ROME.

(From Will Carleton's Magazine of May, 1898.)

At last the nation tired of strife, as conqueror reposed:
The temple of the god of war with shouts of joy was closed;
For many blessed days the camp had blossomed as a home;

Those tranquil times from Comfort's lips threw kisses, near and far;
And everything was brighter, from a flower unto a star;

DEAD GAME SPORT.

It begins to look as if the Englishman—he of the Derby-and-Ascot barnd—were not just the "dead game sport" that he is claimed to be for so many long years out of memory.

Let an American of Irish lineage and Tammany Hall training present the best horse of the year and capture the honors coveted by the fore-said Englishman, and straight-away THE HANDICAPPER "GETS BUSY" IN THE INTEREST OF ENGLISH HONORS FOR ENGLISH-MEN; AND THE BEST HORSE IS SO OVERWEIGHTED THAT HE MUST BE WITHDRAWN.

It will at once strike all the world, except perhaps our obtuse English cousins, that this is entirely good sport nor good treatment.

Sport, of all things, is essentially and conspicuously democratic.
The distinctions of caste, the lines of birth and the accident of fortune cannot be regarded as in society; and he who enters into competition in the field of true sport should be cosmopolitan and democratic enough to compete on the inner laid down, to be square in civalry, fair on the field and a cheerful loser when he meets the better competitor.

What he does subsequently matters less.
He may even decline to invite the owner of the Derby-winner to luncheon if it so pleases his lordship, his highness or his majesty, especially if that owner be a stranger.

But to stoop to the trick of protecting the poorer horse by excessive handicapping is not the mark of high breeding or true sportsmanship.

IF ORBY IS THE BEST HORSE of his class on English soil, LET HIM GET HIS HONORS.

VAPORINGS ON JAPAN.

Amid all this mush and silliness over "allegedly "strained relations" between the United States and Japan arising from recent incidents in California it has been reserved for the London Globe to read this nation and people a lesson on the proprieties and to engage in an effort to inflame Japan against us by referring to her "patience under insults" as "good when it achieves its end, but when it fails to vindicate national honor action alone remains."

It asks seriously in an editorial of a few days ago:
"Is America, herself a late comer, to the commonwealth of great Powers, to refuse to admit the newest arrival when her credentials are so well attested; and to refuse, to, not so much on the ground of principle as because her Constitution falls to secure a prompt reparation and because the crude development of the trans-Rocky Mountain provinces has been "collared" by ignorant and dishonest politicians?"

And our British contemporary declares that the world will revolt from that conclusion, "as has Roosevelt and the more balanced opinion in America," adding by way of a bit of parting advice that "A CONCILI-ATORY ATTITUDE ON THE PART OF THE UNITED STATES WILL ALONE AVERT THE DANGER AND RESENTMENT OF JAPAN."

What under the light of heaven or on the face of the green earth is there to be "conciliatory" about?
Japan, as a nation, has no grievance against us.

The two governments understand each other perfectly and thoroughly.

It is Japan, if either, that ought to be and is "conciliatory," because it is some of her reckless politicians who are trying to make international trouble where none exists or any ground for it exists.

Indeed, it is only within the past forty-eight hours that official assurance have come from Tokio to Washington that Japan prefers to regard the recent rioting in Japanese restaurants in San Francisco as a "closed incident;" and on behalf of his government Viscount Aoki, the Japanese ambassador, has just given his approval to the suggestion of his government that the Japanese injured by past assaults sue the city for damages.

That is the only rational sensible course to adopt.

THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT HAS NO MORE TO DO WITH THE ACTS OF RIOTERS IN SAN FRANCISCO THAN IT HAS WITH THE PRECESSION OF THE EQUINOXES OR THE PRICE OF BEER IN MILWAUKEE.

We are treating the Japanese as a Power just as we are treating other Powers—have not "refused" to admit her on her credentials."

We are under no contract to police San Francisco in behalf of her subjects there and when that city fails to do it her Japanese residents have the same means of redress as have British subjects there or those of France, Spain or Patagonia.

And how delightfully refreshing and complimentary to be assured by a London newspaper that Theodore Roosevelt is to be classed among those Americans of "more balanced opinions!"

The Perfume Plant.

One of the most delightful floral novelties ever offered is the wonderful Perfume Plant. It is a biennial growing about one foot in height.
Neither foliage nor flower are particularly attractive in appearance, but the blossoms which are closed during the day open at evening and fill the air with a most delicious and far carrying fragrance.

ground, sprinkling a little earth very lightly over it and press down with a board or other flat surface. The object, as in all small seeds, being not to cover the seed too deeply but to bring it in close contact with the soil so it will germinate quickly.

