SOCIAL GOSSIP

The past week has been very quiet. Miss Weller gave two most enjoyable musicals and there were a few more informal affairs. These smaller affairs, which have become quite the habit here as well as elsewhere, are always being given. Next week is commencement week for the U. of O. and a number of Salem people will go up, especially for the alumni dance Wednesday evening.

A pleasant event of the coming week will be the musicale given by the pupils of Wm. Wallace Graham, violinist, Wednesday evening at the M. E. church.

Lawn Party.

Among the early lawn parties of the season was one given Wednesday evening by the faculty of the Sacred Heart Academy, to the young ladies of the school. The lawn presented a pretty picture with its myriads of lights and groups of summery gowned young ladies, who were singing, laughing and playing games suitable for such occasions. Refreshments were served.

"500" Party.

Misses Edith Mae King and Blanche Brown entertained very informally Thursday evening at the King home on East State street. The affair was in the nature of a "500" party and was given in honor of Miss Edith Crosson, of The Dalles, who has been the guest of these young ladies for the past few days. Miss Mabel Robertson and Mr. Brooks proved themselves worthy of the card honors.

CAN DRAW CHECKS...

Checking accounts enable folks to deposit their money and receive a passbook, against these accounts they are permitted to draw checks.

Checks may be given to parties for such sums as desired, thus avoiding frequent trips to the bank.

If interested call and see us.

The guests were Misses Mabel Robertson, Marie Hofer, Emilie Crosson, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Meyers, Messrs. W. H. Brooks of Ontario, Fred Hofer, George Goodall, Robert McK. Hofer, and Paul Wallace.

Artisans' Social.

The United Artisans held the regular monthly open meeting in their hall on the corner of Court and High streets last night. An appreciative audience of Artisans and their friends were present, and after an excellent program, every number of which was heartily enjoyed, the lodge members repaired to the dining hall, where strawberries, cream and cake were served. The following program was rendered:

March, "Gloria," orchestra.
Instrumental duet, Misses Maud Hill and Alice Clough.
Euphonium solo, Ivan G. Martin.
Overture, "Morning, Noon and Night," orchestra.

Celebrated the Wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. George Falk, who were married Tuesday in Halsey, were agreeably surprised last night by a large crowd of the street car employees, at their home in South Salem. At a late hour last night about 20 fellow workmen of the Portland General Electric gathered around Mr. Falk's residence, and soon announced their presence by firing a fusillade with shotguns and the "whanging" of innumerable cans. The boys were invited in by the genial host and hostess, who were presented with an elegant leather upholstered rocker, a gift from the car boys.

A luncheon of strawberries, cream and cake was served, and the guests departed, wishing Mr. and Mrs. Falk continued happiness. The hilarity had not all worn off when the boys started home, and in consequence the peaceful night air was jarred to the limit by noises such as only the carnival fiend and his prototype below can invent. There was one "squaker" that "made a noise" like a Brobdignagian Shanghai rooster, afflicted with tonsillitis. When that thing "cackled" the fire alarm was turned on at Chemawa, and the seismograph at Washington recorded a slight earthquake somewhere in the West. As an extemporaneous musicale, nothing presented in Salem this year can be compared with it.

Monday Night's Recital.

Miss Weller's open class recital of last Monday evening, June 17th, presented Mrs. Carrie L. Dunning's improved system of music study for beginners to a Salem audience for the first time. The children rendering this program had studied under this system only since January 20th of this year, and they have made wonderful progress. These little ones, their ages ranging from 5 to 12 years, have developed ability to recognize tones instantly when played on the piano, termed "ear training." The performances consisted of piano playing, singing, chord writing, examples of ear training, transposition, a/o time and memory exercises. Some astonishing memory attainments were displayed. The work was rendered naturally, childishly and with a charming absence of self-consciousness, and yet with a correctness which showed careful cultivation of bright and receptive minds. Miss Weller, being a careful and conscientious teacher, competent and painstaking, her pupils have responded to this method, and made a foundation which cannot be attained by the old piano methods.

Wednesday Night.

Among the delightful events of the musical season was the recital given by the advanced pupils of Miss Weller, on Wednesday evening, June 19th. The auditorium of the First Presbyterian church was filled by a music-loving audience who evinced, by repeated applause, their pleasure in the occasion, as number after number was given with the skill and finish that is characteristic of Miss Weller's methods. Many new and pleasing numbers were presented, both in solo and ensemble playing, with an occasional old favorite.

Miss Fay Hutchins, who is a charming little singer, gave two vocal songs, and the class was further assisted by Mr. Chas. Roth, whose splendid voice was heard with fine effect in a difficult selection by Buck.

Clever and conscientious work was done by all the pupils, but the beautiful fantasia, for two pianos, rendered by Misses Evans and Glaze, was especially well received. Miss Maude Evans also earned an enthusiastic ovation by her performance of two difficult numbers from Mozart and Bach.

On Friday evening, June 28th, Miss Weller will present Miss Althea Moores and Miss Marie Hutchins, two promising young musicians, who are already well-known to Salem audiences. The affair promises to be a fitting close to one of the most brilliant musical seasons that has ever been known in the Capital City.

