

"I Had a Cough That Friends Feared Would End My Life. I Took Pe-ru-na And Am Well."

MRS. GRACE JANSON.

Mrs. Grace Janson, 1400 Madison street, Chicago, Ill., writes: "Typhoid fever left me with a complication of diseases. I had a terrible pain in my left side and had a cough that all my friends feared would soon end my life. My doctor came to see me three times a week, but could do me no good. He could not account for the pain in my left side and could give me nothing to relieve me. About this time I began taking Peruna and before I had taken one bottle I had hopes of getting better. By the time I had taken the second bottle, my cough was entirely gone and I felt like a new being. I took just three bottles of Peruna and am entirely well and feel better than I have felt for years. I thank God and Dr. Hartman for my recovery."

WOMEN SHOULD BEWARE OF CATCHING COLD.

MANY cases of chronic catarrh result from a settled cold. Women are especially liable to colds. These colds occur more frequently during the wet, sloppy weather of winter and spring than any other time of the year. Often they are not considered serious and are allowed to run on, or they are treated in such a way as to only palliate the symptoms, while the cold becomes more deep-seated and the patient finally awakens to the fact that she has a well-developed case of catarrh. By reason of their delicate structure the lungs are frequently the seat of a cold, especially if there is the slightest weakness of these organs. The treatment of catarrh of the lungs is also more difficult and discouraging than catarrh of any other organ of the body. It would be wise, therefore, to guard against it by every precaution possible. Peruna has been found a most reliable remedy for coughs, colds and catarrhal diseases, by reason of the fact that it goes at once to the very seat of the trouble.

Mrs. M. F. Jones, Burning Springs, Ky., writes: "We have been using Peruna for some time and have no hesitancy in recommending it for the thousand and one ailments of humanity. No family should ever be without it, for it is an unerring cure for colds, and it is an excellent remedy to prevent and relieve croup." Strong and Vigorous Since Taking Pe-ru-na. Mrs. Laura Benyo, 224 Ann street, Cincinnati, Ohio, writes: "I am entirely cured of catarrh of the bronchial tubes by Peruna. My chest feels strong and vigorous, and it seems as though I never had catarrh. Whenever I am in need of medicine, Peruna will be what I will take. It saved my life. I shall always sing its praises." One Bottle Brings Relief. Miss Annie Huelman, R. R. 2, Wright City, Mo., writes: "For years I was troubled with catarrh. A friend advised Peruna. With the first bottle I found relief. I kept on taking it and am entirely well."

Salem High School Awards Honors. Fourteen students were awarded the official Salem high school "S" Friday afternoon, as both the boys' and girls' basketball team and the debating team have complied with the conditions for winning the "S." The letters presented to the basketball team were the block "S," eight inches high, while the three debaters received a neat little old English "S" 4 1/4 inches high. Those receiving the letters were: Girls' basketball team, Lizzie Rudolph, Grace Lick, Frances Poble, Lena Girardan, Alice McCauley, Belle Ackerman.

Boys' basketball: A. Perkins, R. McIntire, R. Moores, L. Farmer, A. Schramm. Debating team: W. Perkins, H. Zimmerman, C. Harrison. These students were asked to come upon the platform, and when presented with the letters were asked to say a few words about something in connection with their winning it. This presentation was made before the entire student body.

The regular March Associated Student Body meeting was also held Friday afternoon, and several important questions were discussed. After the reading of the minutes the subject of giving pictures of all athletic teams to each member of the team was talked over, and it was finally limited to all championship teams, which, for this year, so far, will include only the girls' basketball team, which has succeeded in winning the Western Oregon high school championship. The coach and managers were also included in this.

The next matter brought up was the election of an editor and manager for the next year's "Clarion." Leland Hendricks, a sophomore, was chosen as editor, and Lloyd Farmer as manager. A motion was made to give the boys' basketball team the jerseys in which they played this season, but it was defeated after somewhat of an argument.

It has been decided to use the library of the high school as a sort of trophy room, and to place in this room from year to year all athletic trophies, including a framed picture of each team.

Woodmen Entertain. Last evening the members of the Woodmen entertained their friends very pleasantly in Holman hall. Light refreshments were served, and an interesting program given, containing the following numbers:

Men's Night. Mr. Forbes, manager of the Y. M. C. A., has issued invitations for "Men's Night," to be held at the Y. M. C. A. hall next Monday evening, March 11th, from 8 to 10 p. m.

The Artisans. Capital Assembly No. 84, U. A., gave another of their enjoyable entertainments last night, that being the date of their regular monthly open meeting. One of the attractive social features of the order is that on every second Friday evening of each month a meeting is held to which friends are invited, and the entire time is given to social enjoyment. This custom and the manner in which the socials are conducted has gained for the local assembly the reputation of being one of the best entertainers of the Salem fraternalists.

Caroner Clough acted as chairman last evening and after his undertaking and delivering a good live speech, the orchestra rendered a march in its usual attractive manner.

Mr. Dally, of the Margarita Fischer Company, then favored the audience with several banjo and vocal numbers, and, had it been possible for him to remain longer, the audience would have expressed its desire for more. Those who have not heard little Miss Emily Squires road have missed a rare treat. She gave several selections of a varied class, and in dramatic work as well as comedy parts her acting and modulation of her voice was astonishing. In a pantomime number she mimicked perfectly. In the work containing dialect and comedy her hearers readily caught the spirit of the writer, and when she gave "Asleep at the Foot of Pa and Ma," impersonating a child, then assuming that childhood had passed, and as the piano softly poured forth the melody "Home Sweet Home," the petition was given for time to stop in its flight and return again to the happy days of childhood. An attentive stillness held those present and the air seemed to be permeated with sacred memories.

Miss Myrtle Durette sang "Because" in a charming manner and responded to a hearty encore with "Just a Wearyin' for You," by Bond. She has an excellent voice and her unaffected manner captivates her audience. Mrs. Carnes, the talented musician, played the accompaniments. After several selections from the orchestra, the Artisans and their friends repaired to the dining hall, where a substantial luncheon was served. Many old-time games were indulged in, and a most enjoyable evening was had.

lant soldiers, and every loyal British heart is proud of them. Not only the king's household, but yours, ours everybody's should have its life guards. The need of them is especially great when the greatest foes of life, diseases, find allies in the very elements, as colds, influenza, catarrh, the grip, and pneumonia do in the stormy weather of March. The best way that we know of to guard against these disease is to strengthen the system with Hood's Sarsaparilla—the greatest of all life guards. It removes the conditions in which these diseases make their most successful attack gives vigor and tone to all the vital organs and functions, and imparts a genial warmth to the blood. Remember the weaker the system the greater the exposure to disease. Hood's Sarsaparilla makes the system strong.
