LEAD, KINDLY LIGHT.

Lead, kindly light, amid the encircling gloom,
 Lead Thou me on;
 The night is dark and I am far from home,
 Lead Thou me on;
 Keep Thou my feet, I do not ask to see
 The distant scene; one step's enough for me.

I was not ever thus, nor prayed that Thou
 Should'st lead me on;
 I loved to choose and see my path, but now
 Lead Thou me on;
 I loved the garish day, and, spite my fears,
 Pride ruled my will. Remembered not past years.

So long Thy power has blessed me sure it still
 Will lead me on
 O'er moor and fen, o'er crag and torrent till
 The night is gone;
 And with the morn those angel faces smile,
 Which I have loved long since, and lost a while.

Meanwhile, along the narrow, rugged path,
 Thyself has trod,
 Lead, Savior, lead me home in child-like faith,
 Home to my God.
 To rest forever after earthly strife
 In the calm light of everlasting life.

—Cardinal Newman.

IN MAN'S ATTIRE.

New Zealand shows an inclination to throw off her swaddling clothes. No wonder. The recent meeting of colonial premiers in London did much to put the colonists out of conceit with the idea that the people of Great Britain care very much about them except commercially.

The complete turning down of all propositions looking to a federation which would give the colonies a status that would invite more consideration has deepened the impression in all the colonies that THE BEST WAY TO SECURE THE RESPECT AND APPRECIATION OF HOME GOVERNMENT IS TO COMPEL IT, by taking a firm stand on the tariff and other matters which distinguish a self-governing people in choosing a name which gives notice to the world that they are such peoples and are no longer in leading strings.

PHILIPPINE TRADE.

Congressman Hull of Iowa freed his mind the other day about several things, and among others the nonsense about "self-government" for the Philippines.

He said, and said truly, says the San Francisco Chronicle, that the Filipinos would not be fit for self-government in 50 years, and if he had said a hundred years it would have been just as correct.

That is not to say that if let alone the Filipinos would not set up some kind of a government.

It would not, however, be "self-government."
 It would be a despotism of some kind and very likely "a despotism tempered by assassination."

No oriental people ever has had, or is ever likely to have, any conception of free government as we understand it, or any capacity for carrying it on.

The orientals are temperamentally unfit for such government, and until their nature is wholly changed it is cruelty to try to force it upon them.

CONGRESSMAN HULL DECLARED NOT ONLY THAT WE SHOULD NEVER GIVE THE FILIPINOS SELF-GOVERNMENT, BUT THAT WE SHOULD KEEP THE ISLANDS AND GOVERN THEM OURSELVES.

It is certain that a great many Americans could be easily found who would utterly disagree with Congressman Hull as to the probability of our keeping the islands unless some one should try to take them away from us; but no honest man will dispute the logic or the justice of his farther remark that since we shall keep them we are in duty bound to treat them as Americans and abolish all tariff walls between us.

NOT TO DO THAT IS TO MERCILESSLY OPPRESS THEM.

WE HAVE TAKEN FROM THEM THE SPECIAL MARKETS WHICH THEY HAD AND HAVE GIVEN THEM NO OTHERS.

THEY ARE WORSE OFF UNDER OUR GOVERNMENT THAN THEY WERE UNDER THE GOVERNMENT OF SPAIN.

They are industrially far less prosperous and we are so strong that they cannot shake off our yoke.

They did not ask to be governed by us.
 On the contrary they resisted us as long as they could.

We have trampled on them as ruthlessly as Rome ever trampled on a subject nation, and have been guilty, after their subjection, of deliberate and continuous oppression such as no Roman emperor ever dreamed of.

WHEN ROME HAD ONCE CONQUERED A COUNTRY IT DID NOT DISCRIMINATE AGAINST IT IN TRADE.

IT PERMITTED THE PEOPLE A FREE CHANCE TO EARN THEIR LIVING. WE DO NOT.

We suppose that no one will accuse the "Chronicle" of any lack of faithfulness and vigor in upholding the doctrine of protection to American industries, but neither shall there be any opportunity to accuse us of supporting a policy of national dishonor and greedy and atrocious selfishness.

For the purposes of protection as we understand and support it every man is an American who is governed by the American congress—and nobody else.

If we will not treat the Filipinos, commercially, as Americans, our own interests, the interests of the Filipinos and the interests of common national decency demand that we clear out of the islands and allow them to work out their own destiny.

Hood's Sarsaparilla

Has surpassed all other medicines, in merit, sales and cures.

Its success, great as it has been, has apparently only just begun.

