A Collection of Important Paragraphs for Your Consideration
Souvenir Postals—
New subjects today, at Patton's.

Wanted—

We still have a number of places for bright, energetic ladies. We want to make a thorough house to house canvass. This is not as difficult as one might think. We offer you many advantages. We don't ask you to work on commission, but pay you a good salary and expenses. We don't require you to be experienced; it is an advantage, perhaps, but if you have assurance and a little energy it will more than make up for your lack of experience. We are not asking you to work for some cheap concern. Remember you are working for one of the best houses in the country, and selling a product that is used by every housewife. We will further add that all our canvassers are in charge of a lady, and that their physical and moral welfare is safeguarded in every possible way. We believe that when you have had this matter thoroughly explained you will be only too willing to become one of our canvassers. Please call for an interview, J. B. Brown, Willamette Hotel, or Miss E. M. Cobb, Cottage Hotel. 5-15-tf

Hop Trainers Wanted—

Men, women and boys, for the Holmes yard. Long job. Can board or camp. Will move you out if desired. Phone 109. T. A. Livesley & Company. 5-15-tf

A Proper Move—

A move is on foot to clean up the Hoff cemetery, and next Saturday at 1 o'clock p. m. all who have graves there are requested to meet for that purpose. To start with they will grub out and burn the French bloom before they go to seed. This is a good move, and should be encouraged by everyone interested.

Bishop Bowman to Speak—

Bishop Thomas Bowman, D. D., of Allentown, Pa., will preach at the to the plaintiff. In addition to the principal and interest, $50 is asked as attorney's fees. T. J. Stites appears as attorney for the plaintiff.

Deputy Clerk Appointed—

County Clerk Allen has appointed Virgil Allen to fill the vacancy made by the resignation of L. P. Aldrich, who resigned recently to accept a position in the Ladd & Bush bank. Mr. Allen has held responsible positions, and is qualified in every way for the place to which he has been appointed. He has recently been connected with clerical work in the mines in Southern Oregon.

Bird Club Tonight—

The regular meeting of the Salem Bird Study Club will be held at the Trover gallery, over Barnes' Cash store, at 8 o'clock. A splendid program will be given, and a good display of birds and eggs will be had as usual. A mammoth bird's nest from South America is also to be there. All bird lovers are welcome to attend.

Wayward Spruance—

Walter Spruance has again deviated from the paths of rectitude, after being released Monday, and is again in jail, and is repenting that he was born with that tired feeling and a love for the spirits which have caused him so much trouble. The judge is perplexed over the question just now of "to keep him or not to keep him," and if the former is the verdict what to do with him. Spruance has promised to leave town time and again if released, and each time does not get any farther than the nearest place where he can get tobacco, drink and a hand-out. There will probably be found a rock pile where the gentleman of leisure can spend a few days with the sledge until a better occupation can be devised.

A Fine Performance

Last night at the Klinger Grand theatre the new Brigham Stock Company gave its first performance. The play presented last night was "The World Against Him," and is one of the sort of plays which never grow old. Each and every member of the cast appeared to advantage, and the audience frequently showed its appreciation by generous applause. Mr. Brigham was exceedingly clever as the tramp, who had escaped from prison, and he kept the audience laughing with his funny sayings. Miss Dorothy Brokate, the new leading woman, made a very favorable impression, and her popularity at the Klinger Grand is assured. In her scenes with Mr. Brigham, as well as those with Mr. Carroll McFarland, who made an excellent villain, she showed remarkable talent. Mr. Ray Westwood, as Col. Lee and Miss Florence Davenport, as Mrs. Lee, also made a favorable impression, as did Mr. Leo Royal, as Jack Worthington. The company will give two more performances of this play, and will change the program Thursday.

Will Visit Sister State—

C. H. Gram, factory inspector of the first district of Oregon, left yesterday for Tacoma, where he will take a post-graduate course in his line of work, with the inspectors of Washington.

Estate Closed—

Mia Ann Killen has made her final report as executrix of the estate of Wm. R. and Elizabeth Adair, and her bond has been exonerated.

My Best Friend.

