committee reported that the concrete bridge would probably be finished during next week.

A fourteen days vacation was ordered to be allowed to the city marshal, recorder, and all members of the fire police and street departments.

A motion to employ a surveyor to survey and establish the center of East State street, preparatory to the improvement of the street was passed.

SMILES

For good "old Oregon" sake, 't is time to dig up Jefferson Myers and run him for governor along with Joaquin Miller for United States senator.

Frederick Weyerhaeuser, the multimillionaire, occupies a full page interview in the Sunday papers to prove that he "is a man of few words."

Salem can't get as good a thing as city government by commission. We shall hobble along in the old way, two years and a half building a little herring box of a bridge that ought not take three months to construct.

For the office of bank examiner it is assumed that a candidate for appointment must have had considerable experience at banking.

Some of the men in the employ of the Harriman system would never have discovered that there was anything behind time in their service here but for the unmerciful jabbing they have been getting from the press, the commission, and the legislature.

President Kerr of the Agricultural college actually knows something about scientific agriculture. He knows little or nothing about practical politics, but a heap about the poultry industry, stock-raising and rotation of crops.

All it takes to be a political success is lots of hand-shaking, hot-air, fawning, and flattery. If you have opinions or ability carefully conceal the possession.

"Do you have many births in this town?" asked the visitor of the native.

"Quite a few every night," replied Hi Holler as he continued whittling.

"Then your population must be increasing quite rapidly," said the visitor.

"Not very," replied Hi, winking at the crowd.

Whereat the village cut-ups laughed uproariously. — Wilwaukee Sentinel.
