MINISTERS' COLLEGE AT SALEM

THE KIMBALL SCHOOL FACULTY

Fully Equipped Theological School At the Capital City--Distribution of the Work to Members of the Lecturing Force

The Kimball College of Theology of Willamette University began its second years' work during the present week. The enrollment of students has already far exceeded that of last year, and several other students will register during the next two weeks. Owing to the recent session of the Oregon conference, several students are obliged to move their families to new charges, and are thus late in reaching the school. The faculty list remains the same as last year, with the exception that the name of Prof. Edwin Sherwood, A. M., B. D., is added in the department of New Testament and Greek. Prof. W. E. Kirk will also offer courses in the English Bible. For the present year Dean Kimball offers a new course in psychology and Prof. Washburn new courses in Hermenentics and Bible History. The work of Prof. Sherwood in the Greek department gives promise of being a valuable feature of the school.

Beginning with the new year the college maintains separate chapel services. These are held daily at 4 o'clock.

A series of lectures by representative clergymen and educators will be given during the year. Among those who are expected to address the students in the near future are Bishop D. H. Moore, Portland; Dr. J. Whitcom Brougher and C. H. Dyott, of Portland, and President L. W. Riley, of McMinnville college.

During the summer some improvements have been made to the college buildings, the recitation rooms having been made unusually inviting in their appearance.

At the recent session of the Oregon conference in Portland about $18,000 was subscribed as the beginning of an endowment fund for the college. It is expected that this sum will be greatly increased during the present year.

With an efficient faculty, a loyal student body and a growing constituency, the future of the college of theology is very bright.

The faculty of the college consists of Rev. J. H. Coleman, D. D., president and lecturer on Theism; Rev. D. H. Kimball, D. D. LL. D., dean, Systematic and Practical Theology; Rev. R. H. Washburn, Ph. D., S. T. D., Hebrew and Church History; W. E. Kirk, A. M. English Bible; Rev. Edwin Sherwood, A. M., B. D., Greek Exercises; J. T. Matthews, A. M., Philosophy; S. B. Savage, Oratory; A. N. Fisher, D. D., Librarian and Lecturer.

It is not generally known that, besides the school of arts and sciences, the college of law and medicine and the college of music and oratory, Willamette University has a fully equipped college for turning out creditable members of the clerical profession.

THEY ALL CAME TO SALEM

The whole of the large display for Mitchell, Lewis & Staver Co., at the State Fair came to the Salem Branch. The blue ribbon articles did not go back to Portland. Nothing went back to Portland.

This gives the Salem Branch almost as complete a stock of the very choicest buggies as they had in the height of the season. Blue ribbon buggies. The best that can be built.

We have decided for the next month to take second hand wagons, buggies and hacks in exchange for new ones. Name your wants in this respect, and we will try to accommodate you.

We have a few sets of harness coming all the time. Making additions to our harness stock all the time. We have better facilities than heretofore to display our harness stock. We are selling harness every day.

No Need of Wood Famin

There is no need of a wood famine next year, if enough enterprising and industrious men will buy gasoline drag-saws. Now is the time to buy them.
