The Taming of the Shrew.

In Persia a wealthy man will often have a friend of whose society he is fond living in the house with him. Abdullah was such a friend to Aly Khan, a very wealthy and influential merchant of Ispahan, who was delighted with his charm and cleverness, and so pleased with his services that he thought he would make a very good son-in-law, and suggested him as such to his beautiful daughter. She was very overbearing and had-tempered, but, thinking that Abdullah was very good looking, she agreed to it. They were married. Soon his friends came to congratulate him, among them Housseyn, who was known to have a very overbearing and bad-tempered wife. He said, "I congratulate you on your marriage,' 'and then he asked the bridea bad temper?" "I assure you that charges. she is perfectly charming, and that I am perfectly happy." AILING WOMEN

How Many Perfectly Well Women Do You Know?

"I am not feeling very well," "I am so nervous it seems as though I should fly." "My back aches as though it would break."

How often do you hear these significant expressions from women friends. More than likely you speak the same words yourself, and there is a cause.

More than thirty years ago Lydia E. Pinkham of Lynn, Mass, discovered the source of nearly all the suffering endured by her sex. "Woman's Ills," these two words are full of more misery to women than any other two words that can be found in the English language. Sudden fainting, depression of spirits, reluctance to go anywhere, backaches, headaches, nervousness, sleeplessness, bearingdown sensations, displacements and irregularities are the bane of woman's existence.

The same woman who discovered the cause of all this misery also discovered a remedy. Lydla E. Pink-ham's Vegetable Compound made from native roots and herbs holds the record for a greater number of absolute cures of female ills than any other one remedy the world has ever suffering women.

known and it is the greatest blessing which ever came into the lives of Don't try to endure, but cure the cause of all your suffering. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound at once removes such troubles. The following letters prove this:

Mrs. W. S. Ford of 1938 Lansdowner St., Baltimore, Md. writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham;-Dear Mrs. Pinkham;—
"For four years, my life was a misery teme. I suffered from irregularities, suppression, terrible dragging sensations and extreme nervousness. I had given up all hope of ever being well again when Lydia.
E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was recommended. It cured my weakness and made me well and strong."

ade me well and strong. Miss Grace E. Miller, of 1213 Michigan St., Buffalo, N. Y. writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham :—
"I was in a very bad condition of health generally; irritable, cross, backache and suffered from a feminine weakness. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, curse me after all other medicines had failed."

What Lydia E. Pinkham's Vege-table Compound did for Mrs. Ford and Miss Miller it will do for other women in like condition. Every suffering woman in the United States is asked to accept the following invitation. It is free, will bring you health and may save your life.

Mrs. Pinkham's Invitation to Women-

Women suffering from any form of female weakness are invited to promptly communicate with Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. From the symptoms given, the trouble may be located and the quickest and surest way of recovery advised. Out of her vast volume of experience in treating female ills Mrs. Pinkham probably has the very knowledge that will Her advice is free help your case. and always helpful.