Alexander Bentor, who lives on rural route 1, Fort Edward, N. Y., says: "Dr. King's New Discovery is my best earthly friend. It cured me of asthma six years ago. It has also performed a wonderful cure of incipient consumption for my son's wife. The first bottle ended the terrible cough, and this accomplished, the other symptoms left one by one, until she was perfectly well. Dr. King's New Discovery's power over coughs and colds is simply marvelous." No other remedy has ever equaled it. Fully guaranteed by J. C. Perry, druggist; 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

The loss by fire of the Curtis Lumber Company's store at Mill City Sunday is put at $35,000. Insurance $16,000.

A Narrow Escape.

G. W. Cloyd, a merchant, of Plunk, Mo., had a narrow escape four years ago, when he ran a jimson bur into his thumb. He says: "The doctor wanted to amputate it but I would not consent. I bought a box of Bucklen's Arnica Salve and that cured the dangerous wound." 25c at J. C. Perry's, druggist.

PROMINENT BUSINESS IS SOLD

Standard Liquor Company Now Owned by A. G. Magers

A very important transaction in Salem business circles took place yesterday. The Standard Liquor Co., which for a good many years has been owned by J. P. Rogers, was purchased in its entirety by A. G. Magers. The latter gentleman is not new to the business, nor is he a stranger in Salem's business life. For the past few years he has been the active manager of the business of which he now has become the owner. The Standard Liquor Co. has been one of the strongest business factors of the city, and, aside from carrying on the retail liquor business through the five saloons that it owned, it did a large wholesale business throughout this section of the state. It has always been the practice of the former owner, J. P. Rogers, to regulate and run his saloons in conformity with the highest business and social policy, and much of the credit for pursuing this policy is due to the able support he received at the hands of Mr. Magers. Mr. Rogers has always had the full confidence of the business people of Salem, and it goes without saying that his successor will be equally well received.

Mr. Magers is a Marion county man, and from childhood up has passed the greater part of his life in and about Salem. He will certainly start in his new venture with the best wishes of all who know him. The sale is said to have been made for $26,000.

Relief From Rheumatic Pains.

"I suffered with rheumatism for over two years," says Mr. Rolland Curry, a patrolman, of Key West, Fla. "Sometimes it settled in my knees and lamed me so I could hardly walk, at other times it would be in my feet and hands so I was incapacitated for duty. One night when I was in severe pain and lame from it my wife went to the drug store here and came back with a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. I was rubbed with it and found the pain had nearly gone during the night. I kept on using it for a little more than two weeks and found it drove the rheumatism away. I have not had any trouble from that disease for over three months." For sale by Dr. Stone's drug store.

Evangelical Appointments.

Bishop Thomas Bowman, who presided at the recent conference of the Evangelical association will be in Salem Wednesday night, and start for California Thursday morning. He has completed the appointing of ministers for the Oregon conference of the Evangelical association. They are as follows:

Salem district—Ezra Maurer, presiding elder; Salem, Liberty street church, Rev. W. A. Gueffroy; Salem, Chemekeeta street church, Rev. Morris Heverling; Jefferson, Rev. N. Shupp; Albany, Rev. G. W. Plummer; Sweet Home, Rev. H. R. Gell; Monmouth, Rev. J. A. Goode; Canby, Rev. C. W. Rose; North Portland and Tigardville German, Rev. E. G. Hornschuch; Tigardville English and Chehalem, Rev. W. E. Simpson; Fruitland, Rev. G. McElroy; F. B. Culver, member of the Salem Chemekeeta street quarterly conference; Kings Valley, The Dalles and Dufur, to be supplied.

If You Don't

Succeed the first time use Herbine and you will get instant relief. The greatest liver regulator. A positive cure for Constipation, Dyspepsia, Malaria, Chills and all liver complaints. Mr. C., of Emory, Texas, writes: "My wife has been using Herbine for herself and children for five years. It is a sure cure for constipation and malaria fever, which is substantiated by what it has done for my family." Sold by D. J. Fry.

Hurley & Hurley have doubled the size of the Oregon Oriano. Vale is a live place and they are live men.

Sore Nipples.

Any mother who has had experience with this distressing ailment will be pleased to know that a cure may be effected by applying Chamberlain's Salve as soon as the child is done nursing. Wipe it off with a soft cloth before allowing the babe to nurse. Many trained nurses use this salve with best results. For sale by Dr. Stone's drug store.
