

Your Hair At Home?

Or has your comb run away with it? Better look out for what's left of it, and keep it at home on your head, not in the comb. Ayer's Hair Vigor will act as "keeper." If you have a particle of doubt about using this splendid preparation, let your doctor decide for you. We publish the formulas of all our preparations. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass.

Finale.

Every Man His Own Doctor.
The average man cannot afford to employ a physician for every slight ailment or injury that may occur in his family, nor can he afford to neglect them, as so slight an injury as the scratch of a pin has been known to cause the loss of a limb. Hence every man must from necessity be his own doctor for this class of ailments. Success often depends upon prompt treatment, which can only be had when suitable medicines are kept at hand. Chamberlain's Remedies have been in the market for many years and enjoys a good reputation.

Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy for bowel complaints.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for coughs, colds, croup and whooping cough.

Chamberlain's Pain Balm (an antiseptic liniment) for cuts, bruises, burns, sprains, swellings, lame back and rheumatism pains.

Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets for constipation, biliousness and stomach troubles.

Chamberlain's Salve for diseases of the skin.

One bottle of each of these five preparations costs but $1.25. For sale by Dr. Stone's drug store.

"Hi, Chimmy! So yer boss' gran-mudder is dead, hey?"
"Dat's wot he says. I reckon we'll see him at de ball game."—Washington Herald.

There Are Few
People who know how to take care of themselves—the majority do not. The liver is the most important organ in the body. Herbine will keep it in condition. V. C. Simpkins, Alba, Texas, writes: "I have used Herbine for Shills and Fever and find it the best medicine I ever used. I would not be without it. It is as good for children as it is for grown-up people and I recommend it. It is fine for La Grippe." Sold by D. J. Fry.

Said he: "Do you like short men best—
Prefer the bold or shy men?"
She dropped her eyes and softly said, "I'm sure I favor Hymen."
—Judge.

Ancient Rome
Is now merely a memory of the past. Ballard's Snow Liniment is the family liniment of the twentieth century. A positive cure for Rheumatism, Burns, Cuts, Sprains, Neuralgia, etc., Mr. C. H. Runyon, Stanberry, Mo., writes: "I have used Snow Liniment for Rheumatism and all pain. I can't say enough in its praise." Sold by D. J. Fry.

Over the Wall.
"She asked me to meet her by the garden wall!"
"Yet you seem apprehensive."
"Yes, I'm afraid she intends to throw me over."—Philadelphia Press.

The Texas Wonder.
Cures all kidney, bladder and rheumatic troubles; sold by all druggists, or two months' treatment by mail for $1. Dr. E. W. Hall, 1926 Olive street, St. Louis, Mo. Send for testimonials. Sold by Stone's drug store. sw-172

End of the Row.
He (after the quarrel)—I was a fool when I married you.
She—Yes, but I thought you would improve.—Independent.

Remarkable Rescue.
That truth is stranger than fiction, has once more been demonstrated in the little town of Fedora, Tenn., the residence of C. V. Pepper. He writes: "I was in bed, entirely disabled with hemorrhages of the lungs and throat. Doctors failed to help me, and all hope had fled when I began taking Dr. King's New Discovery. Then instant relief came. The coughing soon ceased; the bleeding diminished rapidly, and in three weeks I was able to go to work." Guaranteed cure for coughs and colds, 50c and $1.00 at J. C. Perry's drug store. Trial bottle free.

Proof Positive.
Actress—Did my death scene seem realistic?
Theatrical Manager—I should say so! Why, a life insurance director in the audience fainted dead away!

Don't!!!
Don't let your child suffer with that cough when you cure it with Ballard's Horehound Syrup, a sure cure for Coughs, Bronchitis, Influenza, Croup and Pulmonary Diseases. Buy a bottle and try it.
B. B. Laughter, Byhalia, Miss., writes: "I have two children who had croup. I tried many different remedies, but I must say your Horehound Syrup is the best Croup and Cough medicine I ever used." Sold by D. J. Fry.

Reassured.
"G-g-good evening," said the young man, who had come to speak to the girl's father.
"Good evening," replied the old gentleman. "You look a little nervous. How do you feel?"
"Flattered," replied the young man. "I was afraid I look scared to furniture."—Catholic Standard and Times.

A Fortunate Texan.
Mr. E. W. Goodloe, of 107 St. Louis St., Dallas, Tex. says: "In the past year I have become acquainted with Dr. King's New Life Pills, and no laxative I ever before tried so effectually disposes of malaria and biliousness." They don't gripe nor grip. 25c at J. C. Perry's drug store.

A Virtuous Example.
"What a well behaved little boy you have!"
"Yes, he takes it from his father! My husband always gets a few months off his sentence on account of good conduct!"—Meggendorfer Blaetter.

Tetter Cured.
A lady customer of ours had suffered with tetter for two or three years. It got so bad on her hands that she could not attend to her household duties. One box of Chamberlain's Salve cured her. Chamberlain's medicines give splendid satisfaction in this community.—M. H. Rodney & Co., Almond, Ala. Chamberlain's medicines are for sale by Dr. Stone's drug store.

