DISCIPLES

 GATHER

Great Convention Opens Its Session At Jamestown Today

Norfolk, Va., Oct. 11.—With thousands of delegates and visitors assembled, the international convention of the Disciples of Christ began today, to continue to next Thursday.
 Prominent members of the church from all over this country and from foreign lands are in attendance, surpassing in number and enthusiasm previous meetings of the church of Christ, since that in St. Louis 1893.

The convention has before it a number of questions of the greatest importance to the Disciples brotherhood. The convention, like the Baptist anniversary, consists for the most part of the annual meetings of the Disciples missionary organization. At this meeting, however, there will be a special convention to consider the invitation of the Interchurch Conference on Federation, which asks that the Disciples appoint official delegates to the Federation of Christian churches in America, which will meet for the first time in December of next year.

In the past, it has been the custom of the Disciples to decide such general questions at their missionary conventions, but opposition having arisen to the federation project, the convention last year appointed a special committee of 10 to issue a call for a meeting to be held at the time of the regular convention, to decide the matter, opponents of the measure having insisted that it was a matter germane to the missionary meetings.

As a result of this situation it is probable that this special convention which is to consider, besides the federation question, a plan for closer cooperation with Baptists, may become a regular feature of Disciples' gatherings. It has been impressed upon the church leaders that the Disciples should have a convention where general subjects might properly be brought for decision, and some of them are urging that the special meeting arranged for this year be made a permanent institution, like the Congregational national council now in session in Cleveland, or the new general convention of the Southern Baptists. Whether the convention will meet yearly, in conjunction with the missionary meetings, or at longer intervals, is one of the matters to be decided at the present session.

An alternative plan is favored by some of the delegates, who suggest that the present national convention be made a body which matters of general interest to Disciples may be brought, and that certain sessions at the annual gathering be devoted to the missionary organizations of the church. Whatever plan is proposed, it appears certain that opposition will develop, and it is possible that final action will not be taken at the convention.

Another important measure to be considered before the Norfolk meeting is the proposed revision of the constitution of the American Christian Missionary society, for which a committee was appointed at last year's convention in Buffalo, and which will report during the present meetings.

field for the great opportunities for missionary work. At last year's convention in Buffalo the battle was largely between New Orleans and Norfolk, Governor Blanchard and other prominent citizens of Louisiana joining in the invitation. In the end a compromise was effected, with the understanding that New Orleans should withdraw from the race, but was to receive the support of the eastern and Atlantic coast delegates this year.

At last year's convention in Buffalo there were 4400 delegates, while in 1905, in San Francisco, there were 4000. The largest convention ever held was at St. Louis during the exposition, when the attendance was 26,000. The Disciples of Christ, commonly known as Christians, number 1,300,000, the gain in the last half-century being marvelous. To local church work last year over $8,000,000 was given, to missions $1,000,000 and to education and benevolence $500,000. The denomination has both men and women preachers.

Do Your Meals Fit?

Do You Feel Soggy and Comfortable Around Your Waist Line
 After a Hearty Meal?

Did your last meal taste deliciously good to you, and did you eat all you wanted? Could you have patted your rotundity, in glee and felt proud of your appetite and of your good strong stomach? Do you feel rosy now because your last meal gave you no inconvenience whatever? If not, you have dyspepsia in some form, and probably never realized it.

If you have the least trouble in your stomach after eating, no matter how little or how much you eat, there is trouble brewing and you must correct it at once.

Most all stomach troubles come from poor, weak, scanty gastric juice, that precious liquid which ought to turn your food into rich, red blood.

If you have nausea, your gastric juice is weak. If you have sour risings or belchings, your food is fermenting; your gastric juice is weak.
 If you have loss of appetite, your gastric juice is weak. If you have a bloaty feeling or aversion to food, your gastric juice is weak.

You need something in your stomach to supply the gastric juice which is scanty, and to give power to the weak gastric juice. Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets do this very thing.

Now think—one grain of one of the ingredients of these wonderful little tablets digests 3000 grains of food. They are several times more powerful than the gastric juice in a good, strong, powerful stomach.
 They actually digest your food for you. Besides, they increase the flow of gastric juice, just what you need to get all the good possible out of everything you eat. You will never have that "lump of lead" in your stomach nor any other stomach trouble after taking Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. Then everything you eat will be digested, it will give you strength, vim, energy and a rosy disposition. You'll feel good all around your waist line after every meal and it will make you feel good all over.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will make you feel happy after eating a good, hearty meal. Take one or two after eating. You'll feel fine—then your meals will fit, no matter what or when you eat.

We want to send you a sample package of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets free of charge, so you can test them yourself and be convinced.
 After you have tried the sample, you will be so satisfied that you will go to the nearest drug store and get a 50c box.

