

J. L. STOCKTON

THE OLD WHITE CORNER

Rush! Rush! Rush!

But everyone gets waited on in a courteous manner. The public is certainly showing its confidence in our methods of doing business. The people of this vicinity know full well that we can be depended upon for reliable merchandise at all times, no matter what others may do, no matter what inducements are being held out to the trading public, we will and can meet the prices, quality for quality.

Elegant Silk Skirts Drummers' Samples

Twenty-seven black taffeta silk skirts were sent us by one of our traveling friends especially for this sale. The prices are less than manufacturers' cost, and you should by all means avail yourself of this opportunity.

$14.00	values for $	7.00
16.00	" "	8.00
23.50	" "	12.00
17.50	" "	9.00

Hundreds of Assorted WAISTS

Will Be On Sale Today

25¢ EACH

White lawns and colored percales. Values 50c to $2.50 each.

Trade With People Whom You Know

Drummers' Sample Sale of Waists

150 lawn waists, worth from $1.50 to $2.00 each, were left by a traveling man who was homeward bound YOUR CHOICE, $1.25.

It does not require sale artists to hand out these

Ruffled Curtains at Half Price

All good values, fairly sparkling with true worth.

TOWELS AND TOWELING REDUCED

See our window display of special bargains in towels and toweling, 6¢ to 20¢

We Are Positively En- thusiastic Over Our Values

And we have just reasons to be so. We are encouraged by the remarks of our customers, who are unanimous in the opinion that we try to be fair.

FAIR every day in the year. We never shirk our responsibility.

Ladies' Suits Reduced Some Half Some One-third Some One-fourth

Some $15.00 to $25.00 values reduced to $5.00 each.

CITY NEWS

A Collection of Important Paragraphs for Your Consideration

Recur Postals—New subjects today, at Patton's.

Men Are Talking—About 6 cents per pound. The orange has a big crop. See ad in Today.

Recital—Professor William Wallace Graham, the well-known violinist, will give his Salem pupils in their annual recital at the First M. E. church next Wednesday evening, June 26. Mr. Graham has a class of pupils in this city, among them many skillful violinists. Invitations are being issued by Mrs. M. Baldwin, whose daughter, Miss Baldwin, will be presented at the recital. Any one wishing to secure them can do so by making application to Mrs. Baldwin or any member of the class before the date.

Professor Graham is one of the leading violinists in the West, having graduated and post-graduated from an European conservatory. He was dean of the violin department of Willamette University last year, but this season is conducting classes in Portland and this city, independent of any institution.

Newport Summer Normal—

The faculty of the summer normal, which will be held in Newport from July 1st to August 9th, has been selected, and will consist of ten professors and special teachers, including some of the best instructors of Willamette University, also Professor Charles O. Chambers, department of biology, Pacific University; Professor H. L. Hopkins, department of history, Albany college, and Mrs. Carrie Chapel (primary methods), of the Salem public schools.

There will be an ice cream social at Leslie church, South Salem, on Tuesday evening, June 25th, from 7 to 9 p. m. The public is cordially invited to attend. Ice cream and cake 10 cents per dish. Proceeds for the benefit of the church. 6-23-24

Piano Recital—

Miss Elma Weiler will present Miss Althea Moores and Miss Marie Hutchins in a piano recital Friday evening, June 28th, at the First Presbyterian church. Those wishing invitations can procure them at Will's music store or from Miss Weiler.

For Art Goods—

In eyelet, shadow and silk embroideries, pillow tops, go to the Variety Store. Annora M. Welch, prop.

For Umbrellas—

Go to the Variety Store.

Fourth of July Chorus—

All Salem singers who will be invited to join in the Fourth of July chorus, which will meet at the University chapel Tuesday night at 8 o'clock for rehearsal. Prof. Heritage will have charge of the work, and some excellent music is promised the great crowd which will be in Salem on our national holiday.

Mrs. Mary Prichard, of Portland, is visiting her brother, E. W. Prichard, of this city.