Have You a Cough.

A dose of Ballard's Horehound Syrup will relieve it. Have you a cold?

Try it for whooping cough, for asthma, for consumption, for bronchitis. Mrs. Joe McGrath, 327 E 1st street, Hutchinson, Kan., writes: "I have used Ballard's Horehound Syrup in my family for 5 years, and find it the most palatable medicine I ever used." Sold by D. J. Fry.

X-RAYS

Children are getting so plentiful in Albany that they wander away and are not missed until the ones they locate with advertise them as "sick ears."

H. C. Campbell, according to pictures in the Telegram, was the sweetest blossom in the flower parade at Portland, and seemed to be the only one on the bush.

The superintendent of schools in Los Angeles has entered Japanese pupils in his annual report under the head of Mongolians, and now the Japs are kicking about that.

Summer solstice yesterday. The sun stood still just to see the Portland rose show, and it was about the prettiest thing old sol ever peeped at, too.

Miss Vera Stuart may be the prettiest girl in Oregon, but if she resembles in any remote degree the picture in the Telegram there will be but few persons agreeing with the decision.

The Japanese may not know it, but the people of the Pacific coast classify them about the same as Chinese. A little more self-esteem on their part will cause an agitation such as swept the coast against the Chinese, and it will make the "Jap school" matter look like a mole hill by the side of Mt Hood.

Remarkable Rescue.

That truth is stranger than fiction, has once more been demonstrated in the little town of Fedora, Tenn., the residence of C. V. Pepper. He writes: "I was in bed, entirely disabled with hemorrhages of the lungs and throat. Doctors failed to help me, and all hope had fled when I began taking Dr. King's New Discovery. Then instant relief came. The coughing soon ceased; the bleeding diminished rapidly, and in three weeks I was able to go to work." Guaranteed cure for coughs and colds, 50c and $1.00 at J. C. Perry's drug store. Trial bottle free.

But don't you move your feet."

The Magic No. 3.

Number three is a wonderful mascot for Geo. H. Parris of Cedar Grove, Me., according to a letter which reads: "After suffering much with liver and kidney trouble, and becoming greatly discouraged by the failure to find relief, I tried Electric Bitters, and as a result I am a well man today. The first bottle relieved and three bottles completed the cure." Guaranteed best on earth for stomach, liver and kidney troubles, by J. C. Perry druggist. 50c.

He Fired the Stick.

"I have fired the walking-stick I've carried over 40 years, on account of a sore that resisted every kind of treatment, until I tried Bucklen's Arnica Salve; that has healed the sore and made me a happy man," writes John Garrett, of North Mills, N. Notice of Intention to Improve a Portion of Court Street, in the City of Salem, Oregon.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

Notice is hereby given that the common council of the city of Salem, Oregon, deems it expedient to improve, and proposes to improve, Court street in said city from the east line of Commercial street to the west line of Church street, in said city, with full intersections, in the following manner, to-wit: By excavating the roadway of said street to a depth of six inches below the established grade of said street and by thoroughly rolling said street with a heavy steam roller weighing not less than 12 tons, and by placing on this foundation crushed rock which shall be thoroughly rolled with a steam road roller weighing not less than 12 tons, the said crushed rock to have a depth of four inches after said rolling, and by spreading on said crushed rock a heavy coat of Warren's No. 24 Portland brand bitulithic cement, one gallon of the bitulithic cement to be used to each square yard of the foundation surface.

Also by laying on said foundation a wearing surface composed of sound, hard crushed stone, mixed with bitumen and laid on said foundation to the depth of two inches, after being thoroughly compacted with a steam road roller, also by spreading on said surface a thick coat of Warren's Quick Drying Bituminous Flush Coat Composition, and fine particles of hot crushed stone.

Also by constructing an artificial stone curbing 16.05 feet long, including corner block, at the northwest corner of Court and High streets, in said city. Also by removing all artificial stone crosswalks on said portion of said streets, save and except the inclined aprons on all crosswalks which will be left in place six feet long from the curb, except the aprons at the southwest corner of the intersection of Liberty and Court streets, which are to be left 12 feet long. Also by paving the space between the rails and one foot outside of the rails of the railway track of the Oregon Electric Railway Co. with stone blocks set on concrete and grouted with cement mortar, and by laying said track with six-inch "T" rails, weighing not less than 42 pounds per yard.

All of said improvements to be made in accordance with the charter of the City of Salem, Oregon, and the plans, specifications and estimates for the doing of said work heretofore adopted by the common council of said city, and now on file in the office of the recorder of said city, to which said plans, specifications and estimates the attention of all persons interested in said improvement is hereby called.

The cost of all said improvement to be assessed to the owners of property adjacent to said portions of said street hereby proposed to be improved.

Remonstrances against the above improvement may be filed in writing with the city recorder of said city within ten days from the final publication of this notice.

By order of the common council of the City of Salem, Oregon.

W. A. MOORES,
Recorder.
Date of final publication of this notice is July 2, 1907.

Serious Handicap.

"Somebody ought to talk to Youg-fellow. He'll never get on in politics if he keeps on antagonizing the powers that be."
"But he doesn't. He is very careful to do all that is required of him."
