Salem Military Band Renders Excellent Openair Concert in Marion Square Yesterday Afternoon.

Salem's Military Band gave another enjoyable program in Marion square yesterday afternoon. Owing to the inclemency of the weather and the fact that the concert had not been announced the crowd was small. Those who were fortunate enough to be present were treated to some excellent band music. The program was varied from the light popular compositions to the classic, and was received with liberal applause. The weather permitting there will be an openair concert in Willson avenue next Wednesday evening.

The program rendered yesterday was as follows:

- March, "University of Pennsylvania."
- Overture, "Morning, Noon and Night."
- Characteristic march, "Big Chief of Battle Ax," Allen.
- Waltz, "Adlyn," Hall.
- Selection, "Tenderfoot."
- March and two-step, "Au Revolt My Little Hyacinth," Smith.

Relief From Rheumatic Pains.

"I suffered with rheumatism for over two years," says Mr. Roland Curry, a patrolman, of Key West, Fla. "Sometimes it settled in my knees and lamed me so I could hardly walk, at other times it would be in my feet and hands so I was incapacitated for duty. One night when I was in severe pain and lame from it my wife went to the drug store here and came back with a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. I was rubbed with it and found the pain had nearly gone during the night. I kept on using it for a little more than two weeks and found it drove the rheumatism away. I have not had any trouble from that disease for over three months." For sale by Dr. Stone's drug store.

OREGON CITY MILLS TO OPEN MAY 21.

Woolen Mills Remain Closed Another Week—Flume Being Extended.

The woolen mills will remain closed till a week from Monday in order to allow the millwrights ample time to put the plant in first-class condition.

A force of men were put to work this morning and are busily engaged in hauling the stone from the top of the flume in preparation for the work of extending the flume 180 feet up the river in order that the water supply will not be affected by the large dam now in course of construction. Owing to the scanty supply of water coming through the flume, the water works has been compelled to resort to the use of the electric motor installed there as an alternate source of power.—Oregon City Star.

Blaze in Baker.

Fire broke out this afternoon in the pile of sawdust near the electric plant in South Baker. A heavy wind was blowing so that it was almost impossible for the fire companies to make headway in fighting it. Soon after the power plant was burning and later the mill caught. A large force of men vigorously fought the flames, and, after a couple of hours, succeeded in getting them under control. The damage as yet cannot be estimated. The town was out of power for several hours, which caused the delay of the Herald reaching its subscribers.—Baker Herald (May 10.)

CHICAGO REVIVALIST AT SALEM

Will Open Series of Religious Meetings Wednesday Night

Concerning C. R. Handenschield, the evangelist, who is to conduct revival services at the First Methodist church in Salem, beginning Wednesday evening next, the Southern Idaho Mail, published at Blackfoot, Idaho has the following to say:

"The union revival services are now the talk of the town. Rev. C. R. Handenschield, of Chicago, who is conducting these meetings, is a man of God, and no one can come in touch with him without a consciousness of his high moral integrity and pure Christian life, and his great ability as a man. His commanding appearance, his genial voice, his wonderful voice in song, his natural ability at word painting, his intense earnestness, the spirit of his work, not for the glory of itself, but for the glory of God, make such a profound impression upon his auditors that they realize that it is the voice of God speaking through human instrumentality. Anyone who can hear him sing, or listen to his forceful way of presenting, without being touched and moved to obey the voice of God, is indeed indifferent or deaf to that which is of the greatest importance.

The services in the armory last Sunday were characterized by a remarkable tide of interest, when the large building was filled to the very doors. The evening sermon was the crowning sermon of the day. Mr. Handenschield spoke on "The Law of God," while the vast audience listened in breathless silence and rapt attention.

"Monday night there was another large crowd. When the invitation was given, 45 signified their intention to follow Jesus Christ."

Beautiful Hair At Small Cost

Within the last decade great and rapid strides have been made in Materia Medica. Many diseases that were considered incurable fifteen years ago are now cured in a few days, and in many cases prevented altogether. The scientists of late years have been delving for the cause, the foundation, the reason and the starting point of disease, fully realizing that the actual and true cause must be ascertained before the remedy can be located. Hair troubles, like many other diseases, have been wrongly diagnosed and altogether misunderstood. The hair itself is not the thing to be treated, for the reason that it is simply a product of the scalp, and wholly dependent upon its action. The scalp is the very soil in which the hair is produced, nurtured and grown, and it alone should receive the attention if results are to be expected. It would do no earthly good to treat the stem of a plant with a view of making it grow and become more beautiful—the soil in which the plant grows must be attended to. Therefore, the scalp in which the hair grows must receive the attention if you are to expect it to grow and become more beautiful.

Loss of hair is caused by the scalp drying up, or losing its supply of moisture or nutriment, and when baldness occurs the scalp has simply lost all of its nourishment, leaving nothing for the hair to feed upon (a plant or even a tree would die under similar conditions).

The natural and logical thing to do in either case is, feed and replenish the soil or scalp as the case may be, and your crop will grow and multiply as nature intended—it should.

Dr. Knowlton's DANDERINE is the only remedy for the hair ever discovered that is identical with the natural hair foods or liquids of the scalp. It feeds and nourishes the hair and does all the work originally carried on by the natural nutrients or life-giving juices generated by the scalp itself. It penetrates the pores of the scalp quickly and the hair soon shows the effects of its wonderfully exhilarating and life-producing qualities.

