

THE SUMMER FASHIONS AT SARATOGA

Summer and Bretelle Effects, Light Silks, Foulards, Hats, The New Panama, Tan and White Canvas Shoes, Satin Slippers, Embroidered Belts, Princess Gowns, Parasols

Saratoga is the most independent summer resorts. Everybody wants to spend at least a few days here in order to say that they have been to Saratoga. Jumper dresses, it might be said, are as numerous as "the sands upon the sea shore." Bretelle effects are also classed under this name, and truly smart economies are the result. Plaided silk, arranged in folds, or plain, sometimes connected by fancy cording; passementerie, either open or laced across; black velvet in two bands with a lattice a trimming. Ring and coin spots combined, are exceptionally pretty in a jumper dress, and in this connection, plain silks must not be forgotten, constituting very pretty jumper dresses, trimmed with fancy silk braid. Linens are in especial favor, blue, pink or natural linen, almost all in fancy style, and either the open neck, the e-ton jacket, or the longer shape, the latter trimmed with bands of heavy lace and not unfrequently having a colored vest.

Hats.
Headgear for these pretty dresses is found in the lingerie, the Panama, tied around the crown by a simple scarf with fringed ends, the sailor (which of late has assumed an exaggerated size) with a ribbon or taffeta silk bow at the front, also of undue proportion. The stitched linen hat is used in the morning, and for cool days, gray felts are stylish. The lingerie hat is now a comprehensive term, varying from a simple frilled affair encircled by ribbon with a bow at the front, to those covered by flowers, velvet and lace.

Footwear.
Many fashionists here sport tan

Princess Styles.
Almost every dressy gown worn here is in princess shape, and pale blue or pink silks of a light texture, elaborately trimmed with lace, are lovely for afternoon or evening. But a faint idea of the beauty and variety of lingerie dresses worn here by smart dressers can be conveyed. A very novel one displayed at a large hotel, had sprays of pink silk embroidery on two panels of very fine tucks at the front of the dress. As everyone is neither young nor slender, a pale blue satin gown had the surplus fronts closely braided in gilt, with lace yoke and sleeves, thus giving the other side of the picture. A beautiful accessory is a jacket of considerable length, made throughout of silk braid with a picot edge, and lined and frilled with white chiffon.

Green Parasols.
The green parasol appears upon the scene, only for general use however, and the white embroidered linen still remains foremost in fashion's category. Colors are bright crimson, blue, "crushed strawberry," and above all, hand-embroidered on silk in the gayest hues, yet tempered by artistic blendings.

SOCIAL GOSSIP

Married Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert W. Herren announce the marriage of their daughter, Miss Lela, to Mr. Ivan E. Oakes, on July 10th, at 3 o'clock at the home in Salem. Rev. Barr G. Lee, of the Episcopal church performed the ceremony in the presence of a few friends and the relatives. Mrs. Chauncy Bishop played the wedding music.

Shasta daisies and asparagus as symbols of beauty and grace were artistically arranged in baskets and vases, in every conceivable place. The bride wore her traveling costume of navy blue silk, with trimmings of tan. She is a beautiful and extremely clever young lady, and deservedly popular. She is a native daughter of Oregon and comes of a family well known throughout the state. Mr. Oakes is not so well, but very favorably known here. He was formerly in the office of the state engineer and is now in the reclamation service, and stationed at Zillah, Washington. He is a young man of splendid character and business abilities and the match seems an absolutely perfect one.

The young people left that afternoon for Portland enroute to their new home.

The guests from out of town were Mrs. J. Marcus Freeman, Miss Hazel Reed, Messrs. Harry Cherry and Varnel Beach, of Portland; and Miss Lena Miller, of Albany.

Hale-Korb Wedding.

The marriage of Miss Edith Korb to Mr. Herbert Hale took place on the evening of July 3rd at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Korb in North Salem. Rev. Neff performed the ceremony. The bride wore a pretty costume of brown silk and carried white carnations. The couple stood under a beautiful wedding bell of white flowers. Miss Rose Keshner played the wedding march.