BETWEEN AMAZONS

He Had the Lady But Would Have Preferred the Tiger

A dispatch from San Francisco, Tuesday, dated October 8, says: Captain H. Thomson, of the Pacific mail liner San Jose, which arrived here late Sunday evening from Panama, is a cautious man, and when Mrs. C. Lynch, passenger from Panama, appealed to him to prevent her husband making "Goo-Goo" eyes at another woman passenger, he declined to take any responsibility in the matter. The other woman passenger had basked in the glow of the ruby spot light on the isthmus.
 She possessed good looks and ways that seemed to fascinate Lynch and that aroused the ire of his good wife.

Although she appealed to the captain, Mrs. Lynch was not the kind of woman that could not manage her own affairs, and the demonstration she gave of her ability as a regulator was the one exciting event of the San Jose's trip up the coast.

Cue to Act.
 Captain Thomson's refusal to interfere was her cue to act. The woman with the attractive eyes was to leave the steamship at Acapulco, and shortly before the San Jose's arrival at that port Mrs. Lynch found her husband on deck hovering near the quarters occupied by the enchantress.

Mrs. Lynch ordered him to his cabin. He asserted his independence and refused to go. Mrs. Lynch laun-ded a left swing on her husband's right ear that made the mate of the liner jealous. She mixed matters then, and at the conclusion of the argument Lynch retired to his stateroom and rang for a quart of arnica, with a two-yard "chaser" of adhesive plaster.

Women Fight Each Other.
 Having chastised her husband, Mrs. Lynch sought out the woman whom she blamed for intercepting the soft glances that used to be hers alone. There followed the fiercest fight, say passengers and crew, that ever broke the monotony of an ocean voyage.

Mrs. Lynch's jealousy, according to report, was unfounded and perhaps the knowledge of her innocence lent the woman with the bewitching eyes strength for the battle.

Hair was torn out by the handful.
 Arms, faces and necks of both contestants were soon streaked with scratch marks and the deck for 20 feet was strewn with hairpins and samples of dress material.

Nobody dared to interfere, and the women fought to a finish. The cause of the battle went ashore at Acapulco, and Lynch was an exemplary husband for the rest of the voyage. Lynch had been employed on the Panama canal.

WHY SO WEAK.

Kidney Troubles May Be Sapping Your Life Away—Salem People Have Learned This Fact.

When a healthy man or woman begins to run down without apparent cause, becomes weak, languid, depressed, suffers backache, headache, dizzy spells and urinary disorders, look to the kidneys for the cause of it all. Keep the kidneys well and they will keep you well.
 Doan's Kidney Pills cure sick kidneys and keep them well. Here is Salem testimony to prove it.

E. E. Gillian, proprietor of livery and feed stable, at 62 Ferry St., and living at 332 Water St., Salem, Or., says: "Years of almost constant driving and a fall I got several years ago which wrenched by back badly had tended to hurt my kidneys. I suffered from back ache and lameness so that at times I could hardly straighten up. Sharp pains caught me when I arose after sitting. None of the remedies I tried did me any good until a short time ago I was induced to get Doan's Kidney Pills at Dr. Stone's drug store. In a short time I obtained more relief from the backache and disordered condition of the kidneys, than I had for years. I know of neighbors who have also used your remedy and they all speak of it as the best medicine there is and I believe this to be so."

aches, backache, sees imaginary dark spots or specks floating or dancing before her eyes, has gnawing distress or heavy full feeling in stomach, faint spells, dragging-down feeling in lower abdominal or pelvic region, easily startled or excited, irregular or painful periods, with or without pelvic catarrh, is suffering from weakness and derangements that should have early attention. Not all of above symptoms are likely to be present in above case at one time.

Neglected or badly treated and such cases often run into maladies which demand the surgeon's knife if they do not resolve naturally.

No medicine extant has such a long and honorable record of cures in such cases as Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.
 No medicine has such a strong professional endorsement or such a large number of satisfied non-professional testimonials. The very best ingredients known to medical science for the cure of woman's peculiar ailments enter into its composition. No alcohol, harmful, or habit-forming drug is to be found in the list of its ingredients printed on each bottle-wrapper and attested under oath.

In any condition of the female system, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription can do only good—never harm. Its whole effect is to strengthen, invigorate and regulate the whole female system and especially the pelvic organs. When these are deranged in function or affected by disease, the stomach and other organs of digestion become sympathetically deranged, the nerves are weakened, and a long list of bad, unpleasant symptoms follow. Too much must not be expected of this "Favorite Prescription." It will not perform miracles; will not cure tumors—no medicine will. It will often prevent them, if taken in time, and thus the operating table and the surgeon's knife may be avoided.

Women suffering from diseases of long standing are invited to consult Doctor Pierce by letter, free. All correspondence is held as strictly private and sacredly confidential. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Dr. Pierce's Medical Adviser (1000 pages) is sent free on receipt of 21 one-cent stamps for paper-covered, or 31 stamps for cloth-bound copy. Address as above.
