Salem Social Gossip

The reception and musical given at the Elks hall on Wednesday afternoon was one of the most successful of the season, in fact for several seasons. The hostesses of the party were Mrs. William Byrd, Mrs. G. Bingham, Mrs. Geo. W. ...

a pretty background and here Mrs. Homer H. Smith and Mrs. Chas. McNary served punch. The musicians, filled with the same happy spirit as their audience, put forth their best efforts. They were artists, every one of them. The opening selections were played by the Peerless orchestra, with Mrs. Bertha Hubbard Woodin at the piano, Miss Lillian Stege, violin; Phillip Keizer, clarinet, and H. N. Stoudenmeyer, cornet. The excellence of this orchestra is well known and on this occasion their music seemed sweeter than ever. They also furnished music during the remainder of the reception.

was ably accompanied by Mrs. Bert Hubbard Woodin. Prof. Le Roy Gesner, the talented violinist, was hailed with joy by his many admirers, and needless to say won fresh laurels. He truly ranks among the best as a concert player. Mr. Aruthur von Jessen was also on the program. Very few musicians have so completely won their way into Salem hearts, as has this remarkable genius. His playing was on this occasion more brilliant than ever. For an encore he gave "Moments Musicaux," one of Schubert's gems.

In all it was an excellent combination of musicians, one which without any perceptible effort, won their audience at the beginning and held them spellbound. About 200 ladies were present. Mitchell-Fletcher Wedding. The marriage of Miss Elma Fletcher to Mr. Leo Mitchell took place Wednesday evening at the parsonage of the First Christian church in this city, at 8:30. Rev. Davis Errett officiated. Only the relatives and a few friends were present.

The bride was becomingly gowned in a white wool costume and carried an arm bouquet of white carnations. She was attended by Miss Nellie Peterson, who wore a white silk organ dress and carried pale pink carnations. The groom was attended by Harry Moir. The bride formerly lived at McCoy, but has been in Salem for the past year. Mr. Mitchell is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Mitchell, well known residents of Salem. He is a young man of sterling character and his many friends extend their best wishes and congratulations.

They left on the late train that evening and returned home today. Tonight they will be given a reception at the home of the groom's parents on Front street. Surprise Party. A number of the friends of Miss Lottie Lally called on her in a jolly informal way last Tuesday evening at her home on Front street to help her celebrate her birthday anniversary. They made the occasion a merry one with games, music and fun. Dainty refreshments were served.

Artisans' Open Meeting. The United Artisans held the regular monthly open meeting in the I. O. O. F. hall last night. Apropos of the reputation of Capital Assembly, for entertainment a musical and literary program was rendered in a manner that would cause the "Muses" to stop and listen, and the lunch and social hour were among the most appreciated treats of the evening.

The following excellent program was rendered: Selection, orchestra. Short address, James E. Godfrey, M. A. Piano duet, Misses Blanch Knox and Zoe Toothacre. Mandolin and guitar duet—Ed. Ristine and Charles Knowland. Vocal solo, Miss Elizabeth Halderman. Reading, Edward Ristine. Entertainment, E. Cooke Patton. Selection, orchestra.

Last Dance in Tioga Hall. The last dance of the season in Tioga Hall will occur tonight, and it promises to have the largest attendance of any of these popular affairs. The music will be furnished, as usual, by the Peerless orchestra. Entertains Missionary Society. The missionary society of the First Christian church was pleasantly entertained Friday afternoon by Mrs. S. A. Jones, at her home on North Liberty street.

An interesting program was given, containing an address by Mrs. Errett on Mexico, after which light refreshments were served.

EUREKA! Yes, I Have Found It at Last.

Found what? Why that Chamberlain's Salve cures eczema and all manner of itching of the skin. I have been afflicted for many years with skin diseases. I had to get up three or four times every night and wash with cold water to allay the terrible itching, but since using this salve in December, 1905, the itching has stopped and has not troubled me.—Elder John T.
