Men Attempt to Do Up a Night Jailor

Los Angeles, April 4.—A daring break was attempted at 2 o'clock this morning at the county jail by a group of men led by Joseph Stackpole, the convicted murderer of the husband of Mrs. Aurelia Borne. Joseph Fleanor, a burglar, and a prisoner named Borne. Fleanor and Borne were shot by the night jailor, Oscar Norell, whom the three men attacked. The wounded men are now in the hospital. Norell was at the jail as he was making the rounds, and he was overpowered by his revolver and freed.

GOVERNOR LEADS GRAND MARCH

Washington Executive Takes Part in Waitresses' Festivities. Seattle, April 4.—Gov. A. E. Mead led the grand march at the waitresses' ball last night with Miss Eva McCullom, president of the local union, as his partner. Before he was swept into the mazes of the dance the governor made a short talk to the crowd at the hall, congratulating the waitresses upon the success of their affair. The waitresses held their ball in Eagles' hall, about 500 persons attending.

Railroad Commission to Meet at Olympia

DEFEAT OF HIS POLICIES

That Is What President Fears Now

Looks As If He Would Make Himself a Candidate

Washington, April 4.—Additional details of the gigantic political conspiracy, which the President charges is being formed by corporate interests, to defeat his policies, was given out at the White House this afternoon. "The men who are engineering the scheme have a fund of $5,000,000 already subscribed to effect their purpose," said the administration representative.

Will Stop at Nothing

"The fight on the President and the trial of the conspirators goes right across the continent. They will stop at nothing. They will buy newspapers, legislatures or votes if necessary to down the President." When asked how the President learned that this conspiracy was afoot, the spokes man replied: "It all came out at a dinner when a friend of Harriman, Hearst, and the Rockefellers, especially the latter, attempted to gain some new converts to the scheme. As it happened he was in the midst of the President's friends, but he was too drunk to act with judgment. He gave the whole thing away, but I don't care to say when nor where the dinner took place." The President refused to see a representative of the Hearst newspapers today.

Harriman Has Enough

New York, April 4.—Harriman has got enough. He wants to stop the controversy, and also wants the last word. Here it is: "I don't intend to continue this controversy. You gentlemen (addressing the newspaper men, assembled at his request,) must help me by not asking me to answer any questions, the answers to which are self-evident. Everybody knows that the contest for the senatorship in New York 1904 was between Depew and Black. There could not possibly have been any more candidates."

There Was No Bargain

"There was no bargain whereby money was to be raised in consideration of having Depew appointed minister to France or made senator. My letter to Webster does not so state. That part of the agreement was not the purpose. It was the harmonizing of the Black and Depew forces. If it became necessary. That is all, gentlemen, thank you." He refused to talk further.

What Roosevelt Believes

President Roosevelt believes there is a conspiracy on foot to defeat the politics he has advocated, and to control the Republican national convention next year, and that the men who are behind the movement are men who were identified with an organized effort in 1903 to defeat the President for nomination in 1904. Edward H. Harriman is cited as one of the ringleaders. Others believed by the President to be in the game are representatives of the Rockefeller interests, men closely identified with those trusts which have been pursued by the present administration and William R. Hearst. The first moves of these conspirators, according to White House information, are being made now in Ohio, New York, Pennsylvania and California. The President talked freely regarding these matters with newspaper men today.

Fight Roosevelt Policy

Today he believes it is a fight against the Roosevelt policies, the prime purpose being to control the national convention of next year and name a Presidential candidate who will be the antithesis of all that Mr. Roosevelt stands for. The President pointed out today that the fight three years ago flamed out and failed signally. He is serenely confident that the present fight will come to a similar end.

Once the people of the country know the truth of what is being done, it is the President's belief that all the financial and corporate powers combined cannot nominate and elect a President who will do what they want done in the White House.

Will Be Fought in 1908

The attitude the President is taking in political matters is accepted here as evidence that he will be in the fight in the national convention next year, openly and aggressively. He takes the position that principles and policies of such importance are involved that he feels it is his duty

LUNACY COMMISSION DECIDES

Had to Have Time to Reach Agreement

This Is Wedding Anniversary of Unhappy Thaw Family

New York, April 4.—Today is the second anniversary of the wedding of the Thaws in Pittsburgh. Evelyn visited her husband early. Many presents were sent to her hotel. The prisoner's mail was heavy with congratulations.

