SIX TIMES TRIED

Salem Lawyer Wins Out on $2 Case

Is To Be Carried to Supreme Court Again on Injunction

Charles Scott, executor of the last will and testament of R. H. Scott, deceased, vs. M. and H. Christenson, appellants; appeal from Burnett, affirmed. Moore, Justice, Corby and Bigger for respondent, and Frank Holmes for appellant.

The legal contention involved was the statute of limitations, as to time of payment on a $2.00 note, this payment preventing the statute from running against the note. This case has been twice before the supreme court and is a great legal victory for Mr. Corby.

This case has been twice tried in the justice court, twice tried in the circuit court, and twice tried in the supreme court. Counsel Holmes says it will probably be carried to the supreme court again on injunction proceedings.

Ballards Horehound Syrup.

Immediately relieves hoarse, croupy cough; oppressed, rattling rasping and difficult breathing. Henry C. Sterns, druggist, Shullsburg, Wis., writes, May 20, 1902: "I have been selling Ballard's Horehound Syrup for two years, and have never had a preparation that has given better satisfaction. I notice that when I sell a bottle they come back for more. I can honestly recommend it." 25c, 50c and $1.00. Sold by D. J. Fry.

A Splendid Play.

The play "Capital vs. Labor," as put on at the Klinger Grand, is certainly well worth seeing. Present social and political conditions make it one of the most interesting of subjects, and the play abounds in dramatic situations. It is a play well suited to the company, and is undoubtedly the most artistically presented of any of the company's extensive list. As George Weston, the factory superintendent, Mr. Brigham fits the part perfectly, and does some good work, that is not only good, but approaches greatness. Arthur Mealy, in the character of a strike leader, does some fine work, and Ed. O'Connell, "the gatherer of twigs," did some clever comedy work. Miss Maxine Miles, especially in the third act, did work that would win applause from any audience anywhere. The crowded house and close attention show the interest the public has in the subject, and keep appreciation of the excellent manner in which it is presented.

It will be on the boards tonight and Wednesday night only, and it should be seen by everyone interested in social conditions, and who appreciates a good play well played.

Just Because

Your cough is only in the throat and does not trouble you now, don't think that it needs no attention. When it has not had much of a start is the time to check it. The slightest cough easily leads to Pneumonia, Bronchitis and Consumption. A bottle of Ballard's Horehound Syrup will cure that cough. The price puts it within reach of all. Sold by D. J. Fry.

Eugene Goes Wet.

Eugene special: The "municipal ownership" ticket, standing for city ownership of the water system, made a clean sweep in the election today, electing the mayor and four councilmen. J. D. Matlock defeated F. W. Osborn by 186 votes for mayor.

EUREKA!

Yes, I Have Found It at Last. Found what? Why that Chamberlain's Salve cures eczema and all manner of itching of the skin. I have been afflicted for many years with skin diseases. I had to get up three or four times every night and wash with cold water to allay the terrible itching, but since using this salve in December, 1905, the itching has stopped and has not troubled me.—Elder John T. Ongley, Rootville, Pa. For sale at Dr. Stone's drug store.

Sembrick in Washington.

Washington, April 2.—Great interest was manifested in the appearance tonight of Madame Sembrick. No greater singer is to be found in the world today. It is in the native beauty of her voice, the lovely cantans, the phenomenal colorature, not exceeded even by Patti or Lima de Murska, her flawless intonation, and the bell like qualities of her tones that she excels. In her style she combines all that is good in the Italian and German schools.

Quiet at Treadwell.

Juneau, April 2.—Quiet prevails at Treadwell island. It is expected that the troops will be withdrawn in a day or two. There is no disorder, and none is expected. The report that the miners had threatened to destroy the property is untrue.

Bitten by a Spider.

Through blood poisoning caused by a spider bite, John Washington of Bosqueville, Tex., would have lost his leg, which became a mass or running sores, had he not been persuaded to try Bucklen's Arnica Salve.
