Petticoats Prized.

The prized possession of the Bolivian Indian woman and her chief pride also, whether she is pure Indian or chola, is her petticoat, says a writer in an eastern exchange. Her dowry is in this garment. Like the Dutch woman of tradition, she carries her wealth about with her. These petticoats are of all colors of the rainbow and divers other hues not found thereon. I first noticed them at Nazaran, and remarked the love of color, which must be inborn, for the garments were of yellow, purple, violet, fiery red, crimson, scarlet, subdued orange, glaring saffron, blue and reegee. They were short, reaching barely below the knee, and no difference was observed between childhood, maidenhood, matronly middle life and wrinkled old age. Glancing from my window in Tupiza I thought it was a parade of perambulating balloons.

These women have a habit which the bashful traveler does not at first understand. When he sees one of them calmly removing a petticoat, he is apt to turn away, but he need not do so. It may be that the advancing heat of the day has caused the wearer to discard the outer skirt, but more likely it is the vanity of her sex, and the desire to make her sisters envious by showing what is beneath, for each new venture disclosed is more brilliant than the one which overlapped it. I sat in the plaza at Tupiza and watched two Indian women try to make each other envious. The first one removed the outer petticoat, which was of purple. This divestment disclosed another garment of blazing red, and after that came a brilliant yellow. The other woman started with a green petticoat, and gradually got down to a mixture of blue and yellow. By that time I had begun to fear for the consequences and made a pretense of turning my back by strolling to the hotel.

Do Not Neglect the Children.

At this season of the year the first unnatural looseness of a child's bowels should have immediate attention. The best thing that can be given is Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy followed by castor oil as directed with each bottle of the remedy. For sale by Dr. Stone's drug store.

Hurt His Feelings.

"I told that poor young widow," began Mrs. Nuritch, "that you'd give her boy work if—" "Well, I won't," interrupted Nuritch. "She sent him today with a note that said: 'I must find employment for my son even if he works for a mere pittance.' The nerve of her calling me a mere pittance."—Philadelphia Press.

Frohman Still Unconscious.

John Frohman, the young man so badly hurt Sunday, is slightly better than yesterday. He is still unconscious most of the time, but rouses occasionally for a few minutes at a time.

His Concert Toilet.

Heinrich Conried was talking about old fashioned concerts. "Some of the hits directed at these concerts were merited," he said.

"One hit, and a good one, was made by an old Chicago millionaire. He called upstairs to his daughters: 'What a time you girls take getting ready for the concert. Look at me; a bit of wadding in each ear and I'm all ready.'"—New York Tribune.

Boarding-House Conundrum.

"Why is a woman like an airship?" asked the thin boarder.

"Hard to manage," suggested the man with the fat wife.

"Good, but not the correct answer," said the thin one.

"Takes so long to get her started," suggested another.

"That's not it."

"Well, we give it up," came the chorus.

"Because when she gets 'up in the air' you can't tell what she's going to do next."—Yonkers Statesman.

He Fired the Stick.

"I have fired the walking-stick I've carried over 40 years, on account of a sore that resisted every kind of treatment, until I tried Bucklen's Arnica Salve; that has healed the sore and made me a happy man," writes John Garrett, of North Mills, N. C. Guaranteed for Piles, Burns etc., by J. C. Perry druggist. 25c.

Start the Bowels

When you suffer with sick headache, biliousness, torpid liver, tainted breath or stomach ills—start the bowels. Health demands that they move naturally at least once a day; otherwise poisons are thrown back into the blood and the whole body becomes a lodging place for disease. Keep the bowels open with

BEECHAM'S PILLS

when there is the slightest evidence of irregularity, and you will be free from the complaints caused by sluggish bowels or an inactive liver. The action of Beecham's Pills is gentle but thorough. Fifty-six years before the public, their wonderful success as liver and bowel correctives, has won first place for them as Resolutions of Thanks.

At a regular meeting of Sedgwick Post, No. 10, G. A. R., held Tuesday night, June 4th, it was Resolved, That the thanks of the members of Sedgwick Post are due and are hereby tendered to all persons who aided and assisted by contributions of money, flowers and services to the exercises incident to Memorial Day, and especially are they tendered to the superintendent, the principals, the teachers and the pupils of the Salem public schools, and to the mother superior and the pupils of the Academy of the Sacred Heart, for the patriotic exercises held in said schools on Wednesday afternoon; to the superintendent, the pupils and the members of the band of the state reform school for the music so kindly furnished and so beautifully rendered at the cemetery; to the Rev. Davis Errett for the able and patriotic sermon delivered to the veterans on Memorial Sunday, and to the choir and members of the Christian church for the splendid music furnished and for the cordial welcome extended to the veterans upon that occasion; to Mrs. Errett for the touching original hymn dedicated by her to the veterans and sung by her and other members of their choir to music composed and written for the occasion by our comrade, Z. M. Parvin, to whom, also, special thanks are hereby extended; to the officers and members of Company "M," O. N. G., for the cheerful manner in which they turned out to escort the veterans to church and to the cemetery, and for the aid rendered by them at the latter place during the memorial exercises; to Mr. McKnight, a Willamette student, for the masterly manner in which he delivered that masterpiece of modern classical lore, Lincoln's Gettysburg address; to the Women's Relief Corps for the kindly offices performed by them in providing the veterans with bouquets with which to decorate the graves of their late comrades, and for the fine collation served in their hall to the tired and hungry veterans after the arduous duties of the day were over; to the ladies of the Grand Army for the many courtesies shown by them to the "old boys" at mid-day; to the Rev. F. E. Dell for his patriotic address; to Miss Helene Dalrymple for the splendid manner in which she rendered "The Georgia Volunteer," and to Harry Moyer and quartet for the patriotic program at the evening exercises.

Resolved, That the thanks of this Post are due to the press of this city for its uniform willingness to aid us by, and through, the use of its columns, and by the courtesies extended to us by all its representatives. Resolved, That these resolutions be furnished The Capital Journal and the Oregon Daily Statesman for publication. JOHN P. ROBERTSON, Post Com. D. Webster, Post Adjutant.
