TODAY.

The present hour claims all that we can do. The past we cannot change or yet recall. The future lies fast sealed from human view. Its shade may never on our pathway fall. Today alone is ours!

It is enough to fill with gracious deeds, The swift unfolding of the present hour; Its light and sunshine comes to meet our needs, Its gladness is our birthright and our dawn. Take sunshine from today.

Love's messengers speed swiftly on their way, With tidings glad upon their radiant wings; They come to you, they come to me today, Oh, take the gladness that our angel brings, Take gladness from today.

No future and no past we will deplore, If we but fill the measure of today, Beauties will rise we never saw before, Oh! watch for beauty all along the way, Take beauty from today.

Gather the fragrance it is hiding near, Reject the poison tho' the flower is fair, Take blossoms bright upon thy breast to wear, Only the pure and white let thy hands bear, Take fragrance from today.

When our today claims majesty of years, And whitening harvests left that we have sown, Gather our faithful days, our holy tears, Our full hearts singing with their joyous crown. Reaped from the sweet today!

SHOW FAITH IN WOODBURN.

Rev. Jos. A. Levesque and John W. Cook have decided to erect some more brick buildings in Woodburn.

It is a cold day when they are not doing something for the town. THESE TWO GREAT MEN HAVE GREAT FAITH IN THE QUEEN CITY OF FRENCH PRAIRIE.

Marion county has no citizens who are more thoroughly alive to their own city.

Reverend Levesque went to Woodburn when it was a small parish and he has built up one of the strongest Catholic churches in the county.

He has built and paid for a fine large church, a beautiful parsonage and has a well-equipped academy running there.

HE HAS IN ADDITION BROUGHT MANY NEW FAMILIES TO WOODBURN.

Woodburn will feel the impulse of this latest move. It marks the start of a new era of development.

Such men as Levesque and Cook give new life to a city like Woodburn.

THE RESULT WILL BE MORE BUILDINGS AND MORE PEOPLE AND MORE INDUSTRIES.

No one can withstand the magnetic influence for progress manifested by such men as Levesque and Cook.

One is a minister of the gospel. The other is a real estate dealer.

But when they unselfishly push for the upbuilding of their home city THEY ARE PUBLIC BENEFACTORS.

We believe Levesque and Cook will never regret having undertaken the construction of a fine two-story brick block at Woodburn.

Woodburn has passed the one-story stage of city buildings for business.

Marion county has others of their type, but it would be a blessing for Marion county IF MARION COUNTY HAD MORE OF THEM.

It is not an unusual thing for Father Levesque to conduct a funeral service, marry a couple, baptize some children and locate several newcomers at Woodburn on the same day.

Cook will sell a town lot before breakfast, a fruit tract before lunch and plant a hom-seeker with a family of ten children on a dairy ranch before supper.

He is a thoroughly alive town and country builder. Woodburn is a live place.

It is one of the best towns in the state. THERE ARE MANY PEOPLE TAKING THE TRAINS THERE, there is as much life there on the principal business street, as there is at Salem.

Why should not men who have life and hope and confidence in their natures SHOW THEIR FAITH BY DEEDS?

And they do it. It is such men who build up the towns and build up the country and give employment to labor.

IMPROVEMENT ON THE FATHERS.

Veneration for the fathers is all right. It is their due. It is our duty.

But it's a mighty poor compliment to a father IF THE SON IS NOT A LITTLE IMPROVEMENT.

This is not reflecting upon the career of Louis J. Simpson, the Mayor of North Bend, who has been attending the Development Convention.

His father, Capt. Simpson, is a venerable pioneer, who had large holdings of land on Coos Bay, and had amassed a large fortune in banking and merchandising.

He was ultra-conservative, refused to encourage industries, did not favor any progressive policies of development.

THE SENIOR SIMPSON PLAYED THE PART OF MILLIONAIRE MOSSBACK TO A FINISH.

But his son was of different type. He has made it possible for any manufacturing enterprise to get a location at North Bend.

