"Caraboo"

An Indian Love Idyl.
2 PERFORMANCES NIGHTLY.
10c and 20c

An Exception.
Boroughs—Well, well, here it is past midsummer. How times does fly, to be sure!
Markley—Not always. For instance, the "day or two" in which you promised to return that "ten-spot" are taking over a month to pass.—Philadelphia Press.

Lame Back.
This is an ailment for which Chamberlain's Pain Balm has proven especially valuable. In almost every instance it affords prompt and permanent relief. Mr. Luke LaGrange of Orange, Mich., says of it: "After using a plaster and other remedies for three weeks for a bad lame back, I purchased a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm, and two applications effected a cure." For sale at Dr. Stone's drug store.

Sneaked.
"What side do you generally take when your wife gets in an argument with somebody else?"
"Outside. It's safer."—Milwaukee Sentinel.

General Robert E. Lee
Was the greatest general the world has ever known. Ballard's Snow Liniment is the greatest Liniment. Quickly cures all pains. It is within the reach of all. T. H. Pointer, Hempstead, Texas, writes: "This is to certify that Ballard's Snow Liniment has been used in my household for years and has been found to be an excellent Liniment for rheumatic pains. I am never without it." Sold by D. J. Fry.

After the Honeymoon.
"Do you remember the first time you ever saw me?"
"Very well."
"What did you think?"
"I thought it was a pity you had no friend who was kind enough to tell you how unbecoming your hat was."—Chicago Record-Herald.

An Ounce of Prevention
Is worth a pound of cure. There are many poor sufferers, consumptives who are hopeless of getting well—who, if they had taken care of themselves, would now be well. A cough is the foundation of consumption. Ballard's Horehound Syrup will cure that cough. Mrs. S., Great Falls, Montana, writes: "I have used Ballard's Horehound Syrup in my family for years—my children never suffer with coughs." Sold by D. J. Fry.

Cheer up! There is a silver lining to every cloud!
"Well, what good is that? I haven't got an airship."—Pick-Me-Up.

Can you afford to trifle with so serious a matter as to neglect a bad cold or cough, when for a trifling amount you can secure a bottle of "Hickory Bark Cough Remedy," that is guaranteed to cure or money refunded. Price 25c, 50c and $1.00 per bottle. For sale by all dealers everywhere.

The Lid.
Knicker—Back from Saratoga?
Bocker—Yes; the only gambling allowed is buying cantaloupes.—New York Sun.

Sick Headache.
This disease is caused by a derangement of the stomach. Take a dose of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets to correct this disorder and the sick headache will disappear. For sale at Dr. Stone's drug store.

Changed Conditions.
Madge—Miss Prim is always looking under the bed.
Marjorie—She would be more likely to find a man if she looked under an auto.—Smart Set.

The old Pennsylvania Dutch Dunkard recommends "Hickory Bark Cough Remedy." Guaranteed to cure your cough, and guaranteed to be pure. Made from the bark of the shell bark or white hickory tree. For sale by dealers everywhere.

Inconsistency.
Judge (in the law courts, during a divorce case, to the husband)—Well, what is it you wish?
Husband—A divorce.
Judge (to the wife)—And you? Wife—A divorce.
Judge—But when you came in you said that neither of you could ever agree on any one point.—Nos Loisirs.

"Regular as the Sun" is an expression as old as the race. No doubt the rising and setting of the sun is the most regular performance in the universe, unless it is the action of the liver and bowels when regulated with Dr. King's New Life Pills. Guaranteed by J. C. Perry, Druggist, 25c.

Seeking Vindication.
Mrs. Diggs—You know Mrs. Weeds, who is said to have driven her late husband to drink, don't you?
Mrs. Biggs—Yes; what of her?
Mrs. Diggs—It is rumored that she is going to marry a temperance lecturer in order to vindicate herself.—Exchange.

