CHERRY FAIR ENDS.

A Highly Successful and Profitable Meeting.

The big cherry fair is over, and the many visitors will leave for their homes tonight. It was a highly successful meeting, bringing together many of the state's most prominent fruit growers, and demonstrating that the Willamette valley is the greatest cherry country on earth. Much of the success of the meeting was due to the splendid work of those having the affair in charge, and too much praise cannot be given them. It is quite probable the cherry fair has come to stay, and that each succeeding year will find a bigger and better exhibit, of bigger and better cherries. It is undoubtedly true that the interest awakened in cherry culture, by the fair, will bring forth fruits, which will be more cherries.

Bill Nye's Cow.

Bill Nye, the humorist, once had a cow to sell, the story goes, and advertised her as follows: "Owing to my ill health, I will sell at my residence in township 19, range 18, according to the government survey, one plush raspberry cow, age eight years. She is of undoubted courage and gives milk frequently. To a man who does not fear death in any form she would be a great boon. She is very much attached to her present home with a staychain, but she will be sold to any one who will agree to treat her right. She is one-fourth Shorthorn and three-fourths hyena. I will also throw in a double barrel shotgun, which goes with her. In May she usually goes away for a week or two and returns with a tall, red calf with wobbly legs. Her name is Rose. I would rather sell her to a non-resident."
