WHO BIDES HIS TIME.

Who bides his time, and day by day
Faces defeat full patiently,
And lifts a mirthful roundelay,
However poor his fortunes be—
He will not fall in any quailm
Of poverty; the paltry dime
It will grow golden in his palm,
Who bides his time.

Who bides his time, he tastes the sweet
Of honey on the saltiest tear,
And though he fares with slowest feet,
Joy runs to meet him, drawing near;
The birds are heralds of his cause,
And like a never-ending rhyme,
The roadsides bloom in his applause,
Who bides his time.

Who bides his time, and fevers not
In the hot race that none achieves,
Shall wear cool-wreathen laurel wrought
With crimson berries in the leaves;
And he shall reign a goodly king,
And sway his hand o'er every clime,
With peace writ on his signet ring,
Who bides his time.

MUSIC AND DRAWING.

The report of City Supt. Powers to the Salem board of education should be carefully read by all parents and friends of the public schools.
He makes strong presentation of the value of vocal music and drawing
AS ESSENTIAL IN THE DEVELOPMENT OF CHILDREN.

Those who attended the sessions of the State Teachers' association held at Salem will recall the address of the Tacoma city superintendent.

He showed how the emotional nature of the child is reached through music, and that singing was a means of discipline and LED TO GOOD ORDER AND THE MORAL DEVELOPMENT OF THE CHILD.

The refining influence of music need not be argued. It is needed in these days of animal manifestations through athletics.

Drawing leads the child to the door of art. Drawing says you have creative powers and I will awaken them.

Elementary music and drawing can only be introduced by having competent instructors in these lines.

The report of the city superintendent should have the earnest attention of the board of education.

THE CITY SHOULD AWAKEN.

There is still an opportunity to break the embargo on public improvements and put this city on the list of progressive communities.

It will make all the difference in the world whether the city begins to pave this year, OR WAITS ANOTHER YEAR TO BEGIN TO START TO COMMENCE.

Gentlemen of the city council, slay the dragon of mossbackism while the animal is on the run. Do not be dictated to by his lieutenants any longer.

The agents and stalking horses of the dragon are the cheapest kept animals alive. THEY LIVE ON THE CRUMBS FROM THE DRAGON'S TABLE.

The few men left in the community to fight the corporations and fight the development of the city never invest a dollar in anything.

While Eugene and Corvallis are paving streets, and raising subsidies to build new railroads, we listen to the siren song of the objector AND
THE DISMAL WAIL OF THE OBSTRUCTOR.

While cities like Pendleton and Walla Walla have paved streets by the mile, have street cleaning plants, and sprinkling the streets even into the suburbs, we are dragging along in dirt and dust.

The city should awaken to the cold facts, that the hold-up game is a cruel device to put our community on the bum, and should be crushed.

THE FAMILY RELATION.

In a recent divorce case in this country it was brought out that the husband and wife, while apparently still on the most amicable terms, deliberately sat down and MADE OUT AN AGREEMENT AS TO THE DIVISION OF PROPERTY TO BE MADE SHOULD THEY EVER BE DIVORCED, WHICH AGREEMENT WAS RATIFIED AND MADE OF RECORD WHEN THE DIVORCE ACTUALLY TOOK PLACE.

No clearer evidence of degeneracy and social rottenness ever brought disgrace on an American community.

The disgrace lies in the fact that there is no effective public opinion to restrain a man and a woman, presumably of apparent respectability and moving in decent society, from contemplating the marriage relation as that man and woman must have contemplated it, as a tie to be broken at pleasure, and, in fact, quite likely to be broken.

It does not disgrace a community that occasionally one of its members goes wrong.

It is a disgrace that a couple who are necessarily products, and presumably normal products, of their environment should conclude such an agreement at such a time and be willing to confess it.

And so far as appears it elicited no comment from the judge who granted the divorce.

The occurrence seems to have got into the press dispatches, not as a shocking example but simply on its merits as a novelty.