He threw open the waterfront. It is possible for any man, workman or millionaire, to build a home at North Bend and make a living there.

LOUIS J. SIMPSON CUT UP THE LARGE HOLDINGS OF LAND OWNED BY HIS FATHER, put through streets, built parks and laid off avenues, donated sites for churches and schools.

HE BECAME A PUBLIC BENEFACTOR INSTEAD OF A MONOPOLISTIC OBSTACLE.

He reversed the policies of half a century of retrogression. He has proved a blessing to himself and the whole community and incidentally enriched the old man.

His father had made his pile, salted it down, had his income secured, could go to Frisco or New York and spend it where he liked.

BUT SO FAR AS BUILDING UP COOS BAY WAS CONCERNED, HIS POLICIES WOULD NOT EVEN BUILD UP A CEMETERY.

THERE WOULD HAVE BEEN NO ONE THERE TO DIE.

Louis J. Simpson is alive. He don't have to pinch himself to find it out.

NO ONE IN ALL THE COOS BAY COUNTRY IS PRAYING THAT HE WILL DIE.

Coos Bay people will always enjoy a visit from old Capt. Simpson. They would enjoy a call from him from the other world.

BUT THEY KNOW THE LIFE OF THE PLACE IS DUE NOT TO HIM, BUT TO HIS SON.

Simpson's town is four years old. Marshfield is about fifty. His town at the last election polled 520 votes. Marshfield polled 529.

He had it in his power as sole manager of his father's immense property to bottle up the town, or to make it the live little city of the North Pacific Coast.

He donated a block of land for the new Mercy Hospital, talked for it, played baseball for it, AND GAVEMORE MONEY THAN ANYONE ELSE.

Some sons are more benefit to the world at thirty than their fathers at eighty.

SIMPSON IS ONE OF THAT RARE KIND. His hand, heart and purse are ready to help every private and public enterprise.

Is it any wonder he is elected Mayor of the city he has built continuously.

IT IS NO CRIME TO BE A BETTER MAN THAN YOUR FATHER. IT IS A PUBLIC DUTY.

Even Capt. Simpson must be proud of the achievements of his son. It pains some men to think of the cost of drawing a breath.

IT DON'T PAIN LOUIS SIMPSON TO DRAW A BREATH OR A CHECK.

Here's good luck to Mayor Simpson, and to the father for having raised such a son.

Long may they both live and prosper.

Inscription on Massachusetts Tombstone Displays Some Humor

In a country churchyard in Massachusetts lies a broken mossy headstone inscribed with the date 1789, and the following verses, which, with patience, can be deciphered on the crumbling stone: Here lies a poor woman who always was tired.

She lived in a house where help was not hired.

Her last words were, "Dear friends, I am goin'."

Where washin' ain't done, neither sweepin' or sewin'.

But everything there will be just to my wishes,

For where they don't eat there's no washin' of dishes.

I'll go where loud anthems forever'll be ringin'.

But havin' no voice I'll get clear of the singin'.

Don't mourn for me now, don't mourn for me never,

For I'm going to do nothin' forever and ever.

Laborers May Strike.

Paris, June 28.—France is facing a general strike of all laboring men, in addition to the revolt of the wine growers. Steps are being taken by the laboring men, who think their demands will be granted on account of the government's weakened condition.

The "come and go" feelings that you experience after taking Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea is simply wonderful. Drugs increase weakness. This remedy does the business. 35 cents, Tea or Tablets. Dr. Stone's Drug Store.

"Yes; I use one to read with, one to see at a distance, and the third to find the other two."—London Mail.

He Fired the Stick.

"I have fired the walking-stick I've carried over 40 years, on account of a sore that resisted every kind of treatment, until I tried Bucklen's Arnica Salve; that has healed the sore and made me a happy man," writes John Garrett, of North Mills, N. Teach the Children to Save

Every man cannot leave a fortune to his children, but he can do what is better—teach them to systematically save their money, not to be miserly, but to lay aside a portion of their money.

This is the sure road to independence—both of character and fortune.
