THE WESTERN "CAYUSE."
Once Flouted Outcast of the Range Is Now "Lionized."
 The Caldwell News says of the uses of the cayuse horse of the west, which is now being "lionized" in eastern cities:
 Five years since all the western railroads demanded prepayment or a good guarantee of freight charges on all range horses from Oregon, Idaho, Nevada, Montana or Utah. This was at a time when it took a pretty fair animal to sell for $30 at the Missouri river. This same animal could be had on the range for $13. About this time Great Britain sent men here to pick up cavalry horses for the Boer war and ever since, the cayuse has been treated with more respect until today he is ranked among the very best animals of the range.
 The Idaho cayuse can work up to 20 years of age and give mighty good service, too. He is at his best at 10. His best remains with him for four or five years. He is an apt pupil and takes his schooling with varied degrees of willingness or wilfulness.
 Unlike the mule is he. No one but a veterinary can tell when a mule is going to kick, but most any one can decide this point for the cayuse, for he carries his sign always with him. If he is going to kick, you know it. Not by any means do they all kick. In his breaking he is frequently ruined, but this is more often the fault of the cayuse man than the cayuse horse. He is misunderstood and maligned and whipped half to death oftentimes when it has not been at all necessary.
 Caldwell is a great shipping point for the cayuse. Ontario just over the Oregon line, is another point where this product of the range is made to take its first railroad ride. In the interior from Caldwell, vast range districts lie open to the cayuse. The ruster comes along and carries away a carload occasionally, but not as of yore. It is too easy to catch a car now by telegraph. The railroads, too, render more service of late in apprehending horse-thieves than they used to.
 The Caldwell draft team nearly always goes to Seattle or Portland, where a first class well-matched and well-broke span will bring from $400 to $500 and a fancy driver that stands between the shafts like a perfect piece of machinery, will bring readily $250 himself and up as high as $400.—East Oregonian.

CURED BY THE SHOCK.
Toper Thought He Had Broken His Leg While in His Cups and Quit.
 Jones, in spite of being a really kindly, honest fellow, with a loving wife, a cozy home and a flourishing young family, was rapidly becoming a slave to drink. Night after night he went home in a state which made his little wife heartsick, until she, with a woman's ready wit, devised a scheme, and with the aid of the family physician gave Jones such a shock that he probably never will drink again, says the New York Press.
 Like all other men, Jones usually lost all recollection of his actions after he had reached a certain period of intoxication. When, five or six weeks ago, he arrived at his home in a fit state for the experiment his wife had him put to bed. As he lay there, dead to the world, the doctor put his right leg into a casing of plaster of paris and splints, taking care to bind them so tightly that when Jones recovered consciousness all sense of feeling would have left the limb.
 It was a pathetic scene, mixed with grim humor, when Jones awoke the next day and was told that in trying to find the keyhole he had fallen down the area and broken his leg. His remorse was augmented by the pressure on his leg, which the doctor took pains to keep alive at each successive dressing, and by the time Jones had been in bed a month all desire for stimulants had left him.
 It is not likely he will drink to excess again, but if he reads this story of his loving wife's new cure for the alcoholic habit he will surely drop that limp which he now affects during his daily walk down Broadway.

Often The Kidneys Are Weakened by Over-Work.
 Unhealthy Kidneys Make Impure Blood.
 It used to be considered that only urinary and bladder troubles were to be traced to the kidneys, but now modern science proves that nearly all diseases have their beginning in the disorder of these most important organs.
 The kidneys filter and purify the blood—that is their work.
 Therefore, when your kidneys are weak or out of order, you can understand how quickly your entire body is affected and how every organ seems to fail to do its duty.
 If you are sick or "feel badly," begin taking the great kidney remedy, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, because as soon as your kidneys are well they will help all the other organs to health. A trial will convince anyone.
 If you are sick you can make no mistake by first doctoring your kidneys. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases, and is sold on its merits by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle of Swamp-Root, by mail free, also a pamphlet telling you how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. Mention this paper when writing to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

Best Medicine in the World for Colic and Diarrhoea.
 "I find Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy to be the best remedy in the world," says Mr. C. L. Carter of Skirum, Ala. I am subject to colic and diarrhoea. Last spring it seemed as though I would die, and I think I would if I hadn't taken Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. I haven't been troubled with it since until this week, when I had a very severe attack and took half a bottle of twenty-five cent size Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and this morning I feel like a new man." For sale by Dr. Stone's Drug Store.

The Dread of Death.
 Granted that it is the will of God that we shall remain on earth and live our appointed lives there, it is essential that mankind should feel the dread of death. Without that dread the world could hardly remain peopled. The dread of death is to the soul what the law of gravity is to the body. It anchors us to the earth. Without that dread to weigh us down and keep us to the globe half mankind would be driven by curiosity, by the love of change, by the dread of ennui, by what Bacon calls "niceness and satiety," to push open the closed door and see what is beyond. Children and a few very happy and easily pleased people might perhaps say they would not explore farther and that they were perfectly content with things as they are.—St. James' Gazette.

Your Liver

A positive cure for Constipation, Dyspepsia and all liver complaints. Mrs. F., Ft. Worth, Texas, writes: "Have used Herbine in my family for years. Words can't express what I think about it. Everybody in my household are happy and well, and we owe it to Herbine. Sold by D. J. Fry."
His Smile.
 Old Hunks (sitting for his photograph)—What are you asking me to look pleasant for? Blame it, ain't I smiling?
 Photographer—Yes, sir; that's why I am asking you to try to look pleasant.—Chicago Tribune.

Take the Postmaster's Word for It.
 Mr. F. M. Hamilton, postmaster at Cherrycreek, Ind., keeps also a stock of general merchandise and patent medicines. He says: "Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy is standard here in my line. It never fails to give satisfaction and we could hardly afford to be without it." For sale by Dr. Stone's Drug Store.

Milk in Turkey.
 In Turkey there is a great consumption of the milk of the buffalo, the common cow, the goat and the ewe, but it is hardly ever used in a natural state. After slow cooling the milk is treated with a ferment taken from the previous day's supply. In a few hours a curd forms which is called yaghour. The preparation is preferred to milk, and it has a pleasant, clean, acid taste and is, of course, nutritious.
