the result was decidedly in favor of its defeat.

The only salvation that is left for the bill is the possibility of a reconsideration of the vote by which it was defeated, and it is understood that a certain member voted against it for the purpose of that privilege yesterday afternoon, or that a similar bill, which was introduced in the senate by Senator Whealdon, be passed by that body and adopted by the house. Some action of a definite nature is anticipated today, in which case more definite conclusion may be reached according to the result. The only delegate from Marion county voting against the passage of the bill was Representative Simmons, of Monticor.
