

SOCIAL GOSSIP

tion time for most Salemites here and people are leaving the various summer resorts. To Newport, many to the coast and many on more extended trips. There has been quite a number of informal gayeties on the "Willamette" in the way of boating parties. During the past week three promising weddings have been especially interesting to many Salem people. Tuesday the Mitchell-Hunt, Mitchell-Brague weddings took place at the home of the bride's parents, 1044 Cottage street. Today the wedding of Miss Gertrude Potter, another known young lady took place, the groom being Mr. Dean B. Cromwell of Los Angeles.

Two Pretty Weddings.
One of the leading events of this week were the weddings which took place Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Mitchell and their daughters, Jessie Zella, Olive England, in marriage, the groom to Mr. Charles R. Brague and later to Mr. Spencer S. Hunt. P. S. Knight read the service in the presence of the relatives and intimate acquaintances. The couples attended each other, ceremony of Miss Jessie Mitchell Brague preceding the other. The affair was one of the prettiest most impressive weddings that have taken place in Salem for some time and the simple appointments made it an enjoyable occasion. The gowns were of cream silk de chine, fashioned after the latest princess style, with trimmings of Irish lace and were extremely becoming to the pretty brides. Traveling costumes were of white with chic little hats to match. Mitchell home lends itself well to decorations and on that occasion they were most artistic. Eng-ivy, asparagus fern, margurites and white sweet peas furnished effective material. The bridal corner was arranged in a large double window where caught up in the dainty draperies, pale green in color, bunches of white candy tuft and agas fern. Indian baskets and held the margurites and sweet Hydrangeas in baskets were with charming effect.

The brides have both grown to adulthood here in Salem and have a circle of warm personal friends. The young men are also very popular here. Mr. Hunt is a promising young man full of energy and is only to become a leader in Salem business circles. Mr. Brague is so well known here but during his short residence in the city has many friends. He is recently returned from Pennsylvania where he and his expect to make their home in near future.

Among the guests from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Hunt, Ray and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Mun- of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. ahead, Miss Marjorie Richards, Roy Brague, of Corvallis; Mr. Mrs. A. N. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell, Fred and Allen bell, of Turner; and Dr. Wood h, of Glasgow, Scotland.

Potter-Cromwell Wedding.
The marriage of Miss Gertrude to Mr. Dean B. Cromwell, took place today at noon at the Potter residence, 2031 East State street. The ceremony was performed by Rev. P. S. Knight, assisted by Henry T. Babcock. Rev. Knight performed the ceremony for the bride's parents, who were married in this city many years ago, and Rev. Babcock is pastor of the Presbyterian church of which Miss Potter is active member. The rooms of the Potter residence were prettily decorated with sweet peas, roses and greenery. A large bay window was converted into a vertible bower of verdure by the use of potted plants. In the center of this bower and directly above the bridal couple was suspended a wedding bell of white sweet peas. After the ceremony ribbons attached to this bell were drawn and a shower of rose petals descended on the wedding party.

After the ceremony a buffet luncheon was served in the dining room. Here the decorations were of green and pink, sweet peas and La France roses being used.

The bride wore a becoming costume of white Persian lawn, with dainty trimmings of valenciennes lace. She carried an arm bouquet of Daybreak carnations. There were no attendants. Miss Hama Potter the bride's niece, from Boston, played the wedding music, "Mendelsouh Wedding March."

The bride is a well known Salem girl. She is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Potter and has spent the greater part of her life in this city. She is very popular here and very active in church work. Mr. Cromwell is from Los Angeles, but formerly lived here, and his people are well known among the older residents of this city. They will make Los Angeles their home.

Tice-Hogue Wedding.
The wedding of Miss Gertrude Tice to Mr. Charles Edward Hogue will take place in Baker City at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Storer Tice, on Wednesday, July 31. Mr. Hogue is a well known newspaper man, now of Portland, and Miss Tice is a popular society girl of Baker City.

Guest from Boston.
Among the out of town guests at the Potter-Cromwell wedding were Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Potter, and daughter, Miss Hama, and Miss McNelly, all of Boston. Mr. Potter is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Potter and their western trip was made for the purpose of attending the wedding of his sister, and incidentally seeing the beauties of the Pacific coast.

A Visitor from Scotland.
Dr. Wood Smith, of Glasgow, Scotland, is visiting his son, Mr. A. N. Smith, of Turner, and was in the city last Tuesday attending the Mitchell-Hunt, Mitchell-Brague weddings. Dr. Smith is a celebrated physician, and has traveled extensively. He came here direct from Japan, but the past year he spent in India. He is a gentleman of rare attainments, a brilliant conversationalist and a leader in his profession.

Wedding Anniversary.
Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Barr were delightfully surprised at their home on Asylum avenue last Tuesday evening, when about 25 friends and relatives came in to assist them in celebrating their fifth wedding anniversary. Hearts were played, and a jolly informal occasion it was. Light refreshments were served and the whole affair will remain a pleasant memory for both the "bridal couple" and the guests.

Tompkins-Brown Wedding.
A quiet but very pretty wedding was that of Mary Bell Brown to Daniel D. Thompkins, which took place last Sunday at the home of Mrs. D. C. Minto, sister of the bride. The ceremony was performed by Rev. H. T. Babcock in the presence of a few relatives and intimate friends of the young people. The house was prettily decorated. The parlor, where the ceremony was performed, was in green and white, ocean spray, ferns and Oregon grape being used to carry out the color scheme. Red rambler roses were used effectively in the dining room.

Miss Blanche Brown played the wedding march. Both the contracting parties are very well known in this city, where they have a host of friends. They left for a honeymoon trip to Portland and The Dalles, and after their return will be at home to their friends on North Summer street.
