An ELEPHANTASY

At the end of the road that leads to Jos. Meyers & Sons', style quality and value are always waiting. Grass never grows on the path. It is kept beaten down by people who look for the best goods at right prices.

You are particular—and so are we. Whenever an article goes out of this store we want a satisfied customer to go with it. "Satisfaction" is our trade-mark, and we stamp it in the mind of every patron. There are many theories and policies in business. One is to give standard grades of goods at reasonable prices; we don't know anything about the others.

THE MIDSUMMER STORY NUMBER
THE LADIES' HOME JOURNAL

The Magazine by Which All Others Are Measured

In the magazine world there is always one publication in each class by which all others in the same class are measured. Among women's magazines that one is

The Ladies' Home Journal

Today it stands at the head of women's periodicals, with the largest paid circulation of any magazine in the world. The departments devoted to women's wear, edited by famous specialists in their respective lines, occupy more space than any other features in the magazine.

The Ladies' Home Journal Patterns

are by long odds the best, the most practical and the most up-to-date ever made. Patterns are made for all the styles shown in the magazine. We are agents not only for these patterns but also for the magazine itself. You can buy the current issue of The Ladies' Home Journal in our magazine department at 15 cents, or we will forward your yearly mail subscription to the publishers at $1.50 the year.
