WANT TIMBER LAND.

But Courts Have Already Decided Company's Rights.

Dallas, Or., May 11.—The determination of the Polk county citizens to get some of the Southern Pacific's holdings in this vicinity has not abated in the least. People are leaving Dallas each morning in hacks and carriages, on horseback and even on foot to post notices on the timber lands selected by them. They are merely going upon the chosen quarter section and posting a notice claiming they have made application to purchase that particular piece of ground, under the act of congress creating the grant originally given to the company; that they are both bona fide settlers and claim the prior right to purchase the land by reason of posting notices on the land. In some cases the "squatters" have cut four poles and laid the foundation for a cabin, as under the old preemption law.

Some 200 locators are anxiously awaiting the result of the United States attorney-general's investigation of the railroad grant in Oregon, as announced in recent dispatches. In the meantime they are leaving nothing undone to be first on the ground in case a ruling of the department is made that is favorable to a reversion of the valuable timber land to the government.

NOTHING CAN STOP ITS GROWING

Odell Presents Name to Committee But They Say It Is Too Soon

New York, May 11.—Those opposing Odell's resolution gave only one reason, "it is too soon," but there is Hughes talk on every side. The consensus of speculation filling the air at headquarters is that "nothing can stop the Hughes boom. It has come to him without effort on his part. The people will not allow Roosevelt to name, nominate or elect the president." The predominance of Hughes' influence in the committee was shown by the resolutions endorsing practically every reform measure proposed by the governor.

THE YALE HARVARD MEETING

New Haven, May 11.—The athletic meet between Yale and Harvard today may be productive of an international intercollegiate meet, during the coming summer between America and England, with Yale and Harvard on one side and Oxford and Cambridge on the other. The proposition which was originally made by the English collegians, to alumni of Harvard and Yale residing in London, was that Oxford, as winner of the Oxford-Cambridge dual meet, compete against the winner of the Yale-Harvard meet to be held today. This however did not meet with the approbation of the American universities, and the counter suggestion was made that the two English universities join and meet Yale and Harvard team. It is on this basis that the international meet is likely to be arranged. The games, if arranged, will be held in this country as the last international meet was held abroad. They will undoubtedly take place on the Stadium at Cambridge, as the most suitable place for holding college track meets. New York city is out of the question owing to the lack of suitable grounds within easy reach of the city proper where a good track and facilities for handling a big crowd are available.

Bull Dog Show.

New York, May 11.—A special dog show is being held in the McCroery building by the Bull Dog Club of America. A large number of prizes are offered for American dogs in the various classes. Mr. Richard Croker, Jr., is president of the club, which consists of over a hundred members throughout the United States and club to hold two of these exhibitions yearly for the education of the public as to what is the proper type of bull dog.

Strikers Attack Dagoes.

New York, May 11.—Seven hundred striking longshoremen drove Italian non-union men from the docks, where they were loading the Campania, this morning. Many were injured, but the police drove the strikers away, and escorted the Italians back.

Not Ready Yet.

New York, May 11.—Former Governor Odell introduced a resolution at the meeting of the Republican state committee today, endorsing Hughes as the next Republican candidate for President. The resolution was tabled by a vote of 22 to 4.

LID OFF THE GRAIN PIT.

Wheat Jumps Five Cents a Bushel in Twenty-four Hours.

Chicago, May 11.—A mad market obtained in the wheat pit this morning. The excitement became fierce as advances were tacked on. May sold at 87 1/2, July at 88 1/2 @ 89 1/2, September at 90 1/2 and then 91 1/2 showing an advance of 1 1/2 to 1 3/4 cents over last night's close. The trade was enormous, brokers switching from one side to another. The big traders predict a dollar and a quarter wheat. By 11 o'clock July wheat reached 91 1/2c. The most conservative traders are infected with a general spirit of wild speculation. Everybody is buying, the only selling being by those who sold at a profit on the rebound for higher prices. The riotous scenes equaled the Letter Jays. Reports of frost in the Northwest increased the skyrocket tendency. Flour advanced a dollar a barrel this morning.

CARS ARE MOVING IN 'FRISCO

RUN THROUGH BURNED DISTRICT

Strikebreakers Are Hissed, But No Acts of Violence

San Francisco, May 11.—What Calhoun characterized as the crisis of the car strike was reached at 10 o'clock this morning, when cars were run simultaneously from the Oak and Turk street barns to the burned district down town. Calhoun intimated that on the results of the efforts this morning would depend

FIENDISH CRIME IN OLYMPIA

Olympia, May 11.—While returning home last night Hope Yanis, aged 18, was choked into insensibility and assaulted by C. A. Durphay. He has been arrested, and claims he was intoxicated. A double guard has been placed around the jail, as it is feared an attempt to lynch him will be made.