All four of the lawyers, except Delmas, were in court early. There was no word from the commissioners. The attorneys were nervous and the prisoner anxious. The jurors grew impatient at being kept out of the announcement was made. A written report was handed to the attorneys, whom the court told he would hear any remarks they wished to make. It means the trial will be resumed.

Jerome's Next Move

Hartridge received his copy and glanced hastily through it. He turned to Evelyn quickly, nodded and smiled cheerily. This was the first intimation that the crowded court room had of the nature of the report. Jerome read the report and announced that he would have further reports to make on the finding. Later he asked for the commission's minutes. He stated he had promised the commissioners not to use it in the trial, in case resumption of developments or arguments were brought out before the commission. He stated his attitude to be same remarks he might make apropos of the commission's findings. He continued along this line briefly, and then asked for time in which to decide whether he would apply for a writ of prohibition against the continuance of the trial on the ground that the commission violated the statute in excluding him from its private examination of Thaw. The court denied Jerome's request to see the commission's minutes.

Jerome Roasts Finding

Justice Fitzgerald may or may not accept the report, according to his own discretion. He announced that he would hear the attorneys on the matter. Jerome severely criticized the methods of the commission. He said: "A case of such importance will be cited in years to come. The precedent established here, if the report is adopted, will permit a court to appoint a commission of three lawyers, who could go into secret session and decide the fate of any man." The jury was excused until Monday.

PRESIDENT WELCOMES HARRIMAN'S ENMITY

Will Continue His Campaign of Strenuous Politics With More Personality

WASHINGTON, APRIL 4.—"FROM NOW ON IT WILL BE A FIGHT IN THE OPEN BETWEEN THE PRESIDENT AND HIS ENEMIES. ALL THE WORLD WILL BE ABLE TO SEE THE PRETTIEST OF SCRAPS PULLED OFF IN MANY A YEAR." THIS COMMENT WAS MADE TODAY BY A HIGH OFFICIAL OF THE ADMINISTRATION CLOSE TO THE PRESIDENT. HE CONTINUED: "THE PRESIDENT WELCOMED THE OPPORTUNITY OF PLACING HARRIMAN AMONG HIS ENEMIES. HEREAFTER IN HIS SPEECHES, INSTEAD OF GENERALITIES AGAINST DEMAGOGUES, HE WILL BOLDLY DECLARE THAT HE HATES MEN LIKE HARRIMAN. THE PRESIDENT IS GLAD OF HARRIMAN'S FUTURE ENMITY. IT MUST BE IN THE OPEN, AND HE COURTS THE ENMITY OF SUCH MEN."

to ignore the traditional "hands off" rule that has kept some Presidents from meeting any effort to influence the nomination of their successors.

A Slow Process

San Francisco, April 4.—Four jurors were secured yesterday. Examination of veniremen in the Ruef case was resumed this morning, but no progress made. The grand jury this afternoon again took up the Home Telephone Company. It expects to finish today. No new indictments today, but some are expected Saturday. Word of Detwiler's arrest is momentarily expected. The capitalist was located at Grand Rapids, Michigan, yesterday, but escaped in an auto before the detectives arrived.

Bank Teller Sentenced

Cincinnati, O., April 4.—Bert Cavagna, defaulting receiving teller of the First National Bank, was indicted this morning, charged with embezzling over $23,000. He pleaded guilty and was sentenced to six years. He was taken to the prison this afternoon.

Paricide Respite

Columbus, O., April 4.—Dr. Haugh accused of murdering his parents, was granted a respite until April 19. His day for electrocuting had been set for Friday.

STRIKE MAY NOT OCCUR

First Admission Made by the Labor Leaders

Chicago, April 4.—Morrissey this afternoon said a settlement of the strike was possible. This is the first time the labor leaders have admitted that peace was in sight. Morrissey said that, if the managers would yield a few minor points, the employees will accept their latest proposition made to them. It is believed a conference this afternoon will result in a settlement.

$4,500,000 Annually

Spokesman for the roads this afternoon announced that every point in the dispute was settled. The basis of the settlement was a ten-hour day for the men in the work train service. The increase of wages average ten per cent. Forty-nine railroads and 49,000 men are affected by the settlement. The increase amounts to $4,500,000 annually.

Will Be No Strike

Chicago, April 4.—Neil announced that the commissioners would make definite announcement before 4 o'clock. Asked if it was peace, he said: "Draw your own conclusions." Later—There will be no strike. All differences are settled.