The happy couple will make Salem their home.

Former Salem Girl Weds.

A wedding of interest to many Salem people is that of Miss Bernice Williams to Mr. Harold Clifton Lincoln, of Washington, D. C., which takes place in Boston today. Miss Williams is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Williams formerly of this city but now of Washington and the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Royal of this city. They will make Washington their home.

Weddings Next Week.

Two weddings of much interest to Salem people which are to take place next week, are those of the daughters of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Mitchell, Misses Olive and Jessie, to Mr. Spencer S. Hunt, and Mr. Brague, respectively.

The young ladies are both charming and deservedly popular and the young men are well and favorably known in this city, of excellent character and attainments.

Cross-Wise Wedding.

At the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. Welburn in East Salem, Wednesday evening, July 10, 1907, Miss Laura Wise was united in marriage to Mr. Charles Cross, Rev. F. B. Culver, officiating.

The bride, who is a professional nurse, is well and favorably known here. Mr. Cross is a young man of sterling worth and has many friends both here and at his former home in Oklahoma.

After a shot honeymoon trip to Newport Mr. and Mrs. Cross will be at home in this city to their many friends.

Lawn Party.

Miss Edith Drager pleasantly entertained about twenty of her friends at a lawn party Thursday evening at her home on East State street. The lawn was lighted by Japanese lanterns. Games and music were the amusements of the evening; dainty refreshments were served.

Artisans Entertain.

The United Artisans held their regular monthly open meeting last night in their hall in the Odd Fellows' building, and rendered one of the most delightful amateur musical and literary programs that has been given in the city for some time.

At 8:30 p. m. the spacious hall was alive with Artisans and their invited guests. W. W. Hill presided, and in an appropriate manner paid tribute to the stability of the order of Artisans, and to the beauty of the many ladies present.

The Artisan orchestra, composed of seven pieces, ably assisted by Mr. Robert Savage and Miss Nina Bushnell, rendered the opening number of the program.

Miss Marguerite Ostrander delighted the audience with a reading, which received a hearty encore.

One of the best musical numbers on the program was the vocal solo given by Miss Crissie Clark, who has one of the sweetest voices in Salem. Mr. Frank Churchill played the accompaniment in his usual faultless manner.

The treat of the evening was the readings given by Miss Eugena Snelling. Her rendition of "The May Crap," to use a trite saying, brought down the house. Miss Snelling gracefully responded with a pretty little love story, which ended "In the Usual Way."

Mr. Elmo White favored the audience with an excellent mandolin solo. Miss Joy Turner played the accompaniment and the number was given liberal applause.

A pleasant social hour was spent, when many of the old-time games were played. Refreshments, consisting of punch and wafers were served by the handsome young ladies of the assembly, from booths in the lodge room.

Birthday Party.

Mrs. O. O. McClellan entertained a bevy of little folks yesterday afternoon at her pleasant home on Front street in honor of her little daughter, Alice's, fifth birthday. The afternoon was pleasantly spent in playing juvenile games, after which light refreshments were served, and each little guest was presented with a basket of candy as a souvenir. Mrs. McClellan was assisted in entertaining by Miss Effie Needham, Miss Clay Burrows and Floy Houston.

Those who assisted the little lady in celebrating the anniversary of her arrival were: Elizabeth Bayne, Margaret Livesley, Gertrude Mourer, Dorothy Marsh, Frances Ward, Helen Rose, Marie Rostein, Caroline Holman, Josephine Baumgartner, Lenta Baumgartner, Gretchen Brown, Florence Elgin, Cleo Gatens, Mary Jane Albert, Verna Harvey, Lola Smith, Eugene Houston, Paul Staley, Milton Steiner, Frank Patterson, Malcom Smith and Ralph Hamilton.