VOLCANOES HAVING A BLOW OUT

Measina, May 11.—New craters have formed on Mounts Aetna and Stromboli, and the eruptions are increasing in violence. The population of the island is increasingly alarmed. A portion of Stromboli's crater has fallen in, increasing its activity.

Arrested for Forgery.

Chicago, May 11.—A youth of 20, of military bearing, six feet two, and claiming to be Harold Knissen, son of general in the German army, was arrested here today charged with the forgery of a $25 check on the Marsh Bridge Company, of Peoria, Illinois.

Alarm Bells for Crossings.

The Southern Pacific Company is wiring the rails on Twelfth street, preparatory to the installation of alarm bells at the crossing of State and Twelfth streets. These bells will ring when the train is within several hundred yards of the crossing, and will doubtless be a greater protection than the rigid enforcement of a six-mile an hour law.

whether or not he would ask for troops.

San Francisco, May 11.—All the Turk street cars carried passengers, one car at one time having 12 aboard. All brick piles are being closely guarded by the police in the burned district.

San Francisco, May 11.—The cars from the Turk street barns made the trip down town without accident. There was no brick-throwing and no obstructions were placed on the tracks. The crowds at various points along the route hissed the strike-breakers, but no overt acts were attempted.

Cars from the Oak street barn did not fare so well, rocks being thrown at a number of places, and there were several arrests. A brick was hurled through the window of a car in which Assistant President Mulhally was riding, narrowly missing his head. Instead of making the run into Market street it was decided to end the run at Kearney street. While the turn was being made workmen on a building threw pieces of rock on the car. This was followed by a fusillade by the crowd which was quickly scattered by the police. All cars from the Oak street barn carried passengers, among them being one young woman. A number of teamsters drove their teams on the track, but the police quickly forced them to drive ahead. At noon the number of cars on the line was increased to ten. Although there was no serious outbreak up to that hour, the increased number of cars made it impossible to give good protection to all.

San Francisco, May 11.—Four hundred additional strike-breakers from the east arrived at 4 o'clock this morning.

HE LIKES MOTHER'S COOKING.

And Has Concluded to Board at Home for the Present.

Madrid, May 11.—The queen today personally nursed the prince, upsetting all precedent, and disregarding the protests of the court. The royal nurse was ready, but the queen would have gone of her, and insists that she alone shall nurse her offspring. Everyone, seeing her determination, was so proud of the mother that they acquiesced, and really love her more for exerting her will.

Outrows Harvard.

Boston, May 11.—Columbia won the boat race from Harvard. Times, Columbia 9:16; Harvard, 9:18.

Series of Gospel Meetings.

The First Methodist church of Salem has engaged the services of a well-known evangelist to conduct a series of gospel meetings at that church, beginning on Wednesday evening next, May 15th. C. R. Haudenschield will come to Salem from Montana, where he has been having wonderful success for the past three months.

Rev. W. H. Selleck, the pastor of the church has been working hard in preparation for these services, and the preliminaries will begin tomorrow evening. During the continuance of the meetings, the services at the church will be held at 7:30 p. m., instead of 8 p. m., as is the custom after May 1st. This is to allow more time for the very interesting closing exercises that are held after each preaching period, and to which large numbers generally wish to remain.

During the past few days a large number of personal invitations cards have been issued to everyone that could be reached, asking them to attend these services, and expectations are for a large gathering on the opening night. Mr. Haudenschield, in addition to his capability as a preacher and evangelistic worker, is a splendid organizer, and believes in advertising to let the people know about the meetings that are being held. For the first time in the history of evangelistic work in Salem, the advertising columns of the daily papers are to be used in announcing the meetings, the first advertisement in the series appearing in this paper this afternoon.

Mr. Haudenschield is a very forceful speaker, and those who hear him once are always ready to hear him time and again. These services come at a time when similar work in the other Salem churches is over for the season, and thus all effort along evangelistic lines will be centered at the Methodist church, corner of State and Church streets. Mr. Haudenschield will preach his first sermon on Wednesday evening.

McElroy Acquitted.

After a hearing in Judge Webster's court yesterday, George H. McElroy, who was charged with threatening to kill his family, was acquitted for lack of evidence. Attorney McMahon appeared for the defense and W. E. Keyes represented the prosecution.

Burson-Hill.
