Band Concert—

At the skating rink tonight from 8 to 12, and every evening during state fair.

New Bank for Gervais—

The Gervais State Bank is the name of the new money lending institution which will open Monday in Gervais. The bank is owned by local capital, and is capitalized at $10,000, which is fully subscribed. The officers of the institution are: A. Tanzler, president; Harrison Jones, vice-president; Joseph Nathman, cashier. William Clark and Jacob Bigman, who were formerly residents of this city, are on the board of directors.

Skating! Skating! —

At the auditorium rink tonight. Two sessions. Band music at both sessions, and every night during the state fair.

Fined $5 for Assault—

Charles Rogers, an employe of the Sam Jones hop yard, on Mission Bottom, was yesterday afternoon brought before Justice Webster on a charge of assault and battery, on complaint of H. Mason, the head drier at the yard, and fined $5. Rogers is said to be a Portland man, and has for several seasons been employed as foreman of the Jones hop yard, and this season hired all his help in Portland, to the exclusion of the many local people who applied for employment. Mason and Rogers, in discussing this phase of the labor question, became involved in a heated argument, which terminated in Rogers grasping Mason by the neck and attempting to strike him.

S. B. Catterlin & Co. Win Suit—

S. B. Catterlin & Co. were yesterday given a judgment against Chas. Walker and Elizabeth Walker, in Justice Webster's court, by a jury. This suit was brought by S. B. Catterlin & Co. against the Walkers to obtain a judgment for $100, which was claimed to be due the plaintiffs as commission on the sale of the Walker property, east of this city. The defendants refused to pay the commission on the grounds that it was not through any efforts of the real estate firm that the property was sold. The jury, after being out a short time, returned a verdict for $100 in favor of the plaintiffs.

More Oregon Corn—

Some people who think Oregon is not a corn country will certainly be disillusionized if the present stream of specimens of field corn keep coming to the Salem Board of Trade. Today three more samples of unusual excellence have been added to the collection. They are from Gus Frenard, Fred Flubacker and Breeze Gibson. No finer samples of corn can be produced, even in the corn belt of the Middle states, and anyone who has any doubts whatever about good corn growing and maturing in Oregon should see these various displays.

Will Attend St. Helens' Hall—

Two of Salem's prettiest and most popular young ladies, Miss Ellen Thelens and Miss Barbara Durbin, left yesterday for Portland, where they will register for a special course in St. Helens' Hall.

A Long Run—

The horse of W. D. Wheeler, the North Salem grocer, when his master left the wagon in the vicinity of Chemawa last evening to deliver some groceries, took advantage of the opportunity, and was soon enveloped in a cloud of dust, traveling Salemward. It maintained a three-minute gait until the Wheeler home was reached, when it quietly turned into a shed. Further than a few broken eggs, there was no damage.

Thirteen Guests in the City Jail—

The number of boarders at Willey Moore's hotel, at the city hall, this morning reached the number of 13, and the prospects are that it will be "23" before fair week is over. The following are those who arrived last night: William Sheridan, drunk, registered for two and a half days; T. White, intoxicated and resisting an officer, and he will not be able to attend the fair until Thursday, as he has secured accommodations at the city hall for five days; Robert English, drunk and disorderly, two and a half days. Three Japanese were taken in last evening, after they had engaged in a pugilistic encounter among themselves on Ferry street. The three diminutive gentlemen gave their names as S. Shimohara, Y. Rirido and H. Holoff. Messrs. Shimohara and Rirido, who got the greatest damage in the row, also got the largest fine, $10 each, while "as-

Don't Neglect Your Eyes

The time is now approaching when your eyes need attention. The evenings are short and to strain your eyes may result fatally in the end, if neglected.

School children's eyes should be looked after before starting them to school. Those wearing glasses should have them examined to see if they are still correct. Don't delay, and see Salem's best eyesight specialist.

pirate and vowels" got $5, but they won't get the money.

Miss Elma Weller—

Will receive pupils in piano and the "Dunning System of Music Study for Beginners." Miss Weller is a graduate under Emil L. Winkler, of Leipzig, Germany, also of Carrie L. Dunning, of Buffalo, New York, and pupil of Robert Tolmie, of San Francisco, the two last named being direct pupils of Leschetizky, the great Vienna instructor. Studio 475 Liberty street. Phone 1351.

To Attend Funeral—

George Rambo left last evening for Albany, where he will attend the funeral of his daughter-in-law, the late Mrs. Mae Rambo, who died at the Albany hospital Wednesday. Mr. Rambo will accompany the remains to Catlin, Washington, where the burial will take place.

Rader Will Be Here—

Harry K. Spaulding, the manager of the Willamette University football team, in speaking to a Journal reporter this morning concerning the report that has been given out that Ralph Rader, the well-known athlete, would attend the Pullman college, in Washington, this year, said: "I just received a letter the other day from Mr. Rader, in which he said he would be in Salem soon to register for the year's work in the University here."

Car of Paint Clay Arrives—

A carload of color-bearing clay arrived yesterday from the paint mine of the Oregon Sienna Company, which is located in Lane county. The clay is being unloaded at the paint factory on Trade street, and among the colors are two newly discovered clays, one a bright green and one a grey, which are valuable acquisitions to the various tinted materials owned by the company.

No Non-Union Musicians—

It is reported that the Portland musical union has objected to any of its members filling the state fair engagement if non-union men are engaged. This will necessitate the employing of all union men, which will materially increase the expense to the management of the band.

Albany Pioneer Dead—

J. B. Comley, one of Albany's pioneer residents, died at his home in Albany Thursday night. He was 84 years of age, and had resided in Albany over half a century.