"Our Hiram's writin' agin from Harvard," said Farmer Richey, "fur more money fur books."
"Air ye sure he really wants that money fur books, Silas?" asked his wife.
"Yaas, he sez he'll take his oath every cent I send him goes to the bookmakers."—Philadelphia Press.

A MOONLIGHT TRAGEDY.

And Beautiful Moving Pictures at the Klinger Grand. Automobile thieves at the Klinger Grand created a big sensation last evening. The most wonderful picture film that has yet been presented by the management of this cozy little theatre. In conjunction with the above feature there are several others, which deserve mention, including the beautiful scenic production of "Caraboo," a moonlight tragedy. The excellent bill was enjoyed by large and appreciative audiences, showing the Salem public, after a week of fair excitement, have an appreciation for good continuous vaudeville. Two performances each evening, also usual matinee Saturday.

The $10,000 Beauty.
The $10,000 beauty at the Grand Opera house last night was undervalued. Her face was such that that sum was offered anyone who would marry her, but all who saw her refused the money, and were heartily applauded by the audience for doing so. The chorus of eight pretty little girls was all right. They were one and all dainty, graceful little figures, and were well drilled. The singing was far from being first-class, and the male members of the troupe were nearly the limit. The German character was reasonably well taken, though the stunts and gags were infringements on a copy-right taken out by Ham when he left the ark. The Jew had an Irish brogue, and the Irishman talked like a down East Yankee. The costumes were pratty, and the drill by the chorus, under changing colored lights were all that could be desired. There is no play and no plot, but a medley of songs and short stunts. The house was small, as Salem has been "going some" for the past week and has not recovered from the state fair.

Will Speak in McMinnville.
Governor Chamberlain left last evening for McMinnville, where he will deliver an address at the school fair which is being held in that city. The governor will return this evening.

The Texas Wonder.
Cures' all kidney, bladder and rheumatic troubles; sold by all druggists, or two months' trial treatment by mail for $1.00. Dr. E. W. Hall, 2926 Olive street, St. Louis, Mo. Send for testimonials. Sold by Stone's drug store.

NATE TUMBLED TO HIMSELF.
Also to Almost Everything Else in the Vicinity.

N. D. Elliott, the job printer, is not working today, having other things to attend to, the principal one of which is to put arnica on his feet, and side and elbows and legs and around in spots wherever handy, and sit around and ruminate upon the uncertainties of some things, especially alighting from street cars. He went home last night, directly from the office, so that any insinuations are uncalled for and out of place, and, besides, Nate doesn't drink. However, his mind had evidently not got loose from the office entirely, as he was probably thinking of job work, flat-cap, fat takes, pick-ups and things of that kind, and as the car came in front of his place he didn't wait for it to stop, but stepped off. He is not quite certain yet whether he stepped off head-foremost, or that he tried a high dive. He remembers, though, that he was uncertain as to which end of him ought to be ahead, and so turned over endwise several times before he concluded to lie still and figure it out. He was able to carry the remains into the house himself, and today answered the horse editor's tender inquiries as to his condition in a tone of voice that showed a truly Christian spirit, or else an awfully sore body—mayhap both. He will recover.

GRANGE RESOLUTIONS.
Favor Parcel Post, But Don't Like U. of O. Appropriation.

Harmony Grange No. 23, P. of H., at a rec at meeting, passed the following resolutions:

"Hall of Harmony Grange No. 23, P. of H., in regular session assembled, September 21, 1907:

Whereas, The supreme court of the state of Oregon has handed down a decision upholding the legality of the referendum petitions on $125,000 annual appropriation for the State University of Oregon, and

Whereas, As we learn that the friends of the appropriation have organized to carry on the campaign so as to secure the appropriation at the polls June next, therefore be it

Resolved, That this Grange favors the continual agitation of this, measure throughout the state. Believing, as we do, the amount is excessive, and the manner of its expenditure is too indefinite.

The following resolution was also passed:

"Resolved, That we favor the parcels post, as advocated by the National and State Grange, and believe it would alike benefit the rural districts and the merchants of our cities and towns throughout the country.