Ancient Rome

Is now merely a memory of the past.
Ballard's Snow Liniment is the family liniment of the twentieth century.
A positive cure for Rheumatism, Burns, Cuts, Sprains, Neuralgia, etc., Mr. C. H. Runyon, Stanberry, Mo., writes: "I have used Snow Liniment for Rheumatism and all pain. I can't say enough in its praise." Sold

OREGON
PIONEERS
MEETING

Notes On Experiences of Some of the Trail Makers

The editor of The Capital Journal attended, as has been his custom for some years, the annual reunion of the Linn county pioneers at the beautiful and flourishing city of Brownsville, on the 13th and 14th, and on the 15th attended the Waldo Hills pioneer reunion. These gatherings are of great interest to all who attend, and it a pleasure to note that the worthy sons and daughters, and the worthy sons and daughters, and grandsons and granddaughters are increasing in numbers and are taking up the work of the organizations where the old people leave off. The principal address on Native Sons and Daughters day was delivered by Congressman Hawley, and it was a masterpiece in the way of entertaining the crowd. The younger generation of Oregonians can certainly feel proud to have one of their number represent them in the national congress.

Following are the officers of the Linn County Pioneers Association: Cyrus H. Walker, president; L. E.
Blaine, vice-president; Jas. G. Galway, H. R. Powell, J. W. Moore, directors; A. P. Coshaw, secretary; A. W. Stanard, treasurer.

Among pioneers present at the reunion were some of the notable men who made Oregon history, not as political figures but as sturdy private citizens. We met T. P. Kenworthy, who came from Porter county, Indiana, to Brownsville in October, 1853. Wm. Marks of Lebanon, who settled in Linn county in 1852.
H. E. Parrish is grandson of E. E.
Parrish, who settled at Parish Gap.
He was born in his father's house in 1848, and is one of the oldest native sons in Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. D. O. Quick were at the reunion, living at Halsey. They settled in Washington county in 1862. He crossed the Rockies three times on account of the Indians, at South Pass, at Big Hole and then through by Lewiston. Mrs. Quick came in 1847, her grandfather, Thomas Cox, being one of the first merchants in Salem. Her mother, Mrs. Brown, was the first milliner at Salem. Her brother J. Henry Browne, wrote the history of politics in Oregon.

J. N. Rice, of Holley, located on the Callipoola in 1853, coming to Oregon by the wagon trail in 1850, with a party of five wagons, headed by Phil Mulkey, who crossed the Great Divide in 1847, and went back to get his family. Silas Powell and Robert Moores were in the party, the last named locating on Crabtree Creek. The party was caught in a snow storm at Laurel Hill. The women had to walk out and packed the children. In this party was Chas. Rice and family, Silas Powell and family, Robert Moore and family, Mart Prime and family, (after whom Prineville is named) and Mrs. Frank Daley, (whose husband died in the snow storm).

Women as Well as Men Are Made Miserable by Kidney and Bladder Trouble.

Kidney trouble preys upon the mind, discourages and lessens ambition; beauty, vigor and cheerfulness soon disappear when the kidneys are out of order or diseased.

Kidney trouble has become so prevalent that it is not uncommon for a child to be born afflicted with weak kidneys. If the child urinates too often, if the urine scalds the flesh, or if, when the child reaches an age when it should be able to control the passage, it is yet afflicted with bed-wetting, depend upon it, the cause of the difficulty is kidney trouble, and the first step should be towards the treatment of these important organs. This unpleasant trouble is due to a diseased condition of the kidneys and bladder and not to a habit as most people suppose.

Women as well as men are made miserable with kidney and bladder trouble, and both need the same great remedy. The mild and the immediate effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It is sold by druggists, in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also a Home of Swamp-Root pamphlet telling all about Swamp-Root, including many of the thousands of testimonial letters received from sufferers cured. In writing Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., be sure and mention this paper. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

A Woman's Back

Has many aches and pains caused by weakness and falling, or other displacement, of the pelvic organs. Other symptoms of female weakness are frequent headache, dizziness, imaginary specks or dark spots floating before the eyes, gnawing sensation in stomach, dragging or bearing down in lower abdominal or pelvic region, disagreeable drains from pelvic organs, faint spells with general weakness.

If any considerable number of the above symptoms are present there is no remedy that will give quicker relief or a more permanent cure than Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It has a record of over forty years of cures. It is the most potent invigorating tonic and strengthening remedy known to medical science. It is made of the glyceric extracts of native medicinal roots found in our forests and contains not a drop of alcohol or harmful, or habit-forming drugs. Its ingredients are all printed on the bottle-wrapper and attested under oath as correct.

Every ingredient entering into "Favorite Prescription" has the written endorsement of the most eminent medical writers of all the several schools of practice—more valuable than any amount of non-professional testimonials—though the latter are not lacking, having been contributed voluntarily by grateful patients in numbers to exceed the endorsements given to any other medicine extant for the cure of woman's ills.

You cannot afford to accept any medicine of unknown composition as a substitute for this well proven remedy or known cosmostron, even though the dealer may make a little more profit thereby. Your interest in regaining health is paramount to any selfish interest of his and it is an insult to your intelligence for him to try to palm off upon you a substitute. You know what you want and it is his business to supply the article called for.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are the original "Little Liver Pills" first put up by old Dr. Pierce over forty years ago, much imitated but never equalled. Little sugar-coated granules—easy to take, as candy.

Born to the Business.

One of the best kept little hotels in Oregon is the Halsey house at Halsey, kept by J. W. Marksbury, who is a young man who seems to be a natural-born landlord. He has run hotels at Ashland and Gold Hill and has an unbroken record for pleasing the public.
