

STOP WOMAN AND CONSIDER

First, that almost every operation in our hospitals, performed upon women, becomes necessary because of neglect of such symptoms as headache, irregularities, displacements, pain in the side, dragging sensations, dizziness and sleeplessness.

Second, that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from active roots and herbs, has cured more cases of female ills than any other medicine known. It regulates, strengthens and restores women's health and is invaluable in preparing women for child-birth and during the period of Change of Life.

Third, the great volume of unsolicited and grateful testimonials on file at the Pinkham Laboratory at Lynn, Mass., many of which are from women at the time being published by special permission, give absolute evidence of the value of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Mrs. Pinkham's advice.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound For more than 30 years has been curing Female Complaints, such as Migrating Sensations, Weak Back, Falling and Displacements, Inflammation and Ulceration, and Organic Diseases, and it dissolves and expels Tumors at an early stage.

Mrs. Pinkham's Standing Invitation to Women Women suffering from any form of female weakness are invited to write Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass. for advice. She is the Mrs. Pinkham who has been advising sick women free of charge for more than twenty years, and before that she assisted her mother-in-law, Lydia E. Pinkham, in advising. Thus she is especially well qualified to guide sick women back to health. Write today, don't wait until too late.

THE PRINCE OF PILSEN COMING

Music! Pretty Girls, Beautiful Costumes and Splendid Staging Make It a Leader

Both comic opera and musical comedy the "catchy" quality of the music is the truest measure of popularity. In fact, its bond of success is this more than anything else

Wagner, as the Jolly Brewer in the Prince of Pilsen.

In the life of the work. Gustav Wagner has contributed to the score of "The Prince of Pilsen," which is a farce offer at the Grand opera house, some of the most fascinating music he has ever written. The music of the same opera, Mr. Wagner's play, has provided situations of such romantic and picturesque nature as readily to suggest lyrics of rare poetic value and melody. There are more than a dozen of song hits in "The Prince of Pilsen," and all seem to have attained enduring popularity.

"The Song of the Cities" is a play that always scores emphatically with an audience and is the expression of a very clever idea—of travestying the popular manners of girls in various parts of the country—the carriage, walk and the attentions of manner being indicated in each instance by the representative of the several cities. The travesties are made more palatable by the characteristic toilettes of the characters. Other characters from "The Prince of Pilsen" that have gained equal or even greater favor are "The Tale of the Sea Shell," "Pretty City Widow," "The Message of the Violet," "Heidelberg," "Pictures in the Smoke" and "Back to the Boulevard." These numbers were never sung so admirably as this season, for the singing strength of the present company interpreting the opera is the strongest Mr. Savage has ever gotten together.

This delightful musical concert will be seen here on Wednesday night at the Grand opera house.

SEE "FOR MOTHER'S SAKE"

"For Mother's Sake," the greatest success of a successful author, is scheduled to play at the Grand opera house this evening.

The company presenting this sterling play is composed of actors well known in the profession, not a stick among them. This is indeed a most refreshing innovation when we stop to consider that most companies carry a lot of dead wood and try to make up in numbers what they lack in talent. This play holds a distinguished place among the discriminating theater-goers, and the verdict rendered by the public has established its reputation and future beyond any question of doubt. The plot is logical, the scenery beautiful, and every actor an artist.

BAND CONCERT.

Salem Military Band Discourses Sweet Music in Marion Square.

The Salem Military Band delighted an appreciative and good-sized audience by giving an open-air concert in Marion square yesterday afternoon. Among the excellent numbers on the program were the grand selection from Bellini's opera "Somnambula," and the musical comedy, "The Prince of Pilsen." The entire program was beautifully rendered, considering the instrumentation of the band, and was deserving of the liberal applause given it.

Owing to the production "The Prince of Pilsen," which will be given in the opera house Wednesday evening, the regular mid-week concert will be postponed.

Had Tetter for Thirty Years.

I have suffered with tetter for 30 years and have tried almost countless remedies with little, if any relief. Three boxes of Chamberlain's Salve cured me. It was a torture. It breaks out a little sometimes, but nothing to what it used to do.—D. H. Beach, Midland City, Ala. Chamberlain's Salve is for sale at Dr. Stone's drug store.

FOURTH YEAR OF MINISTRY.

Rev. Davis Errett Delivers His Fourth Annual Sermon.

Elder D. Errett closed the fourth year of his ministry Sunday at the First Christian church, and gave a resume of the year and the previous years. In a financial way the church has paid out in the three previous years $15,000. The past year it has paid out $4,552.97, a total in the four years of $19,552.97.

The number of sermons preached during the four years was 508. Number of weddings, 71; funerals, 42; additions during this year, 52; additions through four years, 317. Next Sunday the church will be dedicated with Victor Dorris as master of ceremonies, and this will begin Mr. Errett's fifth year with this people.

The membership of the church has been doubled in these four years, and every department of the church is working harmoniously. The church is united, vigorous and aggressive, and with a favorable future, will soon be free of debt, and pushing to the front never before.

The dedication will be followed with a series of evangelistic meetings led by Mr. Dorris, and with such a gifted man it is evident there will be a great increase in the numbers of those who rightly belong in thought and inclination to this church.

Surprised at Salem's Growth.

S. W. Miles, of Lostine, Wallowa county, who formerly lived at Salem, has been here visiting friends and looking after his children in some of the valley educational institutions. He was surprised at the growth of Salem, and at the way property is advancing. "If I had invested in property in that block where the China houses are located when I was here four years ago, I could have doubled my money by this time. You have splendid educational institutions, and the making of a fine city. Both the business district and the residence parts of the city show great changes." Mr. Miles left for his home today.

Finest Colt in Oregon.

Not all the fine horseflesh at the state fair was entered for premiums. Marion Putnam, of Polk county, had a 4-month-old colt at the fair, which, in the opinion of good judges, is one of the best bred in Oregon. It is by "Tidal Wave," and has the points of a great horse. He has been offered all kinds of money for it, and the development of speed in the animal means that it will be worth thousands. He sold a 3-year-old the other day for $600.