Hadsum—I want a good revolver. Dealer—A six-shooter? Hadsum—Better make it a nine-shooter. It is for a cat next door.—Ally Sloper.

Briggs—My wife had a birthday yesterday, and we took a day off. Griggs—When mine has a birthday she takes a year off.—Cassell's Journal.

"Dear Robert, I intend to share all your cares." "But, my pet, I have no cares." "I mean after we are married."—Fliegende Blatter.

"Did I understand you to say that my appearance had improved?" "No, I said you looked more like yourself."—Life.

Visitor (to artist's young wife)—Whatever were you two laughing over so just now? Wife—Oh, it was such fun! My husband painted and I cooked, and then we both guessed what the things were meant for.—Tattler.

First Thespian—And the audience, my boy, you should have seen them. They were glued to their seats. Second Ditto—Ah, a good way of keeping them there.—Bystander.

To Cure Rheumatism

The excessive accumulation of uric acid must be eradicated from the system. Dr. Miles' Nervine used as directed for rheumatism, is alkaline in nature. It neutralizes this acid, and its soothing effect upon the irritated condition of the nerves relieves pain and induces sleep and rest.

"I was suddenly taken with a severe pain in my foot. My physician could not tell what was the trouble. In a few days I had the same trouble with the other foot. I was so crippled that I could scarcely walk and at times I had to crawl on my hands and knees from my bed down stairs. After having my shoes on for an hour or two I could manage to walk by suffering the pain. I suffered more or less all summer, and tried almost everything but got no relief. Then I began to have pains all through my system. My doctor told me I had an acute attack of inflammatory rheumatism. I was in the hospital for weeks, but I was scarcely able to walk when I left it. I read about Dr. Miles' Nervine, bought a bottle and also wrote the Miles Medical Co. for advice. They advised me to add salicylate of soda to the Nervine, and I commenced to get better from the start and for the past six months have scarcely any pain, and am able to walk as well as ever." JAS. H. SANDERS, P. O. Box 5, Rockaway, N. J. Dr. Miles' Nervine is sold by your druggist, who will guarantee that the first bottle will benefit. If it fails, he will refund your money. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind.

"When I was coming home last night," said Miss Skeery, "I saw a man skulking along in the shadow. Oh, how I ran!" "An' couldn't you catch him?" inquired the little brother, innocently.—Cleveland Leader.

The Eldest Hope—Who's that, ma? His Fond Mama—"Ush, 'Orace, that's the gentleman that married me. The Eldest Hope—Then, if that's the gentleman wot married you, wot's pa doing in our house?—The Sketch.

Suburban Host (to unexpected supper guest)—Now then, Miss Hobson, will you have a little of this rabbit pie or—er—or (looking round and discovering there is no other dish)—or not?—The Tattler.

work of very narrow velvet finished with small buttons are all pretty devices and render a plain costume stylish and attractive.

Striped Silks.

These are a "stand-by" for the Saratoga visitor, and are often made with a plain silk band in bretelle fashion on waist (over white fancy waist or yoke) and similar bands trim the kimona sleeves and skirt. Dresses on this order are seen in large numbers, and as some are made of broad stripes and others of hair-line stripes, they are always pleasing.

Foulards.

Dotted foulards are as prominent as striped silks, and the jumper waists is of the material and not of shoes almost all day, others white canvas, and for early morning, a striped canvas shoe showing a jaunty ribbon bow has its share of patronage. Bronze is pretty for afternoon or evening, and black patent leather as well. For hops or entertainments, embroidered or beaded satin slippers are the correct thing. Within a very recent date, belts have sprung into unusual prominence. They are wide or narrow, handsomely embroidered in gay colors, with jeweled or Rhine stone clasps, or are of white or a colored leather studded with steel oval or diamond shaped figures also encircle the slender waists of Saratoga girl visitors, and taken altogether one's belt is an important accessory.