COMIC PARADE FEATURE

Will Be Great Event of Salem's Fourth of July

F. A. Kurtz, chairman of the comic parade section of the Salem Fourth of July celebration, says that will be a great feature of the day's sports. The parade will start from the Hotel Willamette at 2 p. m., and will be largely the work of the boys of Salem and vicinity. Boys of this city and all the surrounding country are invited to participate, as liberal prizes will be offered. All who can get up a comic presentation of any kind whatsoever, and will take part in the parade, should report at once to F. A. Kurtz, at his market on Commercial street, and be assigned a place in the parade. There is money and prizes to be given for the best efforts in this line, and it will be one of the great treats of the day. The indications are that there will be something warm doing every minute. People from all the surrounding country are preparing to spend the day at Salem.

PERSONALS

Roy Nelson, of Portland, spent Sunday in Salem.

Miss Pearl LaFore left today for a visit in The Dalles.

Miss Juanita Miller, of Lebanon, went to Portland today.

Ed. Metschna and bride are spending their honeymoon at Newport.

Mrs. E. W. Tillson, of San Francisco, is visiting relatives here.

W. L. Brown has returned from Turner, where he attended the campmeeting.

Mrs. Henry Meyers was among the Portland bound passengers this morning.

Mrs. M. Young left this morning for Portland, en route for a visit in La Grande.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Albert returned this morning from a Sunday spent at Newport.

Miss Myrtle Ramage, of Tacoma, is the guest for the summer at the home of Prof. and Mrs. Boyer.

Mrs. John Conder, Mrs. C. Walker and Mrs. C. M. Lewis returned this morning from an over-Sunday visit in Turner.

Geo. C. Mourer and Sam Hughes were Salem contractors bound for respective contracts at Portland and Silverton.

Salemites at Newport are Mr. and Mrs. Geo. H. Meyer, Mrs. Will Skiff and family, and the families of D. J. Fry, Claud Gatch and A. McGill.

P. M. Pomeroy, of Oregon City, spent Sunday with his daughter, Mrs. Wm. Armstrong, of South Commercial street.

Col. L. K. Page went to Portland today. He has sold his sawmill and timberland property at Drain for $16,000 to an Eastern syndicate.

Ralph Matthews returned Saturday evening from Berkeley, California, where he is taking an engineering course in the University of California. He will spend the summer in Salem.

Mrs. Harry Thomas and daughter, Miss Ethel, have gone to Lebanon, for a short visit. They will then go to Newport for a summer outing on the beach.

Fred M. Hofer, recently graduated from the mining engineering department of the Oregon Agricultural College, left this morning for the Wallace, Idaho mining district, where he expects to get employment in his profession.

Miss Evans has gone to Portland to meet representatives of millinery houses from San Francisco and the East, and will soon have in a full stock for her large Salem trade, which was burned out in the Meyers & Sons' fire.

Miss Eva Umphreys and Miss Ellen Morton and Ralph Ferrell left this morning for their home in San Mateo, California, after a visit to Salem relatives. Miss Umphreys was formerly of this city, and a student of Willamette University.

Mrs. H. V. Matthews and daughter, Helen, who have been spending the past year at Stanford, are in the city for a few days. They will leave the latter part of the week for San Jose, where Miss Matthews will teach in the Campbell high school.

Rev. and Mrs. Davis Erett, Mr. and Mrs. Scott Riggs, Mr. and Mrs. Silas Riggs, Dr. and Mrs. H. C. Epley, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Bennett, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Downing, Miss Addie Reed and Dean Schomaker were Salemites who attended the Turner meeting yesterday.

THE ONE-PRICE IDEA

Appeals to Every Fair-minded Customer

Why should anybody receive a special discount on goods if the same discount isn't allowed to everybody?

The spot cash, one-price plan of business is gaining ground all over the country. It has been the secret of our success during the past fifteen years in Salem. You'll never find at our store goods on "special sale," "marked down" from imaginary prices, or any exaggerated statements of the value of an article. Everything is marked in plain figures at the lowest possible price consistent with efficient store service.

Barnes' Cash Store

E. T. Barnes, Prop.

We are now authorized to give one New Idea Pattern free with every subscription to the New Idea Magazine. Price 50c per year.