One 25 cent bottle is enough to convince you of its great worth, as a hair growing and hair beautifying remedy—try it and see for yourself. Now on sale at every drug and toilet store in the land. Three sizes, 25c, 50c and $1.00.

Fruit Prospect Good.

While it seems probable that the apple and prune crops in the Willamette valley will be comparatively light this year, the statement in some Eastern papers that the prune crop has been damaged by adverse weather conditions, says a local writer, is very misleading. Many orchards will have full crops of apples. Present indications are that the prune crop generally will be light, though this cannot yet be asserted definitely. The light crop in both apples and prunes seems to be due entirely to over-production last year, which seemed to overtax the trees. It is a common experience that trees bearing heavily one year will yield light crops the next. Some of the Willamette valley apple orchards that bore bumper crops last year had very few blossoms this year. It is far from certain, however, that this will be a light prune year. "Prunes are the most deceptive crop I have seen," says J. R. Shepard, a prominent Polk county grower. "Sometimes when the trees are loaded with fruit we lose much of it by the summer drop. If the load stays on until harvest time the fruit dries out to about 15 pounds to the bushel and runs to small sizes. Then again, I have seen years when prunes were so scarce in the spring that a man could scarcely find them on the limbs. When the prunes were small it looked like a crop failure. But as the fruit grew it was found that the crop was not so light as at first appeared. The summer drop was light, and when drying time came the prunes came out of the dryers so heavy that a bushel of green fruit made 26 pounds of dried fruit. You can't tell much about a prune crop this early in the season."

Weather conditions this year were ideal for all fruit crops in the valley, and if yields should be light the general opinion is that the cause will be found in the heavy crops of last year.

THE MAIL BAG

W. L. Tooze writes that he has bought out the F. A. Lucas department store at Falls City. The business, real estate and property nets about $40,000, and that city is to be congratulated on securing a live business man, who will prove a strong factor in the upbuilding of the town.

Charles H. Eddy, of Petersham, Mass., writes that he is planning to come to Oregon, and wishes to know about the city, industries, prices, house rents, fuel, prices of meats, provisions, etc. He has poor health, and his physician recommends him to come to Oregon. He had a copy of The Capital Journal in this mail, but we also urge that some of our real estate men write him and send him literature. His letter sounds as if he were a desirable class of business man to have come to our city.

Capt. J. P. Patrick, of Des Moines, Iowa, who has been in Oregon several times, writes that they have had a backward spring in that state. There was a heavy snowfall in May, and frosts for a week or more, that nipped the fruit and early vegetables spring oats and wheat. They still hope to get in a fine crop of corn, as Iowa farmers can plant corn until the middle of June and get quite a crop. Frost reports and crop damage from other states is extensive and yet when the season closes up with big crops of hay, potatoes, grain and corn, those states will produce an immense amount of stuff, and the hogs and cattle will roll out in enormous quantities.

D. H. Looney, of Jefferson, has recently sold a fine lot of his Jerseys to C. W. Kuykendall, of North Yamhill, including King's Princess of Rioter, owned by E. Hofer, of this city. Large prices were obtained for this pedigreed stock, and, in spite of some difficulties, Mr. Looney still keeps at the head of the list of Oregon breeders of Jerseys.

One of the leaders of the Linn County Council writes of the movement to secure the referendum on the University appropriation: "The work is progressing finely, and, from present indications, we will have more than enough names by the last of this week. We have petitions in from Marion, Douglas, Linn, Lane, Lincoln, Benton, Polk, Washington, Wasco, Multnomah, Grant, Yamhill and Umatilla counties. Advise our friends to rush the movement." This man is only a plain farmer and taxpayer, and it seems the referendum can be obtained on any measure without the consent of the original direct legislation machine, set up by Mr. U'ren. The U'ren machine does its work quicker and smoother, because all the names signed are paid for, but this way of getting the initiative as a voluntary movement of the citizens indicates that there is real public sentiment behind the effort to hold up the University tax as being out of all proportion to the ability of the property owners to pay.

DANGER IN DELAY.

Kidney Diseases Are Too Dangerous for Salem People to Neglect.

The great danger of kidney troubles is that they get a firm hold before the sufferer recognizes them. Health is gradually undermined. Backache, headache, nervousness, lameness, soreness, lumbago, urinary troubles, dropsy, diabetes and Bright's disease follow in merciless succession. Don't neglect your kidneys. Cure the kidneys with the certain and safe remedy, Doan's Kidney Pills, which has cured people right here in Salem.

P. W. Brown, of 374 Summer St. Salem Or., says: "Three years of millwright work in a sulphuric factory when it was necessary to perform repairs in poisonous gases and was often compelled to work in cramped position and sometimes wet to the skin, if not the cause of my kidney trouble, at least helped to debase those organs. I suffered from a lameness and soreness across the small of my back and about two months ago when suffering in this way my attention was called to Doan's Kidney Pills and I sent to Dr. Stone's drug store and procured a supply. After taking this remedy, the backache and soreness across the loins entirely disappeared, as also did other marked symptoms of kidney trouble. Doan's Kidney Pills are worthy of the confidence of anyone annoyed with backache or kidney complaint."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.