The certainty with which divorce can be anticipated if desired by either party, the ease and little loss with which it can be obtained, the facilities for remarriage and the assurance of no loss of standing in most social circles is a direct temptation to the loose-minded to recklessly enter into the marriage relation with no particular intent to retain it any longer than is agreeable to a vagrant fancy.

The appalling and rapidly increasing number of divorces shows the readiness with which men and women yield to the temptation or the recklessness with which they enter upon marital relations which can be quickly broken at the whim of either party.

The facility with which divorce can be obtained is a direct inducement to turn matrimonial ties into serious quarrels leading to separation and the formation of new ties—perhaps equally evanescent.

It is not necessary for a lover of his kind to regard marriage as a sacrament in order to be shocked at the increasing disregard of its obligation of permanence.

It is all evidence of degeneracy which has invariably preceded a social cataclysm in which a corrupt civilization has been overwhelmed and a degraded people has perished from the earth.

If it be said that the North has no more stern forests from which there may issue sturdy and virtuous avengers of corruption, the reply is that Nature has never yet lacked the means or the instruments for the extermination of the corrupt and unfit and is never likely to lack them.

A putrid civilization may disintegrate through the natural processes of its own vices working within it.

OUR CIVILIZATION IS NOT ROTTEN, BUT IT HAS MANY DEEP SORES OF WHICH NONE IS MORE DANGEROUS THAN DISREGARD OF THE MARRIAGE TIE.

IN HUMAN SOCIETY THE FAMILY IS THE UNIT AND THERE IS NO OTHER UNIT WHICH CAN BE THE BASIS OF ANY ORGANIZED CIVILIZATION OF WHICH WE CAN CONCEIVE.

When the man and the wife and the children born of their union cease to cling to each other, the atomic constitution of humanity is destroyed and society is dissolved into elemental chaos.
In the sanctity and permanence of the marriage relation rests all the hope which humanity can have of rational happiness and prosperity in this world or fitness for happiness in a world to come.

HAD AN AWFUL TIME.

But Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera
and Diarrhoea Remedy Cured Him.
It is with pleasure that I give you this unsolicited testimonial. About a year ago when I had a severe case of measles I got caught out in a hard rain and the measles settled in my stomach and bowels. I had an awful time and had it not been for the use of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy I could not have possibly lived but a few hours longer, but thanks to this remedy I am now strong and well. I have written the above through simple gratitude and I shall always speak a good word for this remedy.

Croup

Is a violent inflammation of the mucous membrane of the wind pipe, which sometimes extends to the larynx and bronchial tubes; and is one of the most dangerous diseases of children. It almost always comes on in the night. Give frequent small doses of Ballard's Horehound Syrup and apply Ballard's Snow Liniment externally to the throat. 25c, 50c

erly. J. B. Vaughn Elba, Ala., writes:
"Being a constant sufferer from constipation and a disordered liver, I have found Herbine to be the best medicine, for these troubles, on the market. I have used it constantly I believe it to be the best medicine of its kind, and I wish all sufferers from these troubles to know the good Herbine has done me." Sold by D.

Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy Better Than Three Doctors.

"Three years ago we had three doctors with our little boy and everything that they could do seemed in-vain. At last when all hope seem'd to be gone we began using Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and in a few hours he began to improve. Today is as healthy a child as parents could wish for."

General Debility

Day in and day out there is that feeling of weakness that makes a burden of itself.
Food does not strengthen.
Sleep does not refresh.
It is hard to do, hard to bear, what should be easy,—vitality is on the ebb, and the whole system suffers.
For this condition take

Hood's Sarsaparilla

It vitalizes the blood and gives vigor and tone to all the organs and functions.

The Limit of Life.

The most eminent medical scientists are unanimous in the conclusion that the generally accepted limitation of human life is many years below the attainment possible with the advanced knowledge of which the race is now possessed. The critical period, that determines its duration, seems to be between 50 and 60; the proper care of the body during this decade cannot be too strongly urged; carelessness then being fatal to longevity. Nature's best helper after 50 is Electric Bitters, the scientific tonic medicine that revitalizes every organ of the body. Guaranteed by J. C. Perry, druggist, 50c.
