SOCIAL GOSSIP

In Honor of Mrs. Gray.

A very pretty social event of the week was a progressive luncheon given Thursday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Werner Breyer by their daughters, Mrs. Anna Brown and Mrs. W. H. Gray. Mrs. Chas. A. Gray, who is to move to Portland to make a permanent home, was the guest of honor.

The affair was in the form of a decorative scheme, lilies and daisies were cleverly carried out. The table was covered with Manila embroidered dillies over grey satin. Lilies of the valley and grey daisies formed the centerpiece. Place cards were handpainted and Easter lilies tied with grey ribbons. On which were written the names of the guests. At the first table, where Mrs. Gray was seated lay a bunch of Easter lilies with grey illusion. The table was also carried out in the center, the ice cream being served in a color, with a letter "L" in the center.

There were four tables in number and the ladies progressed, two at a time, until all had been seated. About one course, at the guest of honor, about twenty were present. It was a merry party for several hours.

Y. M. C. A.

A farewell reception given for Mrs. Frederick Wiggins, who is leaving for the local Y. M. C. A. was another event of the week. The program was rendered on by the Stalwart quartet, a solo by Mrs. Chas. H. Wiggins, a reading by Miss Augusta Wiggins, after which Mr. W. I. Staley gave an appropriate address presented to Mr. Wiggins a Y. M. C. A. watch charm. Both Mr. and Mrs. Wiggins were active workers in the Y. M. C. A. and auxiliary and will be keenly missed. The ladies served punch during the evening, and made the event a success in every way possible.

Soap Bubble Party.

The home of Mrs. E. E. Waters on Summer street was the scene of a merry juvenile party last Saturday afternoon in honor of little Miss Louemina Waters and Master Northrup Waters, her grandchildren.

The affair was in the form of a bubble and bundle party and created no end of amusement for the little people. The spacious veranda of the Waters home was turned into a playroom and assumed a very gay appearance with its decorations of red, white and blue drapery, and flags of all sizes. The main amusement of the afternoon was the soap bubble-blowing contest. Across the porch were hung presents for each child. These were small pitchers, miniature kitchen sets, pictures, etc., for the girls, sets of dominoes, tools and many things to delight the boys. Each child was provided with a bubble blower and requested to blow the bubble at the line of gifts, the one which it hit belonging to that child.

Mrs. Waters was assisted by Mrs. Frank Waters, Mrs. George Waters, Mrs. Fred Waters, Mrs. George L. Rose and Miss Claudine Rose, who spared nothing in the art of entertaining to make the afternoon a happy one for all.

The guests were Luella Patton, Hallie Hinges, Margaret Livesley, Helen Rose, Helen West, Margaret Rodgers, Mary Milner, Linnie Chatlin, Mary Jane Albert, Ruth Schultz, Mary Schultz, Priscilla Fleming, Myrtle Richardson, Mildred Minton, Josephine Baumgartner, Smith, Ann Yantis, Kate Yantis, Louemina Waters, George Weller, Russell James, Breyman Boise, Kenneth Moore, Don Bird, Earl Chatlin, Ralph Johnson, Andrew Jones, Reed James, Nyle James, Kenneth Smith, Searle Pennybaker, Kenneth Pennybaker, Byron Vonslype and Northrup Waters.

Mrs. Cross Entertains.

A pretty affair was given by Mrs. E. C. Cross yesterday afternoon at her home on Chemeketa street in honor of Mrs. Chas. A. Gray. It was in the nature of a "500" party, and Mrs. Frank Hughes carried off the honors.

White clematis and Bankshire roses formed the decorations, and were most effective. Mrs. Cross was assisted in serving by Misses Ryth, Gatch, Harle Hofer, Veda Cross, Nellie Thilisen and Mrs. C. L. Dick. About 40 ladies were present.

Woman's Club.

The Salem Woman's Club will hold its monthly meeting at the First Methodist church parlors next Saturday afternoon, May 18th. A full attendance of the members is desired.

Artisans' Open Meeting.

The United Artisans held their regular open meeting last night in their hall on the corner of Court and High streets. A large crowd of loyal Artisans and their friends were present, and a most enjoyable evening was spent.

After an excellent musical and literary program the guests repaired to the dining room where a delicious luncheon was spread. The program was as follows:

Music, orchestra.
Reading, Miss Ione Fisher.
Piano duet, Blanche Knox and Maud Hill.
Vocal trio, "Bird in Hand," by three young ladies.

