

Non-alcoholic Sarsaparilla

The Will Power of Man.
The man who can do hard an effective brain work during the day and then go home, banish his cares, and take his ease, is a man to be envied. He is all too scarce. Witness the increase in the men one meets who are prematurely gray or bald or wrinkled. The man without a wrinkle is either a man without a care or one who has mastered the secret of working without worrying. The late Chancellor Runyon of New Jersey, one of the hardest workers that state, was noted for the number of important cases he tried and the strong and permanent character of the decisions he rendered. Late every afternoon he went home and once exchanged shoes for a pair of comfortable old slippers. In referring to his habits, the Chancellor was accustomed to remark:

"When I come home and take off my shoes I at the same time take off all my cares and worries. When I get on my slippers I slip on also a feeling of ease and comfort. I banish from my mind the cases that absorb me all day at the office or in the courtroom. I am ready to enjoy my library, to play a game of whist or to entertain company, as the case may be."

That is where all the work-burdened men would like to get. It is purely a personal matter. The will must come in to assist the brain. Unless a man has abused his digestive functions and upset his nervous system, he can, in most instances, acquire what has been called the will habit. When he has learned to go to sleep and wants to go to sleep, to get a rest a sound sleep affords, he has won half the battle. With a reasonable amount of exercise to add to the sleep, the problem of working the brain and banishing the worry has been very largely solved. Not many visits from the physicians, not much medicine will be required. The man will have become his own specialist.—Lawrence S. Mott in Lippincott's.

The Doctor Away from Home When Most Needed.
People are very much disappointed to find that their family physician is away from home when they most need his services. Diseases like cramp colic and cholera morbus require prompt treatment, and have in many instances proven fatal before medicine could be procured from or a physician summoned. The right way to keep on hand a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. No physician can prescribe a better medicine for these diseases. By having it in the house you escape much pain and suffering and all risk. Buy it now; it may save life. For sale by Dr. Stone's Drug Store.

Reception to Dr. Comer.
The members of the First Baptist church will hold a reception on Tuesday evening, July 9th, at which time Dr. Comer, the newly settled pastor will be presented.

Dr. Comer is a Virginian by birth and has received the advantages of the best southern, as well as northern, colleges in his education and equipment for life service. He comes to Salem from Atchison, Kansas, where he has been pastor of the First Baptist church for nearly twelve years.

All the members of the church and congregation are expected to be present and it is desired that each church in the city send a delegation together with all the pastors of the city.

The reception will be held at the church at 8 o'clock p. m.

HIDDEN DANGERS.

Nature Gives Timely Warnings That No Salem Citizen Can Afford to Ignore.

DANGER SIGNAL NO. 1 comes from the kidney secretions. They will warn you when the kidneys are sick. Well kidneys excrete a clear, amber fluid. Sick kidneys send out a thin, pale and foamy, or a thick, red, ill-smelling urine, full of sediment and irregular of passage.

DANGER SIGNAL NO. 2 comes from the back. Back pains, dull and heavy, or sharp and acute, tell you of sick kidneys and warn you of the approach of dropsy, diabetes and Bright's disease. Doan's Kidney Pills cure sick kidneys and cure them permanently. Here's Salem proof:

A. J. Wood of 250 Cottage St., Salem, Or., says: "Kidney and bladder trouble became so bad with me about two months ago that I was obliged to do something to ease the suffering. It bothered me most in the morning and perhaps for two or three hours after getting up. Too frequent action of the kidney secretions was very annoying and embarrassing. I had known people who had received the best of results from Doan's Kidney Pills and I procured a box of them at Dr. Stone's drug store. Before I had used one box, I was completely free from every symptom of the trouble. The kidneys were regulated and my general health became better. I can hardly express in words the good opinion I have of Doan's Kidney Pills for cases of kidney complaint or back-ache."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Discharged With a Caution.
A laborer was charged with a petty offense.

"Have you any one in court who will vouch for your good character?" queried the judge.

"Yes sire, there is the chief constable yonder," was the reply. The chief constable was amazed.

"Why, your honor, I don't even know the man," he protested.

"Now, sir," broke in the accused, "I have lived in the borough for nearly twenty years, and if the chief constable doesn't know me yet, isn't that a character for you?"—Tit-Bits.

Take the Postmaster's Word for It.

Mr. F. M. Hamilton, postmaster at Cherrycreek, Ind., keeps also a stock of general merchandise and patent medicines. He says: "Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy is standard here in its line. It never fails to give satisfaction and we could hardly afford to be without it." For sale by Dr. Stone's Drug Store.

Invalid—Is this a good place for the nerves?
Proprietor of Health Resort—Is it? Why, when I opened up here I only charged $2 a day; now I've got the nerve to charge $10.—Town Topics.

Bad Burn Quickly Healed.
"I am so delighted with what Chamberlain's Salve has done for me that I feel bound to write and tell you so," says Mrs. Robert Mytton, 457 John St., Hamilton, Ontario.

"My little daughter had a bad burn on her knee. I applied Chamberlain's Salve and it healed beautifully." This salve allays the pain of a burn almost instantly. It is for sale by Dr. Stone's Drug Store.

VOICE OF THE PEOPLE.

By Etta S. Logan.
(Following the baby show on the Fourth was a short literary program at which several recitations were given by little girls, Miss Frances Goodenough being given the first prize for her rendition of the poem following:

Swing inward, O gates of the future;
Swing outward, ye doors of the past.

For the soul of the people is moving
And rising from slumber at last.
The black forms of night are retreating.

The white peaks have signaled the day,
And freedom her long roll is beating.
And calling her sons to the fray.

Swing inward, O gates! till the morning
Shall paint the brown mountain in gold,
Till the life and the love of the New Time
Shall conquer the hate of the Old.

Let the face and the hands of the master
No longer be hidden from view,
Nor the lands he prepared for the many.

Be trampled and robbed by the few.

The soil tells the same fruitful story,
The seasons their bounties display,
And the flowers lift their faces in glory

To catch the warm kisses of day.
While our fellows are treated as cattle
That are muzzled when treading the corn,
And millions sink down in life's battle

With a sigh for the day they were born.

Swing inward, O gates of the future;
Swing outward, ye doors of the past,
A giant is waking from slumber
And rending his fetters at last.

From the dust where his proud tyrant found him,
Unhonored and scorned and betrayed,
He shall rise with the sunlight around him,
And rule in the realm he has made.

He Fired the Stick.
"I have fired the walking-stick I've carried over 40 years, on account of a sore that resisted every kind of treatment, until I tried Bucklen's Arnica Salve; that has healed the sore and made me a happy man," writes John Garrett, of North Mills, N. C. Guaranteed for Piles, Burns etc., by J. C. Perry druggist. 25c.

His Fatal Mistake.
Fred—So she turned you down, eh?
Joe—Yes. I made the mistake of confessing that my heart was in my mouth when I proposed.

Fred—What had that to do with it?
Joe—Oh, she said she couldn't think of marrying a man whose heart wasn't in the right place.—Chicago News.

Country Boarding House.
"Look here!" exclaimed the disgusted boarder from the city, "the roof leaks."
"Well," laughed the crafty old farmer, "you know you expected shower baths."

"But the hole is so big I can see the stars."
"Very good. That is the 'celestial scenery' I told you about."—Chicago News.
