The best of everything.

Clean and quick service.

If the aldermen would work as able to promote some public improvement as they do to study up some way to get free advertising by striking the street car lines and other employers of labor, there might be something doing besides making complaints.

Don't Complain.

If your chest pains and you are unable to sleep because of a cough, try a bottle of Ballard's Horehound remedy, and you won't have any trouble. Get a bottle now and that cough will not last long. A cure for all pulmonary diseases. Mrs. J. J.

of Austin, Texas, writes: "I can't enough for Ballard's Horehound remedy. The relief it has given me is that is testimony for me to say."

The board also authorized a contract for C. A. Gray, of this city, to complete the construction of the quarantine station at the asylum and the wards aggregating $3350, which items were cut out of the plans for the improvements two years ago because of a deficiency in the funds caused by the initiative on the general appropriation bill.

ORATORS WILL MEET.

Intercollegiate Oratorical Contest in McMinnville Friday Evening—
Eight Contestants.

About 80 loyal supporters of the cardinal and old gold will leave today and tomorrow for McMinnville, to attend the intercollegiate oratorical contest, which will take place in that city Friday evening. Wallace Trill, the local school's representative, is in excellent shape for the contest, and will leave this afternoon for Portland, en route for the city in Yamhill county, thereby not changing the ride by team, as that might not be consistent with a good voice. The delegates who have been chosen to represent Willamette are as follows: Senior class, George Simpson and Olive Riddell; junior class, Justin Price and A. Marker; sophomore class, Clark Belknap and Nellie Tucker; freshman class, Nora Emei and Guy Smith.

The schools that will be represented are as follows: Willamette, Eugene, Corvallis, Monmouth, Pacific University, McMinnville, Pacific College and Albany. There will be excursions from the valley towns to McMinnville tomorrow, and a very enthusiastic and well-attended contest is expected.

The STERLING QUALITIES OF The Malleable RANGE

Enable it to last a lifetime, and the many superior and distinctive features throughout its splendid construction combine for the most satisfying results in cooking and baking and for economy of fuel. "The Malleable" is built by the world's most skilled range builders, and nothing enters into its construction but the very highest quality materials. It is not the cheapest range made, for no range can be given careful attention in every detail and sold cheaply. The frames, doors, lids, anchor plates, tops, dampers and handles are of malleable iron—iron that has been through the most scientific annealing process, making it practically indestructible.

The first cost is the only cost.