Music, Fleur de Lis Harmony Four.

Reading, Mildred Bagley.
Vocal solo, Mrs. Bean.
Reading, Winona Savage.
Piano duet, Joy Turner and Eva Fisher.

Music, Fleur de Lis Harmony Four.
Music, orchestra.

Band Concert at Rink.

The Salem Military Band gave a concert at the Auditorium rink last night, which was the farewell concert in the rink this season. A large crowd was present to spend the evening on rollers, and enjoy the music. The rink here will close tonight for the season, and it is not without regret that the lovers of the little wheels see the sessions of the enjoyable sport come to an end. The rink has been well patronized, and will doubtless have the same attractions and interest next season as it has shown in the past.

Dime Social.

A very pleasant entertainment was given last night in Commercial Hall, in the form of a dime social. An interesting musical and literary program was given as follows:

Overture.
Violin, C. E. Whitney.
Organ, O. E. Whitney.
Select reading, G. F. Sherwood.
Vocal solo, Miss Fay Hutchins.
Recitation, Mrs. W. B. Harrit.
Vocal solo, Mrs. C. Lachelle.
Recitation, Miss Olive Riddell.
Vocal solo, Mrs. F. J. Goodnough.
Vocal solo, Dr. R. A. Heritage.
The program concluded with remarks by H. H. Ware, in the interests of the Salem Debating Club, after which light refreshments were served.

Wagner's Lohengrin.

The principal solos and choruses of Wagner's beautiful opera, Lohengrin, will be sung at the next regular meeting of the Woman's Club, to be held in the First Methodist church next Saturday, May 18, at 2:30 p. m., to which the citizens of Salem are cordially invited. The soloists will be Professor Heritage, Mrs. Hugg, Mrs. Hoyt and Mr. J. F. Hughes, with Professor von Jessen and Professor Roberts accompanists. The wedding chorus, "Faithful and True," will be sung by a ladies' double quartet. The weird legend of Lohengrin will be read by Mrs. Arthur Boesch. Mrs. J. F. Hughes has arranged and planned the program.

A Favored Section.

The Dalles suffered very little by the frost of a week ago, as compared with other localities. "There is one portion of the city which is exempt from killing frosts," said L. L. McCartney today. "I have been raising fruit in Thompson's addition for 15 years, and we have never had injury by frost." Mr. McCartney attributes this to the fact that the warm Japan current comes up the river and strikes that portion of the bluff. Frosts are two weeks later in making their appearance in Thompson's addition in the winter and two weeks earlier in leaving in the spring.—The Dalles Chronicle.

If You Don't

Succeed the first time use Herbine and you will get instant relief. The greatest liver regulator. A positive cure for Constipation, Dyspepsia, Malaria, Chills and all liver complaints. Mr. C., of Emory, Texas, writes: "My wife has been using Herbine for herself and children for five years. It is a sure cure for constipation and malaria fever, which is substantiated by what it has done for my family." Sold by D. J. Fry.

GOVERNOR TOOK A CART.

He Had to Catch the First Train for Richmond.

Norfolk, Va., May 11.—Governor Claude A. Swanson Wednesday underwent the humiliation of having to ride accompanied by his wife, in a dirt cart from the exposition grounds to the boat in order to return to Richmond. Not a carriage was to be had. The governor had pressing engagements and could not afford to miss his train. So halting a passing dirt cart he and Mrs. Swanson climbed in and took seats with the driver.

An exposition official exclaimed: "What! The governor of Virginia and Mrs. Swanson in a wagon?"

"That's nothing," replied the governor. "If I was an official of the exposition I would be riding in a carriage, as all of you do, but, being only the governor of Virginia and not an influential official, I must accept with thanks even the dirt wagon which you are kind enough to furnish me. I am thankful you do not require us to walk and carry our trunks."

Good Words for Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

People everywhere take pleasure in testifying to the good qualities of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Mrs. Edward Phillips of Barclay, Md., writes: "I wish to tell you that I can recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. My little girl, Catherine, who is two years old, has been taking this remedy whenever she has had a cold since she was two months old. About a month ago I contracted a dreadful cold myself, but I took Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and was soon as well as ever." This remedy is for sale by Dr. Stone's drug store.
