CITY NEWS

A Collection of Important Paragraphs for Your Consideration

Post Card Hall—New subjects daily. Good Entertainment—

The management of the Vaudeville is giving its patrons an excellent series of entertainments this week. The little theatre is probably the best conducted and best equipped place of amusement of its price in the state. The shows are of a high standard, and are receiving the patronage of the best people of the city.

Odd Fellows, Attention—All members of Chemeketa lodge and sojourning brothers are requested to meet at I. O. O. F. temple at 1:30 p. m. tomorrow (Tuesday) to arrange for attending the funeral of our late Brother Pratt, Signed J. A. Mathorn, Noble Grand.

Marion County Crop Report—Fruit Inspector Armstrong is working on a report of the condition and output of the crops in Marion county for this year, and will have the statistics gathered for the same in a few days.

Arrives With Engine—Engineer John Bewely arrived in the city last evening from Dallas with the 40-ton engine which will be used on the construction work on the Salem-Portland electric line. The engine was brought around by Albany from the West Side.

Wheat Kernel Injured Eye—Robert Weddle, of Jefferson, was in the city this morning receiving treatment for his eye which was injured over a week ago by a grain of wheat, which was thrown from a threshing machine, striking the eyeball. The eye has given Mr. Weddle a great deal of pain, but it is not thought the sight will be destroyed.

Condemnation Proceedings—Condemnation proceedings have been instituted in department No. 1 of the Marion county circuit court by the board of trustees of the state institution for the feeble minded against Joseph Bartosz to obtain possession of a tract of 133 acres, which was purchased by the state. Bartosz holds a lease on the property, and he and the state board have been unable to reach an agreement for the relinquishment of the property.

Suit on Hop Contract—Louis Lachmund & Co. have brought suit to obtain a judgment for $1329.42 against P. R. G. Horst and Lope Flug. The amount is set forth as being due on a hop contract between the contending parties. The contract called for 40,000 pounds of hops raised by the defendants, the agreed price being 12 cents. The complaint says that the hops are moldy, and therefore not up to the standard required by the contract, and ask for a judgment for $1329.42, which amount is said to have been advanced on the crop.

Fixing Up the House—This Fall? Then the new mouldings and interior trimmings will come from A. M. Hansen's factory, Mill and Church streets, if you want the prettiest.

Old Home Week—D. F. Wagner has an invitation to attend Maryland's old home week at Baltimore, October 13th to 19th, and is talking seriously of attending.

Regular Meeting—Of Chadwick Chapter No. 37, Order of the Eastern Star, Tuesday evening, October 1st. Full attendance desired.

Arrives With Prisoners—W. J. Russell, sheriff of Josephine county, arrived in the city this morning with James Reed and Frank Benson, two prisoners, who were convicted of the larceny of a trunk, and sentenced to serve a three-year sentence in the state penitentiary.

To Sell Real Estate—October 25, 1907, has been set as the time for hearing the petition of M. V. Corby, guardian of the person and estate of Walter B. Minier, a minor, to sell the interest of said minor in 113 acres of land situated in Marion county.

Final Account—Monday, November 11, 1907, at 11 a. m., has been set as the time to hear the final account of Nancy Priest, administratrix of the estate of Wm. H. Priest, deceased.

Sale approved—The sale of ten acres of land in section 19, and belonging to the estate of O. F. Sloper, deceased, has been approved. T. C. Sloper is administrator of the estate and sold the property to J. L. Custer for $350.

The Vaudeville—The regular change nights same as usual, but we have ordered new pictures for tonight and Tuesday, to take the place of the Sunday night picture.