It has received by actual count more than 40,000 testimonials in two years.

It purifies the blood, cures all blood diseases, all humors and all eruptions.

It strengthens the stomach, creates an appetite and builds up the whole system.

It cures that tired feeling and makes the weak strong.

In usual liquid form or in chocolate tablets known as Sarsatabs. 100 doses at.

IOWA'S RECALL PLAN

The most important, and perhaps the most startling innovation, is the safeguard known as the recall, designed for the purpose of placing all officials within the absolute control of the people.

Although officials composing the governing board are elected for a definite term of two years, yet under this provision of the "Des Moines plan," their continuation in office is at all times subject to the will of a majority of the electors. The history of practically every city is disgraced with names of officers who have proven un mindful of the trust imposed in them, and who could not be removed before the expiration of their term of office.

Under this provision of the new charter, such a situation could be met by a prompt recall of the offending member. A petition signed by 25 per cent of the voters, and stating in general terms charges of incompetency or dishonesty, would be filed with the city clerk. The offending or guilty official would then, without further delay, be required to stand for re-election with any other candidate whom the people choose to nominate, and the one receiving the highest number of votes will be the officer for the remainder of the term.

This recall feature of the law will undoubtedly have a tendency to keep public officials in the straight and narrow path of their duty, ever faithful to the trust of their constituents. The highest form of democratic government is not attained by electing a multiplicity of city officials, each official to act as a check upon the other, but popular liberty is more certain of attainment where fewer officials are elected and the proper facilities are made for impressing upon these officials the popular will, and making them responsible to the whole people for the execution of that will.

The desirability of having the membership of the governing board made up of the strongest men of the city has not been overlooked by the framers of the "Des Moines plan." Not only have they made the office one of honor and opportunity, attractive to the honest and capable of every community, but they have so changed the manner of choice that the election of this type of men is less difficult, and the election of politicians without business ability less possible.

The primary, as well as the election, has been made non-partisan, so that candidates can no longer depend for their election upon party affiliations, but must go before the people upon their own merits.

Ward lines have been removed, and with the people voting at large, the evils of ward politics are abolished, electors are freer in recording their choice of candidates, and the business man is better able to secure his election without stopping to the low practices of the politician.

The new charter certainly has an inviting appearance, especially from the view point of theory, yet it remains for the citizens of Des Moines to demonstrate that its provisions are as practical in operation as they are beautiful in theory.

Des Moines, a city of 100,000 people, offers a good field in which to try the plan; she is entering upon a most interesting and instructive experiment in government reform, and the eyes of the American municipalities are upon her, hoping that the "Des Moines plan" will prove a practical system, under which the public affairs of our cities can be wisely and economically administered.—Sidney J. Wilson in National Magazine.

Had Tetter for Thirty Years.

I have suffered with tetter for 30 years and have tried almost countless remedies with little, if any relief. Three boxes of Chamberlain's Salve cured me. It was a torture. It breaks out a little sometimes, but nothing to what it used to do.—D. H. Beach, Midland City, Ala. Chamberlain's Salve is for sale at Dr. Stone's drug store.

Tufts Wants Lid On.

Rev. Tufts, who is in Portland, en route to California, says he will make a fight in that state for the passage of a Sunday rest law. He declares that he will endeavor to close the saloons, stores, theatres, baseball and amusements of all kinds. The law will be made more stringent than the one now in force in the state of Idaho. He says there is no religion connected with the movement, but that it is merely to compel the proper observance of the "day of rest."

CURE YOUR KIDNEYS.

Do Not Endanger Life When a Salem Citizen Shows You the Cure.

Why will people continue to suffer agonies of kidney complaint, blackache, urinary disorders, lameness, headaches, languor, why allow themselves to become chronic invalids, when a certain cure is offered them?

Doan's Kidney Pills is the remedy to use, because it gives to the kidneys the help they need to perform their work.

If you have any, even one, of the symptoms of kidney diseases, cure yourself now, before diabetes, dropsy or Bright's disease sets in. Read this Salem testimony:

L. W. Hill, of 328 Front St., Salem, Or., says: "Doan's Kidney Pills are not a new remedy to me as I have used them on different occasions whenever the necessity has arisen. I have enjoyed the best of health all my life except for a touch of kidney trouble at times. Backache bothered me then and when this has been the case I have gotten Doan's Kidney Pills at Stone's drug store and a few doses have eradicated the trouble. I am a firm believer of this remedy and know of several other people who have used it with good results. I am only too pleased to recommend Doan's Kidney Pills whenever the opportunity occurs."