Made All the Difference.
The June bride frowned.
"These tomatoes," she said, "are just twice as dear as those across the street. Why is it?"
"Ah, ma'am, these—"
"And the grocer smiled in pity of her ignorance."
"—these are hand-picked."
She blushed. "Of course," she added hastily, "I might have known. Give me a bushel, please."

Do Not Neglect the Children.
At this season of the year the first unnatural looseness of a child's bowels should have immediate attention. The best thing that can be given is Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy followed by castor oil as directed with each bottle of the remedy. Fore sale by Dr. Stone's drug store.

Too Strenuous.
"My son tells me you've discharged him," said the office boy's mother, "and I think that's strange; you advertised for a strong boy, and he's certainly—"
"He's too strong, madam," interrupted the employer. "In the single day he was here he broke all the rules of this office and some of the furniture."—Catholic Standard and Times.

The Reporter Had Not Yet Arrived.

But the title of "newspaper" was a misnomer for the Journals published anywhere in Europe or America in those days. It was a long time before the collection and publication of news events came to be a prominent feature of the so-called newspapers. The press reporter had not yet appeared. There was not a solitary reporter, official or otherwise, at the meeting of the Continental convention in 1787, and had it not been for James Madison, who undertook the arduous task of keeping a record of what was said and done, the important debates on the Federal constitution would not have been preserved. The reporter had not yet arrived thirty-seven years later when, in 1824, Daniel Webster delivered a famous address at the laying of the corner stone of the Bunker Hill monument. General Lafayette, who was then making a tour of the country and was welcomed everywhere with unprecedented enthusiasm, was present, and this fact, together with the fame of the orator, drew an immense throng of people from all parts of the country. This speech of Webster, and the presence of General Lafayette, was the great event of the period, yet there was no reporter present to note the proceedings. Mr. Webster wrote out his address and placed it at the disposition of the Bunker Hill Monument Association, who sold the copyright for $300.

Only one report was made of Webster's great speech in reply to Hayne, and that was by Joseph Gales, the senior editor of the National Intelligencer, who, in the multiplicity of his duties, was unable to write out his stenographic notes, and but for the aid of Mrs. Gales, who volunteered to do the work, this masterly speech might have been lost to the world.

On the 28th of September, 1837, Mr. Webster made a very able speech on the currency question in reply to Mr. Calhoun. Mr. Webster was then at the height of his fame as an orator—a fame that has never been approached by any other man in this country. Vast crowds assembled whenever there was an opportunity to hear him speak; yet incredible as it may seem, there was not a reporter present on this occasion to make a record of this notable speech. Mr. Webster, writing to a friend, says: "If you can believe it, no reporter took down a single word of it. I had to gather it together from my own notes, my own recollections, other friends recollections and the letters of the letter writers."—Crosby S. Noyes in Journalism Since James-town.

Colic and Diarrhoea.
Pains in the stomach, colic and diarrhoea are quickly relieved by the use of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. For sale by Dr. Stone's drug store.

He Was Out of Sight.
Recently I photographed a large factory group, and a few days later brought the proofs to show the group and take orders. Quite a crowd gathered around me to see the picture. Suddenly I felt some one pushing his way through the crowd toward me. Up came a funny-looking man and wanted to look at the group, it was taking some time for this individual to find himself. He looked so disappointed that I asked him where he sat when it was taken. He answered: "I was in the engine room, sweeping."—Judge Library.

He Drew the Line.
The Bishop, so runs the yarn, took the needy one to a hotel and shared generous dinner with him, yet, having left his episcopal wallet in the pocket of a different episcopal jacket, suddenly faced the embarrassment of not possessing the wherewithal to pay up. "Never mind," exclaimed his guest, "I have enjoyed dining with you and I shall be charmed to shoulder the cost. Permit me." Whereupon the stranger paid for two. This worried the prelate, who insisted: "Just let me call a cab and we'll run to my hotel, where I shall have the pleasure of reimbursing you." But the stranger met the suggestion with, "See here, old man, you've stuck me for a bully good dinner, but banged if I'm going to let you stick me for cab fare."—Boston Transcript.

Severe Pains

When a prominent nerve is affected, the pain is severe. It is called neuralgia. It may be in either the head or body. Relief comes only when this nerve trouble is overcome. By its soothing and strengthening influence upon the nervous system Dr. Miles' Nervine removes the cause.

"It was about two years ago that I was taken down with what the doctors called lightning rheumatism. Sharp pains would go from one place to another, mostly in my head, and they would last two or three days before I could get relief. During these spells I would be so nervous that I hardly knew what I was doing. The pains were so severe and exhausting that my husband would have to steady me when walking across the room. I would have fever, and my heart would palpitate, and in a day or two I would feel better. Just as soon as I would expose myself the very least I was sure to have a spell of neuralgia. I have taken lots of doctor's medicine, but I might just as well take water. My aunt kept writing me to just try Dr. Miles' Nervine, and I am thankful that I was persuaded to do so, for the Nervine has cured me—has driven it out of my system."

MRS. H. C. DIXON,
2122 Savannah Ave., St. Joseph, Mo.
Dr. Miles' Nervine is sold by your druggist, who will guarantee that the first bottle will benefit. If it fails, he will refund your money.
