CITY NEWS

A Collection of Important Paragraphs for Your Consideration

Souvenir Postals—

New subjects today, at Patton's.

Stamped and Plain Art Linens—

A large assortment of pillow tops. The Variety Store.

Company Secures Building—

Manager Haar of the Hickory Bark Remedy Company, left last evening for Walla Walla, but before going he closed a lease for the Schreiber building on State street for one year. The company will move its offices and plant into this large store room for the time being, and hope to secure a building of their own by the time the lease has expired. This lease hastens the coming of the concern, which will add another to Salem's growing list of manufacturing establishments.

Calls for Bids—

The undersigned will receive bids up to 5 o'clock p. m., on June 17, 1907, for supplying one hundred and twenty-five (125) cords of green second growth fir wood, to be delivered at the city hall before October 1st, for the use of the city of Salem, Oregon. The successful bidder will be required to enter into contract under bond to furnish the wood as per agreement.

W. A. MOORES, Recorder.
Dated June 5, 1907. 6-5-d10t-w2t

Library Tables—

Just received. Buren & Hamilton.

Prof. von Jessen Chosen Dean —

Arthur von Jessen, the talented pianist has been reappointed dean of the piano department of Willamette University for the ensuing year, and has accepted the appointment. He left yesterday for a few weeks' business trip to New York City.

Laces and Allover—

Embroideries, feather stitch braid, and fancy collars. The Variety Store.

Woodchoppers Wanted—

Inquire of Wm. Brown & Co., No. 129 Commercial street. Location of woodland on Turner road near city. 6-7-1wk

Arrived—

Yes, those delayed lace curtains are here. They are beauties. Buren & Hamilton.

Multnomah Royal Arch—

Chapter No. 1—Regular convocation this evening in Elks' hall. Visiting companions welcome.

Lace Curtains—

Just received. Buren & Hamilton.

To the Pen—

Sheriff F. P. Childers, of Union county, was here yesterday and delivered Fred K. Reyner and Frank Williams to the state prison authorities. The former will remain behind the brick walls for eight years for assault with a dangerous weapon, and the latter will serve a term of two and a half years for burglary.

Off for Gearhart—

C. E. Crandall, Ross Soward, J. Johnson, Royal Bisbee, Hamlin Coleman and Austin Price will leave today for Gearhart to attend the Y. M. C. A. convention, which meets there tomorrow, Saturday, morning.

Honor the Flag—

A large crowd is expected to be present this evening at the Flag Day ball, which will be given in the Armory by the committee of Company M. Refreshments, band music and a delightful evening is promised.

To the Public—

Inasmuch as some of my friends have circulated a petition asking me to be a candidate for school director, and having consented to do so, I deem it proper to state to the voters of the district just where I stand. First of all, I am in favor of good schools and of a businesslike management of the affairs of the district. I have no special ideas to promulgate, but want to see our schools keep pace with the times and the needs of the district. It has been stated that I am not a taxpayer, nor a resident of the district. This is a mistake, for I acquired a home in Salem, on East Court street, over a year ago, and have lived in it more than a year. The property is owned by me, and I pay the taxes. Said property is assessed at $2000. I have not hunted this office, but since my friends have been kind enough to bring my name before the public, I wish to thank them for the honor, and if elected I shall discharge the duties of the position to the best of my ability. FRANK HOLMES.

Woman's Club—

There will be a meeting of the Salem Woman's Club tomorrow at 2:30 o'clock at the public library for election of officers for the ensuing year. A full attendance is desired.

Recovered His Sight—

Johnnie Frohmader, whose eye was so badly injured in the accident on the boat at Newberg, had an operation performed yesterday, which, it is thought, will fully restore his sight, as he regained perfect sight this morning for the first time. Drs. Lane and Gillis were the operating physicians.

Racing Stock Arrives—

Sam Lindsey, who is in charge of the Commonwealth Farm stables, owned by N. K. West, of La Grande, arrived at the fair grounds today with six head of racers. Among them is "Satin Royal," "The Commonwealth," entered in the $5000 race, and "Conscious Guy."

Flag Day Dance—

The dance committee of Company M has every thing in readiness for the grand ball, which will be given in the Armory this evening. The Salem Military Band will furnish the music, and an excellent time is assured.
