

Will Not Stain Hair

Ayer's Hair Vigor, new improved formula, does not stain or change the color of the hair, even to the slightest degree. If your hair is blond, gray, or even snow-white, Ayer's Hair Vigor, the new kind, will not make it a shade darker. Ask your doctor if this is not so. We publish the formulae of all our preparations. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass.

Not the Real Thing.

Patience—You know the captain, don't you?
Patrice—Oh, yes.
"Do you suppose he was ever in a real engagement?"
"No, only the seashore kind, I guess."—Yonkers Statesman.

HAD AN AWFUL TIME.

But Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy Cured Him. It is with pleasure that I give you this unsolicited testimonial. About a year ago when I had a severe case of measles I got caught out in a hard rain and the measles settled in my stomach and bowels. I had an awful time and had it not been for the use of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy I could not have possibly lived but a few hours longer, but thanks to this remedy I am now strong and well. I have written the above through simple gratitude and I shall always speak a good word for this remedy.—Sam H. Gwin, Concord, Ga. For sale at Dr. Stone's drug store.

For an Impaired Appetite.

To improve the appetite and strengthen the digestion try a few doses of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. Mr. J. H. Seitz of Detroit, Mich., says: "They restored my appetite when impaired, relieved me of a bloating feeling and caused a pleasant and satisfactory movement of the bowels." Price 25 cents. Samples free. For sale at Dr. Stone's drug store.

The Vulgar One.

Cornhill Magazine tells of an Englishwoman of high station who be- wailed to a friend the loss by death of a somewhat ill bred but extremely wealthy neighbor who had been very liberal in his help to her country charities. "Mr. X. is dead," said she. "He was so good and kind and helpful to me in all sorts of ways. He was so vulgar, poor, dear fellow, we could not know him in London, but we shall meet in heaven."

For Sale.

At a bargain, the Candelaria Fruit Farm, situated three-fourths of a mile from the southern limits of the city. One-half mile from electric street car line. One of the finest locations in Marion county. A splendid view of the beautiful Willamette river, Polk county, hills, city of Dallas, Monmouth, Independence and city of Salem, state fair grounds, capitol building, asylum, penitentiary, asylum farm, muts school, reform school, Mts. Jefferson, Hood, Adams, Rainier and St. Helens. A good crop now in the orchard, of cherries, Bartlett pears, peaches and Italian prunes. If sold in the next ten days the crop will go with the sale. This year's crop will more than pay the interest on the investment two years in advance.
J. G. WRIGHT, Agent.

Bond Call.

Notice is hereby given that within thirty days from the date of this notice I will redeem Bond No. 3, Series No. 2, issued by school district No. 17, Grant County, Oregon. If not presented within the date mentioned interest on said bond shall cease.
Dated at Canyon City, Oregon, this 13th day of June, 1907.
N. H. BOLEY, County Treasurer.

The Campaigns of Garibaldi.

People who have never studied his campaigns in detail sometimes ask of Garibaldi, "Was he really a great soldier?" Could anyone but a great soldier have won the kingdom of Sicily and Naples by means of a few thousand ill-armed volunteers from more than 100,000 well-armed regulars, many of whom were brave men and fought hard against him. Moltke himself could no more have won Sicily and Naples on those terms than Garibaldi could have planned Moltke's battle of Sedan. To everyone his own trade. Moltke led disciplined conscript armies counted by scores of thousands; Garibaldi led revolutionary bands counted by hundreds, and the methods of warfare adopted to each were fitted to his material and his task.

With an army of his own making, Garibaldi has no equal in strategy in the open field. He could appear and disappear as he liked, he knew all that the enemy was doing, and the enemy knew nothing of him. But for this strategical genius he could never have effected his entry into Palermo, the decisive operation of his decisive campaign.

His tactics were more simple than his strategy, but no less successful, for in battle he had to attack well-armed hosts with a few ill-armed heroes. It was therefore necessary to rush in and win at once by bayonet charges. No other tactics could have led to anything but disaster. His guiding principle on the battlefield was to lead every difficult charge himself. His men would follow him anywhere, and he would go anywhere, and so by this system they stormed positions militarily impregnable.

A single well-aimed bullet would have knocked this system on the head, but the enemies of Italy thought he had a charmed life, and when they saw him in his old gray cloak coming along straight at them in front of his men they got flurried. I suppose; at any rate, time after time they most miraculously missed him.

The soldier who was always in the thick of the battle was scrupulously and passionately humane both to animals and to the human race. No cruelties of a most cruel enemy could tempt him to reprisals. No military need could compel him to wage war on property or to allow the non-combatant to suffer. He never shot anyone in cold blood except his own soldiers when they pillaged. And thus his revolutionary bands, who might have been expected to be plunderers and slaughterers, set in 1860 a marvelous example of self-restraint to all regular armies. He initiated a new era in revolutionary methods. Till then revolution was associated with violence and coercion with the traditions of the French Jacobin revolution, which was neither better nor worse in these respects than regal tyrannies. Mazzini with his preaching of the true doctrine of liberty, and Garibaldi with his practice of it, gave the world a new idea of revolution, which was connected with real freedom of opinion in religion and politics, and with the most scrupulous humanity.—G. M. Trevelyan in London Leader.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

The Wise Girl.

"Jack Hansom plucked the petals of a daisy for Belle Silley and it came out 'she lov's me.'"
"And did Belle pluck a daisy for him?"
"Not exactly. She turned the leaves of Bradstreet's and it came out 'I love him not.'"—Exchange.

Do You Think For Yourself?

Or do you open your mouth like a young bird and gulp down whatever food or medicine may be offered you?

Do you know an intelligent thinking woman, in need of relief from weakness, nervousness, pain and suffering, then it means much to you that there is one tried and true honest medicine of a new composition sold by druggists for the cure of woman's ills.

The makers of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, for the cure of weak, nervous, run-down, over-worked, debilitated, pain-racked women, knowing this medicine to be made up of ingredients, every one of which has the strongest possible endorsement of the leading and standard authorities of the several schools of practice, are perfectly willing, and in fact, are only too glad to print, as they do, the formula, or list of ingredients, of which it is composed, in plain English, on every bottle-wrapper.

The formula of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription will bear the most critical examination of medical experts, for it contains no alcohol, narcotics, harmful, or habit-forming drugs, and no agent enters into it that is not highly recommended by the most advanced and leading medical teachers and authorities of their several schools of practice. These authorities recommend the ingredients of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription for the cure of exactly the same ailments for which this world-famed medicine is advised.

No other medicine for woman's ills has any such professional endorsement as Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription has received, in the unqualified recommendation of each of its several ingredients by scores of leading medical men of all the schools of practice. Is such an endorsement not worthy of your consideration?

A booklet of ingredients, with numerous authoritative professional endorsements by the leading medical authorities of this country, will be mailed free to any one sending name and address with request for same. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.
