Salem Has Passed On

Died at the family home in East Salem, Monday, March 25, 1907, at ship. His death was very sudden. A 6 p. m., Daniel Bowerman, aged 71 years, of heart disease, after a brief out of the house and sat on the Deceased was one of Marion county's well known and honored citizens. He came to Oregon from Iowa in 1893, being a native of Maine.

Besides a wife, Mr. Bowerman leaves two daughters, Miss Martha they entered, "I believe it is all Bowerman, a teacher in the public schools of this city and Dr. Mary Bowerman, of Condon, Oregon, and one son, Senator Jay Bowerman, also of Condon. One son, Ralph, proceded his father to the grave several CORE REO.

Dr. Mary Bowerman, having been ummoned home by the illness of her father, arrived from Condon yesterpected today.

The funeral will probably take place Wednesday, and burial will be in Lee Mission cemetery. Deceased will be given a large funeral, as he was one of the leaders of the temperance workers in this state, being an active Good Templar, and leading spirit of the Prohibition party. He Daniel Bowerman of East was present at the recent celebration of the 25th anniversary of the W. C. T. U. of this city, and made an address. He was a very conscientious man, and a model of good citizenfew minutes before 6 o'clock he went porch, watching the sun go down, and breathing the fresh air with great enjoyment. He was helped back into the house with one of his daughters at each side, conversing about the closing day, and saying, as over." By the time they got him onto the bed he was dead.

It has been decided to hold the funeral Wednesday at 11 o'clock from the residence. P. S. Knight will conduct the funeral.

Mrs. J. M. Bones, of Turner, was visiting in the city this morning.