We are closing out a small lot of LADIES' BLACK CORSETS at 35c. Sizes 18, 19, 20, 21 and 22 only. Reduced from 50c and 95c.

Rev. B. C. Black left today for Turner, where he will spend the week at the campmeeting. He will be joined by his family tomorrow.

F. X. Boullard, of Chico, California, who has been here for about two months, started for Chico Sunday morning. He had been employed in the Chico nursery, at that place for several years, and a short time ago organized a stock company and purchased the property, Mr. Boullard being made its superintendent and business manager.

Judge Burnett, circuit judge of Marion county, left this morning for Baker City, after attending the special meeting of the Knights Templar in this city last evening. He addressed the members with an encouraging report of the progress of the lodge in Oregon. W. E. Grace of Baker City, was also at the meeting and returned this morning with the judge.—La Grande Observer.

Notice to Contractors.

Sealed bids will be received by the Board of Trustees of the Oregon Institute for the Blind at the office of the Governor, Salem, Oregon, until 10 o'clock Monday, July 1, 1907, for furnishing material and labor in constructing an industrial building and performing other work in accordance with the plans and specifications which may be seen in the office of F. A. Legg, architect, room 6, Murphy building.

A certified check in the sum of ten (10 per cent) per cent of bid drawn to the order of F. W. Benson, secretary of state, must be enclosed with each bid; the same to be forfeited to the State of Oregon in case the lowest or accepted bidder fails to qualify with acceptable bond in the full sum of the contract price within ten days (10) after the work is awarded.

By order of the Board of Trustees.
G. W. JONES,
Superintendent.

6-24-3t

Fairmount Won.

The Fairmount won over the Brooks baseball team here Sunday 5 to 1. Brooks has defeated Gervais this year. Fairmount plays Springfield at Springfield next Sunday. The Fairmounts will play one of the City League games tonight, against the Woolen Mills.

A compose.

New Groom—What do I owe you?
Parson—Two dollars, please.
New Groom—I'll give you $1 and let you kiss the bride.
Parson—I'll give you 50 cents to let me off.—Philadelphia Telegraph.

DIED.

JORGENSEN.—At the home, 472 Liberty street, Sunday, June 23, 1907, at 5 a. m., Peter Jorgensen, aged 64 years, of pneumonia.

Mr. Jorgensen had a wide circle of friends here, having been a resident of Salem for the past 16 years. He was born in Denmark in 1843, and came to America in 1865, and settled in Kansas, where he married. From his Kansas home he removed to Salem, where he has since resided. He leaves a wife, Mrs. Minnie Jorgensen, and three children, Harold, of Dallas, Ira and Claude, both of Salem, to mourn his death.

The funeral services will be conducted by Rev. J. R. Comer from the residence at 4:30 this afternoon; interment in City View cemetery.

FARRELL.—In East Salem, Sunday, June 23, 1907, at 10 a. m., John Farrell, aged 36 years, of apoplexy.

The body was shipped to Portland for burial this morning.

Four Drowned at Tacoma.

Tacoma, June 24.—The collapse of the wharf at Stone's Landing, a picnic resort near Tacoma, resulted in the drowning of four persons and the injury of 15 others. The dead are Agnes Peterson, aged 10; Elma O'Berg, 9; an unidentified girl, and an unidentified old man. All the bodies were recovered.

Mamie Fools the Coroner.

Redding, Cal., June 24.—Mamie Curl, who was struck by lightning near her Saturday, and was believed to be dead, came to life shortly before the coroner and a coffin reached her home yesterday. Her parents had laid her out and sent for the coroner and prepared for the funeral. Just before the coroner arrived the girl opened her eyes and began to talk. She had completely recovered.

Norwich Union Fire Insurance Society
Frank Meredith, Resident Agent.
Office with Wm. Brown & Co., No. 122 Commercial street.

..MONEY TO LOAN..
THOMAS K. FORD
Over Ladd & Bush's Bank, Salem, Or.

NEW TODAY

For Sale—Several houses in Salem and farm lands at a bargain. Capital National Bank. 6-1-epd—

For Sale—Good driving horses. Also good work and road mare. Enquire 549 Capital. 6-24-3t