OLD SUNNY SIDE UP.

Old Sunny Side Up, he used to say: "Yes, things are a little bit dark today, But just a touch of warm sunshine Will make this old world look mighty fine, And pretty soon it will be so bright That you'll be glad you're alive, all right."

Old Sunny Side Up, he used to say: "The work was a little bit hard today, But it's good for folks to have lots to do, And the pay, some day, will be better too, And anyway, when you've done your work It's good to feel that you didn't shirk."

Old Sunny Side Up, he used to say: "The luck seems a little bit tough today, But it never does any good to mope While the helpfulest thing in this world is hope, And you bet your life you can't go wrong If you trust in the Lord and plug along."

Old Sunny Side Up, he did his best: He worked and hoped till he went to rest; He never had rated a great success As viewed in a worldly light, I guess, But when he left us, I dare to say, He went right home to the brighter day.

CENTRAL AMERICAN TROUBLES.

There seems to be no let up of the disturbances among the turbulent little alleged republics of Central America, and apparently there never will be until MEXICO TAKES POSSESSION OF THOSE COUNTRIES AND REDUCES THEM TO PEACABLE STATES OF THAT REPUBLIC.

It is reported that Mexican troops are now in motion toward the Guatemalan boundary, and it is to be hoped that they will not stop until they reach the Panama line.

No one can deny that the right of conquest still exists, although modern civilization demands that it be exercised with some deference to the equities of the case and the opinion of mankind.

But, if the United States has the moral right to intervene and maintain order in Cuba, Mexico has a far clearer moral right to intervene and establish peaceable conditions in the little countries bordering on her territory.

THE EXTENSION OF MEXICO TO THE ISTHMUS OF PANAMA WOULD BE WELCOMED BY THE WORLD.

The people of all these countries are of the same mixed stock. Their language is the same and their laws and institutions similar. Mexico was once revolutionary, but has outgrown it. It is a stable republic, growing in material prosperity, and has the respect of the world.

And the sooner she takes over Central America the better.

LAWS ARE ENFORCED.

H. Clay Pierce, oil magnate, will have to go to Texas for trial on the charge of perjury, under a decision of Judge Adams of the United States Supreme court.

That PIERCE DOES NOT WISH TO TAKE ANY CHANCES is indicated by the fact that an appeal was taken both to the United States court of appeals and to the supreme court of the United States.

Bonds were given in both appeals.

When extradition is sought in a case where a man is CHARGED WITH HAVING, SEVEN YEARS BEFORE, COMMITTED PERJURY, in an affidavit that his company was not in any pool or trust in restraint of trade, the day of law enforcement is surely at hand.

GROW FLOWERS.

There is no reason why anyone should fail to have a garden in these days.

Never were plants, seeds and bulbs so inexpensive as now; never was there such a multitude of varieties from which to select, and never would a dollar go so far in stocking a flower garden.

Think of six tea roses for fifty cents!

Think of eight choice hybrid perpetual roses for a single dollar!

Think of seven choice chrysanthemums for one dollar!

Think of twenty-five packages of flower seeds for a dollar!

Enough TO HAVE A SUCCESSION OF BLOOM FROM MAY UNTIL NOVEMBER.

Look over the florists' catalogues. If you have not already done so, and you will be surprised to discover how much a single dollar will purchase.

The time is past when one cannot afford to have flowers—you cannot afford not to have any.

There is a bright little woman, the mother of five children, whose husband's salary is so small that when the babies are clothed and fed, the rent paid and the other monthly bills settled, there is really nothing left for anything else.

But THE BIT OF FRONT YARD IS ALWAYS BRIGHT WITH FLOWERS, and every tin can that goes into the house comes out again to hold a slip or a plant of some sort, and the mistress of this pretty little garden told me one day that all her plants and seeds came from her "rag bag."

"I save every scrap of old rags and every bit of old carpet for my rag bag. I even save old papers and bottles and anything and everything that the junk man will give me even a cent for; and every cent I get in this way I save for my plant fund. You see that lovely tea rose? I got it for my last empty flour barrel; and that splendid fuchsia came from the sale of a dozen old bottles." "Where there's a will there's a way," and it takes a woman to prove the truth of this old adage.

The investment of a single dollar will give a glorious return in flowers, and the care of them will add the bloom of the rose to the cheek, and good health as well as flowers will result from the garden investment.

Liver and Kidneys

It is highly important that these organs should properly perform their functions. When they don't, what lameness of the side and back, what yellowness of the skin, what constipation, bad taste in the mouth, sick headache, pimples and blotches, and loss of courage, tell the story.

Hood's Sarsaparilla

Gives these organs vigor and tone for the proper performance of their functions, and cures all their ordinary ailments. Take it.
