CITY NEWS

A Collection of Important Paragraphs for Your Consideration

Post Card Hall—
New subjects daily.

When You Want—
Good baking powder ask your grocer for Cleveland's. Don't allow him to give you any other brand.
10-7-1m

Woman's Club Meeting—
The Salem Woman's Club will meet tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the residence of Mrs. A. N. Moores. All members are requested to be present as important matters are to be discussed regarding the meeting of the State Federation, to be held in Salem October 22, 23 and 24.

The Needlecraft Shop—
Of Portland will open a branch shop in Salem soon. Watch paper for announcements. 10-5-1f.

Public Sale—
At the E. P. McCornack farm, adjoining the asylum farm, Monday, October 14, 1907, at 10 o'clock a. m., consisting of cows, sheep, goats, horses, hogs and farming machinery. Free lunch. J. T. Aufrance, proprietor, Salem, Oregon.

Remember—
Cleveland's Baking Powder, in 3-lb cans, only cost $1.00, and 5-lb cans $1.65. Both these cans have the metal handle under the regular cover. They are useful when empty. 10-7-1m

Business Men's League—
There was a meeting of this organization last night at the Board of Trade rooms, and a panoramic view of the Capital City was ordered made through the Kaiser Photo Company, and 100 copies were subscribed for by Salem business men. The pictures will also be on sale at Patton Bros.' bookstore. The annual election was deferred another week, to give a committee on annual banquet opportunity to make some arrangements to have that festivity in honor of the newly-elected officers.

Those Who Have—
Used it the longest praise it the most—Cleveland's Baking Powder. 10-7-1m

Real Estate Moving—
Ed. Wright, the well-known streetcar motorman, has just sold two lots he bought a year ago in Englewood for a nice advance. He has two more in South Salem that are advancing the same way.

Protecting the Bridge—
Street Commissioner Martin has a force of men at work protecting the fill to the new concrete bridge on North Commercial street, so that it will not wash out the first high water that comes this fall. A wingdam is being put in to hold the embankment in place.

Framing New Charter—
Chairman Greenbaum, of the ordinance committee, has had several conferences with representatives of the Portland Railway, Light & Power Company, to agree upon the terms of an amended charter that will protect the rights of the city, and allow street improvements to go forward all over the city. Goode and Low are the other members.

That Grill Work—
The grill work for several new Salem homes will come from A. M. Hansen, whose factory is at the corner of Mill and Church streets.

Ask Your Sweetheart—
And she will tell you that the best bread and cake is made with Wild Rose flour. Sold by all grocers.

Visitors Are Pleased—
Visitors are pleased with the well-equipped market of Steussloff Bros. They say it is one of the best in point of equipment in the whole country. And the meat supplies are in keeping, too.

Buy First-Class Goods—
For the healthy family. That's why J. M. Lawrence has so many customers—they know the goods are right. J. M. Lawrence.

Attention, Veterans—
All veterans of the Civil War, and especially members of Sedgwick Post, G. A. R., are hereby urgently requested to attend the funeral of our late comrade, G. W. Ellis, formerly of Company F, First New Hampshire cavalry, at his late home one door west of the corner of South Winter and Bellevue streets, at 10 a. m., Saturday, October 12, 1907. John P. Robertson, post commander.

Strong Water—
The pump at the city water works was started up Monday, and a small stream of water raised, with but little sand along with it. The water had a peculiar odor, which no one could account for.—Aurora Borealis.

The Clackamas Fair—
The Clackamas county fair began this morning at Gladstone Park, Oregon City, and will run until Saturday night. This is the first annual fair of that county, and, with the magnificent weather and exhibits, will no doubt prove a phenomenal success.

A Peculiar Case—
Miss Ollie Cushman was coming out from Acme on the stage Wednesday. They stopped at Hale to change stages, and as Miss Cushman was being helped out of the stage she struck her arm on a part of the wagon near the elbow. She was at once thrown into a violent paroxysm of vomiting, which could not be stopped. Dr. Bartle was driven out on short notice, and worked several hours before he got her quieted. She came in on the stage last night. The peculiar thing about it was that her arm was scarcely bruised.—Eugene Register.
